Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

A reading from the Book of Isaiah Is 62:1-5
For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate, but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

The Word of the Lord R: Thanks Be to God

Responsorial Psalm:

Proclaim His marvelous deeds to all the nations

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 1 Cor 12: 4-11
Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

The Word of the Lord R: Thanks Be to God

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John R: Glory to You, O Lord Jn 2:1-11
There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim.

Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from— although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Gospel of the Lord
R: Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The St. Michael Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Songs of Thankfulness and Praise

1. Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to you we raise, Manifested by the star To the sages from afar; Branch of royal David's stem In your birth at Bethlehem; Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.
2. Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme; And at Cana, wedding guest, In your Godhead manifest; Manifest in pow'r divine, Changing water into wine; Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.
3. Manifest in making whole Palsied limbs and fainting soul; Manifest in valiant fight, Quelling all the devil's might; Manifest in gracious will, Ever bringing good from ill; Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.
4. Grant us grace to see you, Lord, Present in your holy word; By that grace which you endow; Help us imitate you now, That we, pure like you, may be At your great epiphany; And may praise you, ever blest, God in flesh made manifest.

Holy Wisdom, Lamp of Learning

1. Holy Wisdom, lamp of learning, Bless the light that reason lends. Teach us judgement as we kindle Sparks of thought your Spirit sends. Sanctify our search for knowledge and the truth that sets us free. Come, illumine mind and spirit Joined in deepest unity.
2. Vine of truth, in you we flourish; by your grace we learn and grow. May the Word of Christ among us shape our life, our search to know. Joined to Christ in living, dying, may we help the Church convey witness to the saving Gospel, bearing fruit of faith today.
3. Holy God, the hope of nation, tune us toward our righteous will, As the symphony of ages Claims our best, our finest skill. Shape our search for peace and justice through prophetic deed and word. Christ, conduct us, set our rhythm, That God's praise be ever heard.

We Are Many Parts

We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share. May the Spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love that we share, one, our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.

1. God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true, let us be your love to all the world.
2. So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too; all is brought together in the Lord.
3. All you seekers, great and small, seek the greatest gift of all; if you love, then you will know the Lord.

Church of God, Elect and Glorious

1. Church of God, elect and glorious, holy nation, chosen race; called as God's own special people royal priest and heirs of grace: know the purpose of your calling, show to all God's mighty deeds. Tell of love which knows no limits, grace which meets all human needs.
2. God has called you out of darkness into his most mar'ulous light, brought his truth to life within you, turned your blindness into sight. Let your light so shine around you that God's name is glorified; and all love which knows no limits, grace which meets all human needs.
3. Once you were an alien people , strangers to God's heart of love; but he brought you home in mercy, citizens of heaven above. Let his love flow out to others let them feel a father's care; that they too may know his welcome and his countless blessings share.
4. Church of God, elect and holy, be the people he intends, strong in faith and swift to answer each command your master sends; royal priests, fulfill your calling through your sacrifice and prayer; give your lives in joyful service, sing his praise, his love declare.

The Servant Song

1. What do you want of me, Lord? Where do you want me to serve you? Where can I sing your praises? I am your song.
Refrain: Jesus, Jesus, you are the Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.
2. I hear you call my name, Lord, and I am moved within me. Your Spirit stirs my deepest self. Sing your songs in me.
Refrain: Jesus, Jesus, you are my Lord. Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.
5. I am your song and servant, singing your praise like Mary. Surrendered to your Spirit, "Let it be done to me."
Refrain: Jesus, Jesus, "Let it be done to me." Jesus, Jesus, you are the way.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters, It was my great joy to celebrate adoration and vespers prayers with you on the day before Christmas Eve. It was a great beginning to welcome everyone in our newly renovated church as preparation to celebrate Christmas.

Together we thanked God for his abundant blessings and allowing us to return to our church- He is so loving and generous to us.

God so loves His people that He gave us His only son to bring us peace, consolation, and Good News, which leads us to salvation. He also gave me the opportunity to see my mother after 2.5 years and for Stefan to see his mom after nearly a year. This has been the biggest blessing and gift that I have ever received for Christmas. Through your generous hearts, Stefan and his mom and my mom and I were able to have a great time together.

We celebrated Polish Christmas traditions, including the traditional 12 dish-dinner on Christmas Eve. Our moms also enjoyed visiting many of the local sites (and of course shopping!). Renata and Krystyna send greetings from Poland and are very thankful for hospitality.

I am so happy to have this parish as my family. I love you all.

May God bless you abundantly, and may Mother Mary pray for your well-being and strength to proclaim the Good News.

Thank you to the crew who helped remove the Christmas decorations and return the church to ordinary time. They were Joan Wilkinson, Helen Schreiber, Barb Forys, Rose Kepler, Pat Imming, Suzie Gallatin, Valery Delaney, Jerry Rehkemper, Martin Klostermann and Jim Klostermann.

You are welcome to take a poinsettia home once again this year. Please leave the plastic tray under the flower for we can reuse them again next year. Thanks, enjoy your flower.

Also I would like to thank Leigh Janes for, once again, touching up all the Nativity statues. You made them look like new. And thank you to Pete Tucker, James and Jude Hemann for taking down and storing the Creche. Great job.

All your help is so appreciated and helps make St. Paul the great parish that it is. Thanks again.

Martha's helpers are a group of people (men and women) who help keep God's home looking so beautiful and clean. We are looking for members to this ministry and if you are interested please call Joan - 618-920-6516 for more information. We would be so grateful for your help.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. This national collection supports many pastoral projects that benefit the faithful in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Brazil's Associacao do Sementes do Verba (Seeds of the Word Community) is a young and growing congregation with a unique vision of forming missionary communities of disciples in all states of life-consecrated men and women, clergy, lay missionaries, and married couples and families, all living together in community. Founded in 2004, Sementes do Verba has 20 communities throughout Brazil, as well as in Portugal, Belgium, Canada, Comoros, and Mozambique. A central aspect of the group's spirituality is a nine-month formation period called a "sabbatical year," during which participants live in a mission house with the community and study Scripture; take courses in the theology of the body and human sexuality, with an emphasis on prevention of abuse; and participate in spiritual exercises and parish mission weeks.

Supported by a grant from the Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America, 100 participants from 25 dioceses in 11 Brazilian states had the opportunity to become formed as more effective missionary disciples in 2021. When you support the Collection for the Church in Latin America, your material gift makes it possible for disciples to use their gifts and abilities as evangelizers, regardless of their states in life or economic backgrounds.

Our diocese takes up this collection on the weekend of January 22-23. Please be generous toward this collection. Take this opportunity to share your faith with our sisters and brothers in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support truly makes a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

The Diocese of Springfield in Illinois invites you to join us for a diocesan-wide pro-life Mass and march event on Friday, January 21, in Springfield at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. We will begin with Mass at 10:00 am followed by an 11:00 am march to the Illinois Capital. Like last year, the diocese has decided to forego a trip to Washington, D.C., and focus on a local march. The Mass and march are intended for 7th-12th graders, college students, and adults.

FROM PETER & PAUL COMMUNITY SERVICES...

“Thank you for your 12/15/21 in-kind donation of blankets to Peter & Paul Community Services. With your gift, you are helping to solve homelessness in St. Louis, one person at a time.

As we celebrate 40 years of service—1981-2021—we are proud of our growth. It has allowed us to serve tens of thousands of our neighbors who find themselves without a roof over their head. We are so grateful you believe in the importance of this work—creating stability, safety, and hope for some of the most vulnerable members of our community.

Many of our clients and staff are now vaccinated against COVID-19. We are cautiously increasing the number of individuals served in our residential programs back to maximum pre-COVID capacity. Your gift helps us along that path.

On behalf of those counting on us, and from me personally, thank you.”

Sincerely, Steve Campbell, CEO
