Parish News & Notes

From Fr. Frank

How we hear words depends upon who says them, to whom they are addressed, and when they are spoken.

In this Sunday's Gospel (John 13: 31-33a, 34-35), Jesus says, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

We can hear those words of Jesus as a general command addressed to all people. But Jesus announces his "new commandment" not to everyone but to a select group of people at a very significant moment.

Jesus speaks those words to his chosen disciples at the Last Supper soon after washing their feet in a striking gesture of service and humility.

Furthermore, Jesus makes it clear that this new commandment is meant specifically for his disciples for they are the ones who have personally experienced his love.

He sought them out, cared for them, taught them, showed them patience and understanding, forgave them, revealed himself to them, gave them a share in his ministry, allowed them into his heart, and brought them into a relationship with his Father.

In turn, that is how they are to treat one another. By doing so "all will know that you are my disciples."

This Sunday as the Gospel is proclaimed Jesus will again speak those words he first spoke to his disciples at the Last Supper. But he will speak them to us as we gather in our parish churches for Mass. We are the ones who faithfully come Sunday after Sunday. We are the ones who have experienced his love, mercy, and presence in our lives. We are his disciples today.

And what we have experienced is what our fellow disciples—our fellow Christians, our fellow parishioners—must experience from us. We are to be caring, compassionate, understanding, forgiving, charitable, merciful, and concerned about the physical and spiritual welfare of those Christians whose opinions we share and those whose views and attitudes clash with our own, those we think of as upright and those whose moral compass seems skewed, those whose faith we admire and those whose faith we question, those we would like as friends and those who test our patience.

This Sunday, Jesus, our teacher calls us before him and says directly to us, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples."

The church will collect the filled bottles and donate the proceeds to the Family Life Center for the continuation of its pro-life ministry. This fundraiser provides an excellent opportunity for people of all ages to be involved in supporting local pro-life efforts.

Prayer for Peace
 Saint Pope John Paul II

Lord Jesus Christ, who are called the Prince of Peace, who are Yourself our peace and reconciliation,
 who so often said, “Peace to you” – please grant us peace.
 Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love.
 Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace.
 Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace.
 May all peoples on the Earth become as brothers and sisters.
 May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.
 Amen.

Armed Forces Day

Armed Forces Day - Saturday, May 21

Armed Forces Day is a special holiday for people to come together and thank the men and women who are currently serving in the United States Armed Forces. First conceived by President Harry S. Truman, the holiday was established in 1949. The creation of a single day celebration for all five branches of the United States military made sense due to its recent unification under the Department of Defense. Today, Armed Forces Day is celebrated on the third Saturday of every May, this year falling on May 21. Be sure to mark your calendar & support our military!

How is Armed Forces Day different from Memorial & Veterans Days?

Memorial Day, the last Monday of May, is a time to honor those who died while fighting in the Armed Forces. Veterans Day, observed on November 11, celebrates the service of all U.S. military veterans.

www.nationaltoday.com/armed-forces-day

Please remember in your prayers these men and women serving to defend our country and our freedom.

Poor Compensation

The church council met to discuss the pastor’s compensation package for the coming year. After the meeting, the chair of council told the pastor, “We are very sorry, but we decided that we can’t give you a raise next year.”

“But you must give me a raise,” said the pastor. “I am but a poor preacher!”

“I know,” the council chair said. “We hear you every Sunday.”
