From the Deacon

It is all about discipleship!

(Parish Mission Planning Update)

When Jesus walked the earth, he gathered disciples around him and taught them how to love God and to love one another by showing them how he lived and how he loved. In the process of following him they came to know him, love him and worship him. The disciples could not help but share him with everyone they encountered because knowing Jesus had changed their lives!

Changing lives with the love of Jesus is what our parish mission is all about. “Stella Maris Catholic Parish prayerfully unites people in the love of Jesus guided by our patron, Mary. We invite all to journey as disciples. By sharing the Gospel, responding to Jesus’ love and the gifts God has given us, we welcome all to grow in faith and in our parish life.” In support of our parish mission and vision, our staff, leadership, ministries and parish at large are launching into a three-year process of formation as disciples of Jesus and life as missionary disciples. Discipleship formation involves encountering, following, loving, worshipping and serving Jesus. Missionary discipleship means sharing Jesus and helping others to grow as disciples.

Asking for God’s blessing on our efforts, we pray:

Oh, Good Shepherd, Jesus, help me to imitate you and reflect your image to others, especially those whom I guide and serve.

Help me to think with your mind, to see and gaze with your eyes, to hear with your ears and to speak with the words of your mouth.

Lord Jesus, use me to carry forth your mission. As your servant and disciple, help me to carry out this work with your hands to be a voice for you in all that I say and do.

Merciful Shepherd, Jesus, help me to live in your person, to share generously in carrying your cross so that many others may be saved by coming to know and love you through my simple, faithful witness.

Glory be to the Father...

A Disciple’s Prayer—Diocese of Green Bay

Cleaner Air at All Worship Sites

We have just completed the installation of iWave-R self-cleaning needlepoint bipolar ionization generators in all of the furnaces, in all of our worship sites. These units work to clean the air supply. As the air flows past the iWave unit, positive and negative ions actively clean the air supply, reducing bacteria, viruses (including SARS-Cov-2 [Covid-19]*), smoke, odors, as well as other particles. These units work continuously while the heating or air conditioning units are operating. The improved indoor air quality will make our worship sites safer for gatherings.

(*Tests were run for Nu-Calgon, www.nucalgon.com)

Mass Live Streamed from Baileys Harbor

Continuing in the new year, Stella Maris Parish will live streaming 8:00 am Mass on Sunday morning on the parish Facebook page. For those who are not able to attend Mass because of illness or physical challenges, we want to be present to you. We know that the reach of our parish goes far beyond northern Door County and we want to give those with whom we have a connection another way to stay in touch with us. Live streaming will also help in times of inclement weather.

To join us for Mass online, go to <https://www.facebook.com/stellamarisparishdc>. Live streaming will also be available for weddings, funerals and other special liturgical events. For more details, or to volunteer to help us with live streaming, please contact Deacon Tony at busmgrsmdc@gmail.com or by calling the parish Office at (920) 868-3241.

Everyday Stewardship- Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments

It Takes All Kinds

“If every flower wanted to be a rose,” wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, “spring would lose its loveliness.”

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of “varieties of tongues” might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, “Do whatever he tells you,” her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God’s instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God’s word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

RESPECT LIFE—"There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them but for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image." —United States Conference of Catholic Bishops—"Living the Gospel of Life," © 1998 USCCB.

SNOW SHOVELERS NEEDED—We could use a few students to help with snow shoveling at our Baileys Harbor and Sister Bay sites. This would be a good way for any high school students that need to have service hours for Confirmation or high school graduation to fulfill that need. Please call Deacon Tony at the church office if you are interested at (920) 868-3241. If he is not in, please leave a message and he will get back to you.

Winter Weather Cancellations

Father Tom, the staff and support personnel will make every attempt to maintain our schedule of masses, events and committee meetings. However, we ask that you never place yourself in harms way to attend them. In the event of a cancellation the following methods of communication will be used: Radio station WDOR (FM 94), TV stations WBAY (2) or our website www.stellamarisparish.com (Usually if the schools are closed our events are cancelled) Please use your own discretion for safety.

WE HAVE SEEN HIS GLORY

Isaiah 62:1-5, 1 Corinthians 12:4-11, John 2:1-11

If you're anything like me, it seems like it has been months since we celebrated Christmas. The busy and rich holy days gave way to New Year's resolutions, as we returned to work, school and ministry. Even the memories of our recent celebrations of Epiphany and the Baptism of the Lord are quickly fading. And yet, on this Second Sunday of Ordinary Time, the gospel story of the wedding at Cana forms the third part of a sort of Epiphany trilogy and carries the themes of these two Christmastide feasts into the green days of Ordinary Time: manifestation and transformation.

These three Epiphany events, the visit of the Magi, the baptism of Jesus by John and the miracle at Cana are, as Pope Francis has described them, "the three signs that the liturgy brings in these days in order to speak to us about the manifestation of God: God makes himself known." As we know, the story of the Magi coming from the East reminds us that the child born in Bethlehem was born for all peoples and the baptism of Jesus is the revelation that he is the Father's "beloved Son." So, then, what do we learn from the miracle at Cana? What truth is revealed in this Sunday's gospel?

To answer this question, we have to pull back the lens, as it were, to take in a broader view of salvation history.

Throughout the Old Testament, we read of how God continually called straying women and men back into right-relationship with Himself. The Hebrew Scriptures are filled with signs and stories that reveal God's covenant-love, His relationship with His Chosen People: the rainbow after the great flood (Genesis 9:1-17), Abraham's star-filled sky (Gn 15), the giving of the Law to Moses (Exodus 15 and 24) and the promises made to King David and his descendants (1 Samuel 7:12-13). Each of these stories remind us that while the People of Israel violated this relationship time and again, God's love and mercy remained constant. Even the first reading of this Sunday's Mass reminds us of God's abiding and merciful love: "As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so shall your God rejoice in you (Isaiah 62:5)."

But those signs and symbols of the Old Testament were only representations of God's love. On that first Christmas night everything changed. In Jesus, who is the Word-Made-Flesh, God "made his dwelling among us and we have seen his glory" (John 1:14) and the miracle at Cana was the first time that Jesus manifested, remember, this is an Epiphany, his own transforming power and his glory. This is why Adrian Nocent, OSB, could write these beautiful words in his celebrated commentary on the liturgical year: "We were once water, now we are wine and are judged worthy of the wedding feast. We are being invited, then, to meditate on this renewal of our selves, of our institutions and of everything around us, but we must bear in mind that the renewal will come in its fullness only at the wedding feast of the last day."

Cana marked a beginning and in the transformation of the water into wine we discover that Jesus wasn't simply another prophet or holy man. He was God's "Beloved" and he holds the power to transform, to recreate and renew, the elements of earth and more importantly, the hearts, minds and souls of his followers.

In the coming weeks of Ordinary Time, we will hear the stories of how this transforming and saving work, begun in Cana, changed the lives of Jesus' disciples, as we're invited to reflect on how that transforming power continues to shape us today.

Thank You

for advertising in the Stella Maris Parish church bulletin. I am patronizing your business because of it!

Parish Membership

Stella Maris Parish is delighted when new people want to join our parish and gladly welcomes them into our faith community. Contact the parish office.

day's from 8:30 to 9:30 am in Baileys Harbor May through November or by appointment by texting (920) 217-8155.

Sacrament of Matrimony

A faith-filled wedding is a joyful time for the couple and the parish. Our parish wants to have all weddings here be the best possible. The couple must meet with the pastor before a date can be reserved. Please contact the parish office at least 12 months in advance to begin preparation.

Infant Baptism

The baptism of new babies and young children revitalizes our faith community. Please contact the parish office to make arrangements for baptism.

Adult Initiation

The Catholic Church is always enriched whenever any adult chooses to be Catholic. Adults wishing to be baptized, or baptized adults wishing to be confirmed, the RCIA program is available.

Ministry to the Sick

Everyone needs extra compassion and care when his or her health is not at its best. As a parish, we try to meet that need. Communal anointing Masses take place twice yearly, with individual anointing done when requested. Parishioners in the hospital, nursing home or other institution are encouraged to notify the office to arrange for visits or communion.

Reconciliation

God's great mercy is something to be celebrated. Ritually we Catholics experience God's unconditional love in the sacrament of reconciliation. Our pastor is available on Satur-

What others tell us:

"I've been a member of Stella Maris Parish, originally St. Rosalia's, since 1982 and have enjoyed a wonderful experience as a parishioner. I have especially enjoyed getting to know the priests who have served our parish. I am giving to the "Star of the Sea" Endowment in gratitude for these experiences and want Stella Maris to have a foundation that will be perpetuated." (Sister Bay, WI)

Information about making a gift to the Endowment may be found in the brochures at the churches, on the parish website, or by talking with an Endowment committee member.
