PETER'S PENCE

TODAY we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which is a way to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis with the funds to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression and disasters.

Please be generous. For more information, visit www.peterspence.va/en.html.

LOVE AND GRATITUDE

Today's readings invite us to join Jesus in living his profound love for all creation — caring for the Earth, accompanying the sick, reaching out to the broken with a generosity that matches his own. We ask for the grace to let the word permeate and guide us, refreshing and energizing our intentions to practice the generous justice of the Lord.

Gratitude can be one of the most fruitful forms of prayer. When we specifically notice things to be grateful for, we become aware of and acknowledge God's constant presence in our lives. Practicing gratitude daily is a practice which can change your whole attitude and it doesn't have to take a lot of time.

PRAYER AND REFLECTIONS

A word from Sr. Phyllis:

One of the outstanding qualities of Holy Spirit Parish is the way we care for one another. Our grateful thanks to the Knights of Columbus who did yard work for one of our parishioners who needed their help.

At the Easter Vigil last year, Glen Larson made his profession of faith and was fully initiated in the Catholic Church. His wife Lana passed away this past Monday, June 21, 2021. I invite you to surround Glen with our love and sympathy. If you'd like to send him a card, his address is:

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand. So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.
