2nd Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to her, “Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come.” - Jn 2:4

Welcome

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US

ORDINARY TIME

Each year, we begin a cycle of spiritual renewal that leads us into the great mystery of our experience of God's love. The year starts with the Advent journey, a time of joyful anticipation of the coming of Christ. It is a season of preparation that leads us into the Christmas experience and the glory of God with us. Between the Christmas and Lenten seasons, we enter into the first period of Ordinary Time.

We cannot speak of Ordinary Time without speaking of Sundays. The seven-day celebration of the Lord's Day is the basic structure upon which the church year is built. Of all of our liturgical seasons, Easter has the most expansive celebration of particular aspects of the Paschal Mystery. These seasons in no way minimize the critical importance of the Sunday celebration throughout the year. Ordinary Time is not very ordinary at all. The Sunday celebration is the identifying mark of the Christian community that comes together to remember on the first day of the week that the Lord of Life rose from the dead. Sunday is a day of worship and rest and is a sacrament of redeemed time. How we live on Sunday proclaims to the world what we believe about redeemed-time, now and forever.

What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. Sunday, like all the sacraments, is the point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the Kingdom. This is not ordinary at all! It is the very fabric of Christian living.

As we enter into these next weeks of Ordinary Time, we carry with us the wonder and awe of God with us as we seek to live in the light and truth of God's love.

Peace and Joy,
Fr. Don

Gospel Reading for Jan. 23

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Since many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the events that have been fulfilled among us, just as those who were eyewitnesses from the beginning and ministers of the word have handed them down to us, I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received.

Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all.

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.*

Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him.

He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

KNOWING YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH WITH DEACON JIM

We are now in the season of Ordinary Time in the Church. Many people may believe that the Catholic Church calls this Ordinary Time because nothing special is happening in the church. Is that true?

Because of the connotations of the term ordinary in English, many people think that Ordinary Time refers to the parts of the Church year that are unimportant.

Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" simply because the weeks are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, Ordinary Time is in fact the ordered life of the Church.

It's appropriate, therefore, that the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time (which is actually the first Sunday celebrated in Ordinary Time) always features either John the Baptist's acknowledgment of Christ as the Lamb of God or Christ's first miracle—the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana. The liturgical color of Ordinary Time is green, which represents growth. This time in the church year is a time for growth in knowledge of our faith and our spiritual life.

Ordinary Time encompasses two different periods in the Catholic Church's liturgical year. Ordinary Time begins after the completion of the Christmas season and runs until Ash Wednesday. Both the Lenten and the Easter Seasons fall outside of Ordinary Time, which resumes again on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday and runs until the First Sunday in Advent (the start of the new liturgical year).

Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. That's why there's nothing "ordinary" about Ordinary Time.
