A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as You are already there . I unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

 to do what is right."

PRAYER AND REFLECTIONS

A Word from Sr. Phyllis:

Next Sunday marks an important step in our RCIA process. We will be celebrating the Rite of Welcome (for those to be baptized) and Rite of Acceptance (for those seeking to be fully initiated) at the Easter Vigil. We have come to the point in which we witness their desire to be called into the mystery of God's love; to leave some ways behind and to grow in the practice of calling on God in prayer; to recognize God's presence and action in their daily lives.

Famed Rabbi Abraham Heschel maintains that there are no proofs of the existence of God, there are only witnesses. Our entire parish is responsible for the work of RCIA, but this year in particular, we are grateful to our teams who have been witnesses of God's presence and by sharing their stories have opened the eyes of our candidates to find their own stories in the scriptures. I know you will welcome them whole heartedly next Sunday as we celebrate these Rites.

Mass Intentions

As we look to 2021 there are an abundance of openings for mass intentions. If you are interested in scheduling a mass, please see Mickey Edwards or Sr. Phyllis.

Christ Is Anything but Ordinary

We're about to dive headlong into week two of Ordinary Time, and we need to admit, after the hustle and bustle of the holidays, things are indeed looking more ... ordinary, at least in our spiritual lives.

The transcendent highs of the Christmas season are flatlining a bit and the vivid imagery of the Nativity scene has faded. The solemn anticipation of the Advent season is by now a distant memory. Are you bored yet? Here's a secret: I think that Ordinary Time can actually be quite extraordinary, if we're really living out our baptismal call.

In today's Gospel, Jesus point-blank asks Andrew, who is following him after hearing John the Baptist's testimony: "What are you looking for?" He's asking us the same question. What are you looking for? Why are you following me? Is it for the Christmas cookies and the Advent carols? Is it for the King's Cake on the Epiphany? Is it for the feeling we get on Christmas when we just know God has done a wondrous thing? None of those things are bad, but they are not what Andrew was looking for, and they were not what Christ promised him when he said, "Come, and you will see." Andrew was looking for the Messiah — the One who makes even Ordinary Time extraordinary. The One who can sanctify the longest and dullest of to-do lists, on the longest and dullest of days. The One whose peace can reign in our homes on January 25, not just December 25. Remember what you are looking for. Come, and you will see.
