EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Fr. Pat's Pen

Fr. Pat Jakel, Pastor

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

I clearly remember Holy Week & Easter of last year. Fr. Adam Z. was here, the rectory became a seminary for Deacon Dominic & Seminarian Chris. By God's grace, 4 of us were given the opportunity to pray, work, study & play together.

In fact, you & I remember it all too well. For the most part, we all Sheltered in Place! Unfortunately, many priests, single people & elderly became lonely. Words & phrases became commonplace, like Corona, social distancing, quarantine, Rona, sanitize, N-95, work from home (WFH), Zoom, takeout, drive-thru, super spreader, masks, Purell, live-streaming, before-Covid, a new normal & many, many more. The rules, standards & procedures changed daily.

One thing remained constant: our faith! With the help of gifted parishioners & staff, we celebrated Holy Week & the Sacred Triduum via cameras, technology & social media. Those who had the opportunity to view it were moved in their faith. We made every effort to keep in contact with parishioners, with the grace of God.

This year, praise God, we get to celebrate this holiest of weeks & Easter in person. Lots of opportunities are available for all to safely gather. Fr. Kosk & I are providing extra opportunities for Easter Masses. Please be mindful of the schedule this week:

EASTER SUNDAY

7:00am (Church) 7:15am (KC Hall)
8:30am (Church) 8:45am (KC Hall)
10:00am (Church)

Fr. Kosk and I offer our sincere prayers for each of you as we celebrate together the Lord's Passion, Death & Resurrection! We hope each of you will stir into flame the gift of salvation Jesus won for us, that we received at Baptism. We love you & pledge our prayers for you!

Fr. Pat will be out of town April 5 through April 8.

CONFIRMATION AND FIRST COMMUNION

Next Sat., April 10; 5:30pm
Next Sun., April 11; 11:30am

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last year, Bishop Paprocki issued a dispensation for all Catholics within the Diocese from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass until further notice. I am writing to you today to inform you that Bishop Paprocki has announced that, effective April 10/11, the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation will expire, replaced by a modified dispensation.

Appropriately, it is Divine Mercy Sunday, as Bishop Paprocki wrote in his Catholic Times column, "The Easter season is a very fitting time to renew our commitment to worship Our Lord every weekend in commemoration of His Resurrection and to pray for God's Divine Mercy to heal the sick and bring an end to this pandemic."

Under the modified dispensation, most Catholics will be obligated to attend Mass, but others will continue to be dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass, including:

- Those 65 years of age or older;
- Those at risk for severe illness due to underlying medical conditions as described by the CDC;
- Those who care for the sick, homebound, or infirmed;
- Women who are pregnant;
- Those who cannot attend Mass as space is at capacity.

Those who are sick, have a fever, exhibit flu-like symptoms, or who have good reason to think they are asymptomatic of a contagious illness such as COVID-19, are excused from attending Mass and do not require a dispensation. In fact, they are morally obliged not to attend Mass to avoid putting others at risk.

You might be thinking, why is there an obligation to go to Mass? The Mass obligation is an integral part of the Sabbath, as giving right worship and gratitude to God and participating in the Eucharistic Sacrifice. The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the Sunday Mass obligation as follows:

> "The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin (CCC 2181)."

When other activities take priority over obeying God's command to keep holy the Lord's Day & fulfilling our Sunday Mass obligation, we should be concerned that we have begun to lose sight of what is most important. We owe gratitude and worship to God and desire to receive Him in His Word and in the Holy Eucharist. As members of the Church, we are the body of Christ, worshipping together.

Our parish will continue its measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19: roping off pews, hand sanitizer use by those in attendance, by the priest & others distributing communion, church sanitation, mask use, etc.

Please visit www.dio.org/backtomass where you can read Bishop Paprocki's letter and read answers to frequently asked questions about the modified dispensation.

I look forward with great joy to seeing you and worshiping together.

It's time… welcome back to Mass!

In the love of Christ, Father Pat

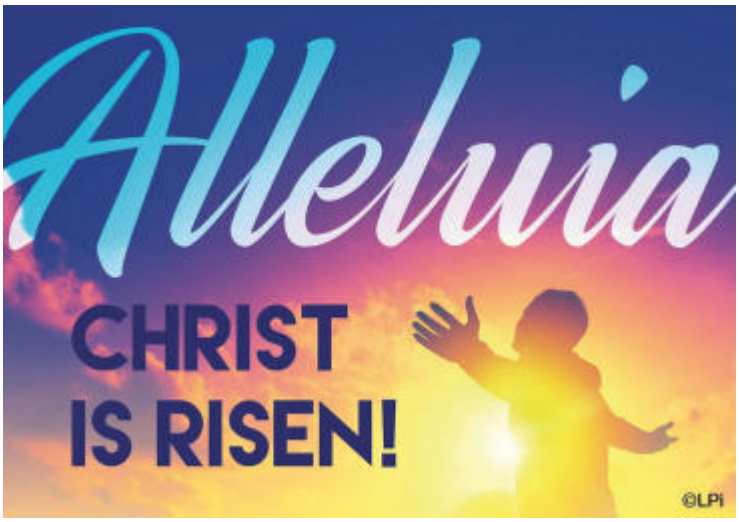
Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
At the Mass during the Day – Sunday, April 4

"Clear Out the Old Yeast." St. Paul speaks these words to us today. Get rid of old yeast to make a fresh batch of dough. Shed, he says, the old yeast of malice and wickedness and use, he says, the new yeast of sincerity and truth. For Christ is risen.

- What do I need to shed?
- What truth will I tell – kindly yet boldly?
- My new yeast will be _____?



He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

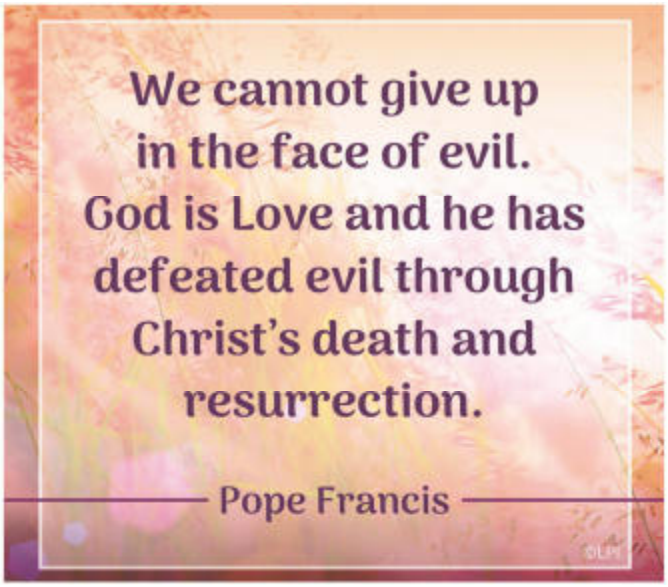
Easter

new life, renewed life, fuller life

God willing, we welcome Shelby Ruemmler, Elise Thompson, Everett Thompson, Michael Henschen and Brooke Magary to join us at the Table, at the Easter Vigil.

Next week's bulletin will have a full article on the celebration of the sacraments of initiation celebrated a the Easter Vigil.



Pre Jordan (Baptism class)

Pre Jordan classes are held every other month. They are typically held on the first Thursday of the month at 6:30 pm in the second floor All Saints room in the Parish Center. The next class will be: May 6th. Pre Jordan class is required for each child you want to have baptized. You must call Deanna Harlan to register for the class: 654-2339 x217.

Pre Jordan is held in a large room that allows for social distancing and masks will be required.

BAPTISM OF BABIES If anyone asks, or if you yourself are wondering, a good age to baptize infants in the Catholic Church is anywhere from three weeks to three months old. This is why it is important to attend the Pre-Jordan session during the pregnancy. You are strongly encouraged to have your baby's baptism before 3 months old. We want to give our children the gift of Jesus and the promise of salvation in Jesus as soon as possible. However, please be assured that we will baptize your child whenever you bring him/her to us.

REMEMBER FOR BAPTISM
3 Weeks to 3 Months
3 Persons – The Trinity

Reminder: As Lent is a penitential and reflective time in the Church year, baptisms are not celebrated during this time. The next available dates for baptisms are May 1 & 2, after having attended a Pre Jordan class.
