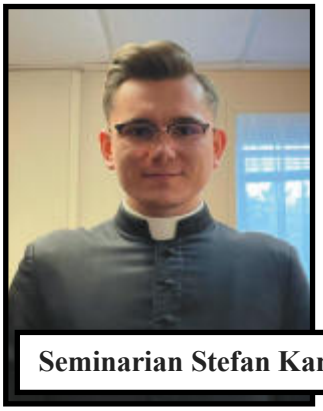
Fr. Pat Jakel, Pastor



Seminarian Stefan Kaniewski

Dear Parishioners & Staff of St. Paul Church,

I would like to express my deep gratitude for all of your support and good time spent among you. You opened your hearts and homes to me. I'm particularly grateful to Fr. Pat and Fr. Kosk for their time, example of life, and their invitation. I felt like I was home. I'm jealous that you have those two great priests in your parish.

I also want to thank all of you who brought me Christmas gifts. It was awesome to be able to open them on Christmas Eve (and was able to purchase a new laptop for my studies).

I fell in love with your parish, and that helped me to decide to join the Diocese of Springfield. I hope to come back and spend more time with you and share my faith and love with you.

May God bless you abundantly. With prayers,
Seminarian Stefan Kaniewski

St. Paul Parish has received its annual Catholic Times assessment from the Diocese. The 2021 assessment for our annual subscription of our Diocesan publication is $15,240. You will notice that an envelope for Catholic Times (our monthly Diocesan publication) is included in your January, February, and March monthly envelope packets. Each family is asked to make a one-time $15 donation for their annual Catholic Times subscription by the end of March.

Please note that our Catholic Times assessment is not subject to adjustment once determined. There have been parishioners in the past, who have contacted the Parish Office requesting that their subscription be discontinued, assuming that our assessment would be decreased accordingly. Unfortunately, this is not the case. Once determined by the Diocese, the full assessment is due, with the Parish being responsible for any shortfall from the amount collected.

Thank you to those who have contributed towards our Catholic Times assessment! For those wishing to contribute, you can make your donation in your Catholic Times envelope using the drop box or collection baskets at the church entrances, online, or stop by the Parish Office and say hi to our friendly staff and drop off your payment. However you choose to contribute, know that your donation allows those in our Parish to stay connected with our fellow Diocesan parishes, which allows us to. . .SHINE ON within our Parish, our Diocese, and beyond!!

2020 contribution statements were e-mailed this week to all parishioners with an e-mail address on file with the Parish Office. Hard copy contribution statements were mailed via USPS this week to everyone who does not have an e-mail address on file and to those who requested that a hard copy be mailed to them. Please contact the Parish Office if you have not received your statement by February 1st. Thank you!

Please be sure that the Parish Office has an accurate email address and cell phone number on file for you, so that we are able to provide the most up-to-date information regarding your parish.

Thank you!

For Your Family: Building the Domestic Church

The Greatest Gift We can Give Our Children is to Love Our Spouse

By Kathleen Billings

Last week I took my youngest daughter, age 9, to South Haven, Michigan for a quick two-day mommy/daughter beach get away. Sandwiched in the middle of four other siblings who all compete for my attention, Marianna was thrilled to have me all to herself for two days. For me, it was pure joy to spend alone time with my daughter. While we were lazily floating on inner tubes in the water, we shared with each other five things we love about the other person. The second thing that Marianna said was, "Mommy I love that YOU LOVE DADDY!" I responded, "Yes, honey, I do – very much!" For a moment I was taken aback that at age 9 my daughter unknowingly communicated a profound truth – the greatest gift we can give our children is to love our spouse.

A strong marriage where love between spouses is visible and tangible provides security and stability for children and an atmosphere in which they can thrive. When children question their parents love for one another, they often begin to question God's love for them. Children come to know the love of God through the love their parents have not only for them, but for each other. If you want your children to experience God's love, then be willing to do what it takes to fully and selflessly love your spouse.

The family is the school of love. When I am tired and frustrated, there are many moments when I am tempted to say something to Troy that I shouldn't, but I try to stop myself and ask God to zip my mouth. I know little ears are listening, little eyes are watching, and two teenagers are observing. Taking a moment to whisper a prayer soliciting the help of the Holy Spirit to be with us before we act or speak, in moments where our strength is lacking, often saves the day. It turns a potential disastrous moment into a lesson of love. If any one of our children witnesses my husband and I treating one another with a lack of respect and love, it does damage to their impressionable hearts and causes division within our family.

When Troy and I need to resolve a large conflict, we step away and discuss it privately. If it is a smaller, more trivial issue, we often talk it out in the presence of our children to teach them conflict resolution skills and demonstrate how conflicts can be resolved in a spirit of love and respect. It can be alluring to fall into the trap of putting our children before our spouse because they are often more demanding of our time and love. Sometimes it seems as though they are easier to love. If we are not purposeful in loving our spouse first, we can create disorder in our home which causes chaos and instability. The final result is insecure children and an unhappy family life.

Troy and I want to raise confident children and we long for them to experience the love of God through our love for one another. We also strive to model what they should eventually look for in a potential husband or wife. St. Mother Teresa said, "Love to be real, [it] must be empty of self." I know that if I want to truly love Troy, and through loving him, love my children, then I need to decrease and let Christ increase in me. I need Him to love my family well.

To hear my daughter say, "I love that you love daddy" brought me such joy and simultaneously brought me to the feet of Jesus, once again, begging for His grace to keep loving my husband, my children's father, with His love. There is no greater gift I can give my children.

SET YOUR ALARMS!

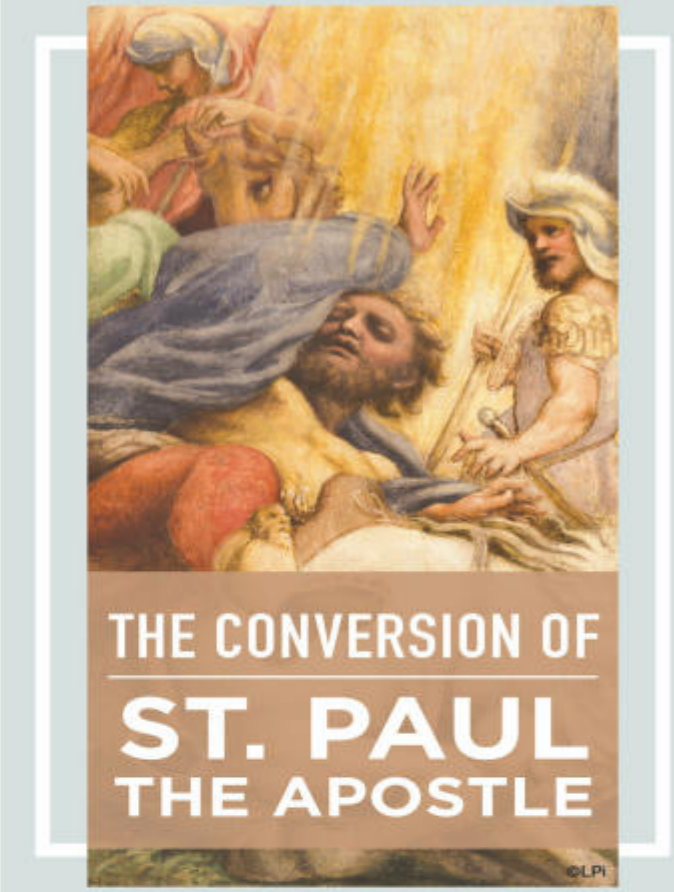
4:40 for 40 Seminarians

Please plan to participate in the ongoing diocesan initiative, "4:40 for 40" to pray for priestly vocations. The campaign is a way to engage everyone in the effort to storm heaven with our prayers for more young, holy men to answer the call to serve God and his people in his Church.

At 4:40 each day, wherever you are, please stop and join with others around our diocese in saying a prayer that many young men have the call to priesthood placed on their hearts. Pray that they will be open and willing to following that call.

BE NOT AFRAID

What are you afraid of? – Going to confession, failing as a parent, to become Catholic, quitting a porn addiction, dying, getting an annulment, to have a child, talking to your adult child who has left the faith – all things you might be fearful of. Visit benotafraid.dio.org to explore and experience your fears and find resources, answers, and help to some of life's biggest fears as a Catholic.



REFLECT

FIRST READING

Although initially reluctant to be one of God's prophets, Jonah was ultimately successful in getting the Ninevites to repent of their sins. When do you find yourself resisting God's will?

SECOND READING

In trying to awaken a sense of spiritual urgency, Paul taught the Corinthians that Christ's return was imminent and that, "time is running out." How can a sense of urgency aid one's spiritual life?

GOSPEL READING

In Mark's account of the call of the first disciples, Simon (Peter), Andrew, James, and John immediately answer Jesus' call to follow him. How would you describe your response to Jesus' call in your life?

Support for Survivors of Human Trafficking

Donations Collected January 23-24 & Jan. 30-31

Beginning in 2010, by Presidential Proclamation, each January has been designated National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month.

According to the United Nation's International Labor Organization's (ILO) 2016 "Global Estimates of Modern Slavery," nearly 40.3 million people are victims of modern slavery, of whom 24.9 million are entrapped in forced labor and sexual slavery and 15.4 million subjected to forced marriage. Through coercion, deceit, or force, they are trapped in jobs and situations from which they cannot escape (from United States Conference of Catholic Bishops).

eden's glory
A home where hearts are transformed

A basket for monetary donations will be at the baptismal font the weekends of Jan. 23-24 & Jan. 30-31 to support Eden's Glory, a home where "survivors of human trafficking are restored to thrive for the praise and glory of God." (Please make checks payable to Eden's Glory)

Eden's Glory offers a Christ-centered, two-year, holistic residential treatment program for adult women, ages 18 and older who are survivors of human trafficking, to help transition them back into society and show them that they have purpose.

Please remember in prayer victims and survivors and pray for an end to this form of modern-day slavery.

There are a variety of practical ways to support Eden's Glory, including saving caps from some Prairie Farms drinks and entering a code.

Visit http://edensglory.org to learn more how you can help or to make an online donation.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 24

Proclaiming the Gospel of God. Jesus is very busy in the beginning of Mark's gospel – proclaiming, teaching, healing. And calling others to come and follow. The responses of Simon and Andrew, of James and John were immediate: stopping what they were doing, leaving it all behind without hesitation – they followed him. Stay tuned to this whole liturgical year to see where that leads.

- What of the good news of God is Jesus proclaiming to me today?
- How am I hesitating in giving Jesus Christ my immediate attention and response?
- What am I leaving behind, stopping doing in order to follow Jesus in more faithful ways?

Confirmation for Adults – We want to ensure that any adult – high-school age and older - who is not yet Confirmed has the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Some adults "missed" this Sacrament if their family moved or changed schools at a time when formation was offered.

On Saturday, March 27, from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m., we will offer a preparation session for those adults who wish to be Confirmed at St. Paul in April.

Confirmation Masses will be celebrated on Saturday, April 10, at the 5:30 p.m. Mass, and on Sunday, April 11, at an 11:30 a.m. Mass

Pease e-mail Lorraine Senci at lsenci@stpaulhighland.org or call her at the Parish Office, 654-2339, ext. 202, if you would like to register for the Confirmation for Adults session that will be Saturday, March 27, from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
