Pentecost

The Spirit comes gently and makes himself known by his fragrance. He is not felt as a burden, for he is light...Rays of light and knowledge stream before him as he approaches. The Spirit comes with the tenderness of a true friend and protector to save, to heal, to teach, to counsel, to strengthen, to console. The spirit comes to enlighten our mind...and through us the minds of others. As light strikes the eyes of one who comes out of darkness into the sunshine and enables him to see clearly things he could not discern before, so light of the Spirit floods our souls and enables us to see things beyond the range of human vision, things hitherto undreamed of. St. Cyril of Jerusalem

THOUGHTS FOR REFLECTION

What verse, image or idea spoke to me the most in today's readings? Why?

How have I experienced the Holy spirit's presence and activity in my life?

Name one way I can act on today's readings?

PRAYER AND REFLECTION

A Word from Sr. Phyllis:

One of my favorite images of the Holy Spirit is not the gentle cooing dove but the loud squawking goose. (I think it comes from the Irish tradition.) It's the goose that blares out insight into areas of justice. It's the image of the Holy Spirit that helps us recognize areas in which we need to put our energy as we continue to help build the Kingdom. In his encyclical Laudatio si', Pope Francis points out one of those challenging areas in the following prayer:

God of love, show us our place in the world as channels of your love for all the creatures of this earth, for not one of them is forgotten in your sight.

Enlighten those who possess power and money that they may avoid the sin of indifference, that they may love the common good, advance the weak, and care for this world in which we live.

The poor and the earth are crying out. O Lord, seize us with your power and light, Help us to protect all life, to prepare for a better future, for the coming of your Kingdom of justice, peace, love and beauty. Praise be to you! Amen

On this wonderful feast for which our parish is named, let us pray and act with Pope Francis to care for the poor and the earth.

Have you noticed a new door handle on the west entrance of the hall?

Our thanks to Mark Courtney
