You Don't Have What It Takes — but You Will

Those of us in ministry love this saying: God doesn't call the equipped. He equips the called. We all know that sort of queasy feeling we get in the pit of our stomachs when it becomes clear what we're supposed to do, in any situation. It's that feeling of: Oh, no. Not me. Not now. I can't.

We've all got our list of reasons why not, don't we? We do it for everything, from big life problems to small everyday choices. I'm not going to invite my neighbor to church because I don't want to come across as pushy. I'm not going to make amends with my cousin because she'll just walk all over me again. I'm not going to say a Rosary tonight because I'm tired and it'll just stress me out. However, even if we all put our lists of "reasons why we can't" together, I don't think any of us have reasons quite as valid as the apostles. Their job was to convert the nations — and here they are, a bunch of fishermen who haven't been out of Judea, who speak only their own languages. Were they supposed to preach the Gospel via a particularly compelling game of charades?

But even that big, giant, stop-you-dead-in-your tracks Reason Why We Can't was nothing, because God had a plan. He didn't call a bunch of equipped men. He called them, and He equipped them. Cue the tongues of fire! God doesn't call us to do His will because we have what it takes. He calls us because He's ready to give us what it takes. Being a good steward is to answer the call of Christ knowing he will provide.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PRAYER AND REFLECTIONS

A Word from Sr. Phyllis:

More and more we become aware of those with Dementia or Alzheimer's. Have you noticed the sign in front of our church that says, "Become a Dementia Friend?"

Here is a prayer that makes us aware of what we are called to do:

*Do not ask me to remember.
Don't try to make me understand.
Let me rest and know you're with me;
Kiss my cheek, and hold my hand.*

*I'm confused beyond your concept.
I am sad and sick and lost.
All I know is that I need you
To be with me at all cost.*

*Do not lose your patience with me.
Do not scold or curse or cry.
I can't help the way I'm acting;
Can't be different though I try.*

*Just remember that I need you,
That the best of me is gone.
Please don't fail to stand beside me;
Love me till my life is done.*

Pray every day to end abortion, euthanasia
the death penalty.

Seminarian Education Collection

Our diocesan-wide Seminarian Education Collection is scheduled for Today, Sunday, May 23. This collection will directly support the education and formation of men who are discerning a call to ordained priesthood. We are all aware of the priest shortage in our diocese. More than ever, we must continue efforts to invite young people to consider the priesthood and religious life. With more seminarians, we incur more costs. A gift to this collection is an investment in the future of our Church. Please support these efforts as generously as you can.
