Faith Formation Living Our Stella Maris Values

One of our living values here at Stella Maris is Prayer. To be a disciple of Jesus we must have a relationship with Him. Like any relationship this is based on communication. Our communication with Jesus is prayer. Prayer deepens our relationship with Him. Prayer brings us closer to Him. He created us with a need for connection and prayer is connection. Praying is talking to the Lord, just like friends talk to each other and are brought closer together through their sharing. Prayer is also listening to God just as we listen to friends. When we pray, we share our innermost being with Him. Through prayer, we are transformed and renewed. Prayer reminds us that we are dependent on God and not on ourselves. Prayer draws us closer to Jesus. In many ways our mission and vision need to begin with prayer. It only through God that we can be good disciples as He has called us to be.

Another value we hold is to Allow the Holy Spirit to Work Through Us. In many ways this can help us with our prayer. We can call on the Holy Spirit anytime. "Come, Holy Spirit, Come" is in itself a powerful prayer. The Holy Spirit can lead us to our relationship with Jesus and each other. The Holy Spirit can lead us on our discipleship journey and work through us to help lead others.

So how can we allow the Holy Spirit to guide and work through us?

We can start by praying daily, asking for the Spirit to work in our lives and help us on our journey and that we might be able to help others on their journey.

We can work at being willing to consider new ideas, leaving the outcome to God's direction, in His time.

Be open and invite the Spirit into your life and be prepared for a powerful response.

Let us make Stella Maris a true parish of prayer. Personal prayer, prayer groups, communal prayer, spontaneous prayer, family prayer, are all important. Saint Paul told us to "Pray Always" (1 Thessalonians 5:17). We pray through liturgy, through prayer group, before meetings, after meetings, with family, with friends and with quiet time just between ourselves and Jesus.

Book Club

Our August meeting:

We will be meeting at Stella Maris Sister Bay on Monday, August 8 at 10 am. We will discuss:

"A Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything - A Spirituality for Real Life" by Father James Martin.

A practical spiritual guidebook that shows you how to manage relationships, money, work, prayer and decision-making, all while keeping a sense of humor. Inspired by the life and teachings of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, this book will help you realize the Ignatian goal of "finding God in all things." Filled with relatable examples, humorous stories and anecdotes from the heroic and inspiring lives of Jesuit saints and average priests and brothers, The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything will enrich your everyday life with spiritual guidance and history.

Worship Column

This is a thought from last week but appropriate for any week of the year.

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called "stopping by." They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. "I was just in the neighborhood," they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

"Crazy," you might exclaim. "People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?" Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sacrament of Matrimony

Infant Baptism

The baptism of new babies and young children revitalizes our faith community. Please contact the parish office to make arrangements for baptism.

Adult Initiation

The Catholic Church is always enriched whenever any adult chooses to be Catholic. Adults wishing to be baptized, or baptized adults wishing to be confirmed, the RCIA program is available.

Ministry to the Sick

Everyone needs extra compassion and care when his or her health is not at its best. As a parish, we try to meet that need. Communal anointing Masses take place twice yearly, with individual anointing done when requested. Parishioners in the hospital, nursing home or other institution are encouraged to notify the office to arrange for visits or communion.

Stella Maris Parish "Star of the Sea" Endowment
 For a perpetual Catholic presence in northern Door County

Stella Maris Parish traces its history back nearly 150 years to when the first Catholic Church was built in Baileys Harbor in 1874. Throughout the history of our parish, numerous families have made sacrifices that have enabled Catholics who come to northern Door County to worship.

It's our turn now to do something today that will ensure that there will always be a Catholic presence in northern Door County to serve our residents and the many visitors who choose to spend time here.

Information about making a gift may be found in brochures at the churches, on the parish website, or by talking with one of the Endowment committee members.
