God never gives someone a gift they are not capable of receiving. If he gives us the gift of Christmas, it is because we all have the ability to understand and receive it.

DEACON JACKSON 'S REFLECTIONS

Jesus will put us in charge of many affairs and we may failed to accept the larger ones sometimes, because of the responsibilities of the affairs. But as Christians, we should accepted the large and small affairs he gives us (to the best of our ability). So he can say "Well done, good and faithful servant". Because, God will not give us anything we can not handle. If, we trust and believe in his word.

Reflection from Sister Gail

The one who keeps God close to his/her heart never needs to fear the reminder that we never know the day nor the hour when our Lord will return. No One is perfect, but a soul that dedicated his/her will to that of God; has no need, forgiving and receiving forgiveness for unintended wrongs, and responding when God shines the light of change on oneself.

A relationship with God continues to call one higher when a soul is open to learning where there is a need to change. We offered opportunities daily to grown in grace or to choose to serve self. Serving self doesn't appear to be a problem in the moment. It often feels harmless, like I am just doing what I like. Yet, our spiritual walk calls us beyond emotion and feelings to rise to the level of the divine. This requires a definite choice to work through earthy feelings to join our Father through our heavenly response. Embracing a heavenly response opens the window to a host of new feelings that free the human soul to allow God to increase within.

The man or woman whose character is considered a treasure, must choose and nurture building his/her character daily. This choice increases the gifts God bestowed at birth. Each time virtue is chosen over convenience, it increases the reality of hearing God say, "I gave you five talents and you are returning to heaven with ten. Well done my good and faithful child!
