St. Vincent de Paul

Jesus calls each of us to follow Him. Is He calling to you to reach out to those less fortunate? Is He calling you to grow closer to Him through prayer and charity? Is He calling you to continue to grow in your faith and spirituality through prayer and sharing? Is He, perhaps calling you to friendship with fellow Vincentians? We do all of these things at biweekly meetings and visits to those in need. As a Vincentian you are part of a worldwide organization that has all of these goals in mind. Here at Stella Maris our conference is part of the Green Bay District.

Maybe you're thinking you would not know how to do all of this. We spend a part of every meeting in prayer and reflection as well as training. You would be paired up with a more experienced Vincentian (your fellow Stella Maris parishioners) as you 'learn the ropes'. Maybe you're thinking you just do not have the time. If you have four hours a month to attend two Meetings (each up to two hours), time is flexible. You will share the work with all the other Vincentians and pick the times that work for you. Usually you would be assigned to help those who need us less than once a month for a few visits along with a partner.

We do celebrate some special times together, renewing our commitment annually and going to breakfast together after that Mass. Before Covid we had a summer picnic and a holiday party. We hope to do these events again.

So, think prayer, service and fun. For more information please email Sharon Brabson at brabsonsharon@gmail.com or call or email our President, Greg Berezewski at greg-berezewski@gmail.com or (815)953-4871.

Everyday Stewardship

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them — not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves, our bodies, our souls, with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

Worship Column

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time, July 16-17, 2022

Beth Serenock, Director of Worship & Music

The Word: The readings include the story of Abraham and Sarah preparing a meal for unexpected guests, from heaven nonetheless! The Psalm as a reminder to do what is right, St. Paul describing his work as "in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God..." (Col. 1:25); and the Gospel story of Martha who is worried and about many things compared to Mary, who was listening to Christ's words.

The Meditation: What do these messages bring to your mind about hospitality and a Word-focused spirituality? What is your "stewardship" that God has given you? Do you remember to combat worry with the Word of God in your spiritual life, both reading and recalling the themes that the Holy Spirit puts on your heart?

Liturgy in Action: Early on in my conversion, I would pray in the morning for help with being more generous or kind, or another virtue. Oftentimes, as the day progressed, I would run into an unfortunate situation, one that caused me pain or embarrassment. But almost immediately, the Holy Spirit would remind me of my morning petition and I would realize that it was in fact an answer to my prayer, as I was being admonished or taught that my attitude was selfish. For example, I was living in Sweden where most of the society is in the mid-range of the economy, but a smaller slice of the population is extremely wealthy. While riding on the tram in the city one day, I noticed a lady with very expensive-looking mittens and I looked at her with scorn. Shortly thereafter, I got off at my stop. To my amazement, my own nice mittens were gone! I had left them on the tram. I remembered my prayer of that morning to the Holy Spirit to make me a better person and to help me not to judge others! Prioritize God, pray with faith and reap the fruits of virtue. Sometimes wearing a Rosary or a Brown Scapular can help us remember.

Prayer: O Mary, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (Feast: July 16), help us to know God and His will for our life. We ask for the intercession of St. Simon Stock, who prayed for the brothers under his care, that the Holy Spirit enlighten our minds to be aware of our "stewardship" from God and grant us the desire to be spiritually minded, always attune to God's Word. O Stella Maris and St. Simon Stock, pray for us! Amen

Parish Membership

Stella Maris Parish is delighted when new people want to join our parish and gladly welcomes them into our faith community. Contact the parish office.

Infant Baptism

The baptism of new babies and young children revitalizes our faith community. Please contact the parish office to make arrangements for baptism.

Adult Initiation

The Catholic Church is always enriched whenever any adult chooses to be Catholic. Adults wishing to be baptized, or baptized adults wishing to be confirmed, the RCIA program is available.

Reconciliation

God's great mercy is something to be celebrated. Ritually we Catholics experience God's unconditional love in the sacrament of reconciliation. Our pastor is available on Saturday's from 8:30 to 9:30 am in Baileys Harbor May through-November or by appointment by texting (920) 217-8155.

Sacrament of Matrimony

A faith-filled wedding is a joyful time for the couple and the parish. Our parish wants to have all weddings here be the best possible. The couple must meet with the pastor before a date can be reserved. Please contact the parish office at least 12 months in advance to begin preparation.

Ministry to the Sick

Everyone needs extra compassion and care when his or her health is not at its best. As a parish, we try to meet that need. Communal anointing Masses take place twice yearly, with individual anointing done when requested. Parishioners in the hospital, nursing home or other institution are encouraged to notify the office to arrange for visits or communion.

Stella Maris Parish "Star of the Sea" Endowment
 For a perpetual Catholic presence in northern Door County

What others tell us:

"When Catholics come to northern Door County, they expect to find a Catholic Church where they can go to Mass. Seasonal members and visitors participate in the church and Stella Maris Parish needs to be there to serve them. This Endowment will actually be even more long lasting than the churches built by those before us. Our contributions now will mean that we will bequeath to our great-great-grandchildren and beyond a Parish (where) they will bring their children to worship Jesus." (Jacksonport, WI)

Information about making a gift to the Endowment may be found in brochures at the churches or on the parish website
