COVID-19 VACCINES SHOULD GIVE US PAUSE

In today's bulletin you will find a statement regarding the Johnson and Johnson vaccine that Bishop Malloy asked all parishes to publish. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops have addressed the issue of COVID-19 vaccines that were either produced or tested using abortion-derived cell lines. The Church teaches that it is immoral for researchers to use human cell lines derived from aborted fetuses in order to produce or test vaccines.

The Church has also taught, however, that if a person decides to take a vaccine that has a connection with abortion-derived cell lines their participation in the original abortion (which may have occurred decades ago) is, in the terminology of Catholic bioethics, "passive" and "remote" participation. When there is a grave reason to take the vaccine (for example, a person would be in danger of contracting COVID-19 and perhaps suffering death or spreading the virus to an at-risk person with whom they live, etc.) and an ethically irreproachable vaccine is not available, a person may still take the vaccine. However, a person should take the vaccine that has the least connection to abortion-derived cell lines (for example, since the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines used an abortion-derived cell line at the testing phase but not in the production phase they would be preferable to the Johnson and Johnson vaccine that made use of abortion-derived cell lines at both stages). (According to a November 2020 article from the National Catholic Bioethics Center, of the 17 COVID-19 vaccine candidates in the U.S., most of which never gained emergency approval, only one avoided the use of abortion-derived cell lines in the development, production, and testing phases—Sorrento ["T-viva-19"]). In addition, the Bishops have noted that those who take an ethically-problematic vaccine are obligated to make known their opposition to those in decision-making positions.

This is simply a summary of what the Church's magisterium has taught regarding the COVID-19 vaccine (none of this is my personal opinion). Some individuals in good conscience do not wish to tolerate even a passive and remote connection to abortion and the use of human cell lines derived from an aborted fetus. The Church does not teach that anyone is morally obligated to take the COVID-19 vaccine. Individuals may have other health-related reasons for not wishing to take an experimental vaccine. Everyone still has an obligation to protect their own health and the health of their neighbor.

I do wish to bring up an important point that I believe is being overlooked. The Holy See's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith addressed the issue of vaccines created with the aid of cell lines of illicit origin in their 2008 instruction Dignitas Personae (The Dignity of a Person), #35: "Grave reasons may be morally proportionate to justify the use of such 'biological material.' Thus, for example, danger to the health of children could permit parents to use a vaccine which was developed using cell lines of illicit origin, while keeping in mind that everyone has the duty to make known their disagreement and to ask that their healthcare system make other types of vaccines available. Moreover, in organizations where cell lines of illicit origin are being utilized, the responsibility of those who make the decisions to use them is not the same as that of those who have no voice in such a decision."

I have not heard of very many people notifying pharmaceutical companies of their opposition to the use of abortion-derived cell lines. Instead, we have a lot of news coverage showing people simply taking the COVID-19 vaccine with glee. I understand that people are looking to protect their health and the health of others, but the Church's teaching on the vaccine suggests that the reception of the COVID-19 vaccine should be met with greater sobriety.

Some individuals who object to vaccines that rely on abortion-derived cell lines raise an important point. Have medical researchers and the pharmaceutical industry significantly changed their approach to the production and testing of vaccines based on the expression of moral objections since 2008 (the year that Dignitas Personae was published)? I do not know the answer to that question with certainty. However, given the fact that most COVID-19 vaccines were either developed or tested with the use of abortion-derived cell lines, it would appear that not much has changed.

Brothers and sisters, the future of medical science looks like it will bring more and more ethical problems for the Catholic who wishes to respect the dignity of the human person (recall how Planned Parenthood was caught trafficking the body parts of aborted fetuses). We need to start thinking very deeply about these issues and responding with faith and courage.

BE RECONCILED

Wednesday, March 24th, 9:00 AM--8:00 PM

On Wednesday, March 24th, we will be having confessions from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM as part of a diocesan wide initiative called "Be Reconciled."

We ask that the 1:00 to 3:00 PM time period be reserved for those who have health issues preventing them from standing for long periods of time or getting to the front of the church. Thank you for your understanding.

There are many people who have felt the longing for reconciliation but, because of fear or other reasons, have put off going to confession. If you know someone who has been away from the Sacrament of Reconciliation, invite them to "Be Reconciled" on March 24th or anytime during Lent. If that person is you, the opportunity for reconciliation, to talk about your questions or concerns with a priest or just to make your Lenten confession is there. Let's make this Lent a time of deep and joyful reconciliation.

THANK YOU, SAINT JOSEPH!

Fr. DiTomo has asked people to email him stories of prayers answered through the intercession of St. Joseph. Here is our first testimony in praise of St. Joseph's powerful intercession:

"My prayers to St. Joseph were answered 4 years ago. When I was in 7th grade, I started having back pain, and my family learned that I had kyphosis. In 8th grade, I had to wear a back brace for a year. This was a hard shell brace that went down to my waist. I had to wear it all the time, even at night. I prayed the Holy Cloak Novena to St. Joseph, and the entire time I had the brace, I had no bruising or pain. The doctor kept on asking my mom if I was really wearing it. St. Joseph has helped me out a lot and has been my father figure for many years. This is also why I chose him as my Confirmation Saint." -MK

THE SVDP FOOD PANTRY HAS MOVED

Over the last several years, one of our generous parishioners has donated space for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry at no charge. Recently, however, the property became unavailable. Our new location is right here in St. Mary Church. During the relocation process it was necessary to cancel two food drives. However, the distribution of food and personal care items to our friends in need was never cancelled or interrupted.

Our next food drive is scheduled for April 17th and 18th. We appreciate the ongoing generous support of our parishioners.

ST. MARY CEMETERY RULES & SPRING CLEAN UP

Winter and Christmas Holiday items will be removed beginning Monday, March 29th. Please remove any items you would like to keep before the clean up begins. As a reminder, the cemetery rules are posted below:

St. Mary Cemetery Rules

We welcome and encourage the placement of decorations in our Parish Cemetery. We will try to be as careful as possible during our normal interment and maintenance activities as we can. We regret that we cannot guarantee that all decorations will be free from damage or loss, and we cannot accept responsibility for such occurrences.

Catholic Cemeteries are holy places. These sacred grounds have been blessed and consecrated by the Church as places of prayer and remembrance and dignity for our Faithful Departed. Please be respectful at all times, be mindful of other visitors, and maintain a quiet reverence whenever visiting the graves of loved ones. Please always maintain proper attire and behavior, and remember that alcoholic beverages, picnics, and pets are always prohibited.

In order to ensure the dignity and reverence due a Catholic Cemetery, as well as the safety of all workers and visitors, the following rules for grave decorations have been established for our Parish Cemeteries in keeping with Rockford Diocesan regulations.

- Both natural and artificial flowers are permitted in approved containers/vases.
- Permanent vases may only be attached to the apron or base with stainless-steel screws or epoxied, or may be in-ground vases with a granite collar.

- Because they can be picked up and thrown by lawn-mowing equipment and become a hazard to both visitors and workers, the following are never permitted: shepherd hooks, glass of any kind, statuary, decorative stones, border edging, items of any kind stuck into the ground, metal stands, metal pots, and metal boxes or containers. Such decorations will be removed and disposed of immediately.

Headstone/Memorial repairs

- If damage is caused to a headstone or memorial due to negligence on the part of the Parish or its authorized workers (grave-diggers, etc.), there is no cost to the family for any repair work.

- If a memorial has shifted or is sinking, the Parish will be happy to arrange for repair work, but the cost is covered by the family. Such work will not be undertaken unless you contact the Parish directly.

A GUIDE TO CONFESSION (ALSO KNOWN AS THE SACRAMENT OF "RECONCILIATION" OR "PENANCE")

Christ forgave sins (Luke 5:18-24) and passed this power on to Peter, who was to act as his representative: "Whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in Heaven" (Matt 16: 13-19). Jesus also gave the power of absolution to the apostles as a whole: "Whose sins you shall forgive, they shall be forgiven, and whose sins you shall retain, they shall be retained" (John 20:23). We also have the testimony of two saints, James and John: "Confess your sins to one another" (James 5:16; 1John 1:8-9). Jesus gave us the sacrament of baptism for the forgiveness of sins. He also gave us the sacrament of reconciliation for sins that we commit after baptism. Why not use the gifts he gave us to experience his Mercy?

Preparing for Confession

The Sacrament of Penance is a wonderful sacrament for forgiveness and mercy. All we need to do is be sorry for our sins. But in order to know what we have done wrong, we have to examine our conscience and really reflect how well we have kept God's commandments of love. Take a few moments to go over the following 10 Commandments, the Beatitudes of Jesus, and the Precepts of the Church. It will help you to know what sins you have committed and confess them properly in Confession.

What is a sin?

Very simply, sin is an offense against God. Sins may be minor (venial) or major (mortal). While we are obliged to confess all mortal sins (in number and kind), we are urged to do the same with venial sins insofar as we are aware of them. Three conditions must exist for a sin to be mortal (spiritually deadly):

1. The offense must be a SERIOUS MATTER.
2. We must be aware of its seriousness (KNOW THAT IT IS WRONG).
3. There must be FULL CONSENT of the will (freely and fully intend to do it).

"To die in mortal sin without repenting and accepting God's merciful love means remaining separated from Him forever by our own free choice. The state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God and the blessed is called 'hell.'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1033; see also #1861).

If any one of the above conditions is absent, the sin in question is venial, and we are not obliged to confess it. One hastens to add, however, that even venial sin is an affront to God, and, as such, we are urged not to take such offenses lightly. It could be good to confess them. All too often, when we do not aim for perfection as Christ recommended ("Be perfect even as your Heavenly Father is perfect" [Matt 5:48]), we find ourselves sliding in the opposite direction.

"Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or say, 'Rise and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the man who was paralyzed, "I say to you, rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home." —Luke 5:23-24

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

(Based on the Ten Commandments)

First Commandment: I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods before me. Do I give God time every day in prayer? – Do I seek to love God with my whole heart? – Do I practice some form of idolatry, putting something that is not God at the center of my life and “worshipping it” by spending all of my time, energy, and resources on it (e.g. sports money, career, entertainment, social life, technology, etc.)? – Do I place other people or things before God? – Did I seriously doubt my faith or put myself in danger of losing my faith through readings or videos hostile to Catholic teachings or involvement in non-Catholic sects? – Have I dabbled in non-Christian religious practices? – Have I made use of: superstitious practices, palm reading, fortune telling, horoscopes, mediums, new age practices (reiki, crystals, etc), “spiritual healers”, Ouija boards, witchcraft, satanism, or any form of the occult? – Have I received Holy Communion when I was conscious of being in the state of mortal sin? – Have I deliberately told a lie in Confession or have I withheld a mortal sin from the priest in Confession?

Second Commandment: You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Have I used the name of God or Jesus in vain—lightly or carelessly? – Have I wished evil upon another person/cursed them? – Have I persisted in being angry with God? – Have I insulted a sacred/consecrated person or abused a sacred object? – Have I made or listened to jokes that treat God, Jesus, Mary, or any of the saints with irreverence?

Third Commandment: Remember to keep holy the Lord’s Day. Have I deliberately missed Mass on Sundays or Holy Days of Obligation (this means intentionally “blowing off” going to Mass – serious illness, being homebound, caring for sick family members are all legitimate reasons for missing Mass. Also note that the Mass obligation has been temporarily suspended during the Pandemic)? – Have I tried to observe Sunday as a day for rest, prayer, and family? – Have I done unnecessary work, shopping, etc. on Sundays? – When travelling do I seek to find a church where I can attend Mass on Sunday if possible?

Fourth Commandment: Honor your father and your mother. Do I honor and obey my parents? – Do I disrespect them and talk back? – Have I neglected my duties to my spouse and children? – Do I spend time with them? – Have I given my family good religious example? – Do I bring peace into my home life? – Do I care for my aged and infirm relatives?

Fifth Commandment: You shall not kill. Have I had an abortion or encouraged or helped anyone to have an abortion? (to do this when you know that it is a grave sin also brings excommunication—so please bring this up in the confessional to the priest for absolution). – Have I assisted anyone in euthanasia (assisted suicide)? – Have I attempted suicide? – Have I physically harmed myself or anyone else? – Have I been guilty of acts of violence? Rape? – Have I failed to take care of my body and my physical/mental health? – Have I abused alcohol or drugs? – Have I drunk to excess (a sin of gluttony, impairing one’s God-given use of reason, opening one up to further sin, etc.). – Have I endangered myself or others while driving (impaired by alcohol or drugs or while texting, etc.)? – Did I give scandal to anyone (did anyone see my sin and did this harm their view of the Christian life or the Church? Scandal can “kill” another’s faith)? – Have I held on to or acted out in excessive anger? – Have I harbored resentment and refused to forgive anyone? – Have I harbored hatred in my heart? – Have I persisted in racist thoughts and hatred? – Have I mutilated myself through any form of sterilization (e.g. a vasectomy or a tubal ligation, changing a part of my body so that I would not have to be open to life)?

Sixth Commandment: You shall not commit adultery. & Ninth Commandment: You shall not desire your neighbor’s wife.

Have I committed adultery (sex when at least one person is married to someone else)? [NOTE: A Catholic can contract a true and valid marriage only in the presence of an authorized priest or deacon and two witnesses, unless a dispensation from the Bishop is sought and granted]. – Have I attempted marriage outside the Church? – Am I still living in a second civil marriage outside of the Church? (please talk to a trusted priest about what should be the next step to resolve the situation before you receive the sacrament of Reconciliation and receive Holy Communion-do not be discouraged-a good priest will help you.) – Have I been faithful to my marriage vows in thought and actions? – Have I engaged in any sexual activity outside of a Church-sanctioned marriage (fornication)? – Have I used any method of contraception or artificial birth control? – Has each sexual act in my marriage been open to the transmission of new life (if not, have my spouse and I considered moral options such as Natural Family Planning?)? – Have I withheld marital intimacy from my spouse when there was no just reason (Have I communicated with my spouse about this)? – Have I used immoral means of procreation (e.g. the process of in vitro fertilization)? – Have I viewed pornography or any other materials that incite lust? – Have I viewed impure materials through reading, movies, TV, internet surfing? – Have I sent or received impure images electronically (“sexting”)? – Have I willingly entertained impure thoughts? Do I pray at once for God to gently banish impure thoughts and temptations? – Have I been guilty of self-abuse/masturbation? – Have I respected all members of the opposite sex, or have I thought of other persons as objects (lust)? – Did I engage in impure jokes or conversations? – Have I committed homosexual acts (remember, inclination is not a sin, but actions are—if you have same-sex attraction please talk to a trusted priest spiritual director who can help you on your path as a disciple of Jesus)? – Do I seek to be chaste in my thoughts, words, and actions? – Have I done actions with another or had communications that are lustful or impure? – Am I careful to dress modestly? – Do I seek to love my spouse with a sacrificial love, or am I selfish? – Do I try to serve my spouse and help him/her know God’s love and get prepared for heaven? – Do I respect the leadership that the husband exercises as head of the household? – Am I kind, patient?

Seventh Commandment: You shall not steal. Have I stolen what is not mine? – Have I made restitution for what I have stolen? – Have I been honest in all my business relations? – Have I cheated on my taxes? – Have I failed to give an honest day’s work for an honest day’s wage? – Do I gamble excessively, thereby depriving my family of its needs? – Do I pay my debts promptly as I am able? – Do I seek to share what I have with the poor? – Have I obeyed the precept to provide for the material needs of the Church as I am able?

Eighth Commandment: You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. Have I told lies? – Did I tell lies about another person in order to harm their reputation (calumny/slander)? – Have I spoken of someone’s sins or shortcomings when not necessary (gossip/detraction)? – Have I freely listened to such speech and encouraged it? – Have I written false things about another person (libel)? – Have I tried to repair the damage that I caused to another’s reputation? – How many persons listened to my derogatory remarks? – Did I judge others rashly in serious matters [NOTE: we must judge whether actions are good or bad, but we should not judge the soul/motivations/interior disposition of the persons who does those actions]? – Am I sincere in my dealings with others? – Am I excessively critical, negative, or uncharitable in my thoughts/speech concerning others? – Do I keep secret what should be held confidential?

Tenth Commandment: You shall not desire your neighbor’s goods. Am I jealous of what other people have? – Do I envy other people’s families or possessions or spiritual gifts? – Am I greedy or selfish? – Are material possessions the purpose of my life? – Do I trust that God will care for all of my material and spiritual needs?

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:

The Precepts of the Church:

1. Attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation;

2. Confess any serious sins at least once a year;
3. Receive Holy Communion at least once a year, during the Easter Season;
4. Observe the prescribed days of fasting (Ash Wednesday, Good Friday) and abstinence (Fridays of Lent);
5. Observe laws of Church concerning marriage;
6. Provide for the material needs of the Church as you are able.

The Seven Capital Sins: pride, covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony, envy, and sloth *Think not only of what you have done (sins of commission), but also of what you have failed to do (sins of omission).

RITE OF CONFESSION

Begin by making the sign of the cross and say:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Bless me Father, for I have sinned. It has been _____ (approximate weeks, months, years) since my last confession.

Then begin: These are my sins... [Confess all that you remember. For mortal sins say the kind of sin that it was and the approximate number of times that you did it – if not sure of the exact number, say “a couple times” or “a few times” or “many times”]

When you are finished, say something to indicate to the priest that you are have finished confessing, for example: “I am sorry for these sins and all the sins of my past life.”

The priest will give you a penance (for example, some prayers to say) and possibly some spiritual advice and will then ask you to pray an Act of Contrition. There are different Acts of Contrition that you can use, here is a traditional one: “My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.”

Then the priest will give you absolution (the forgiveness of your sins). Make the sign of the cross when he blesses you and say “Amen.”

Conclusion: the priest may say “Give thanks to the Lord for He is good.” To which you respond: “His mercy endures forever.” Then the priest says: “The Lord has freed you from your sins, go in peace.”

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

This past week news reports have indicated that a third COVID-19 vaccine, produced by Johnson & Johnson, will begin to be used along with the previously available vaccines produced by Pfizer and Moderna. The Johnson & Johnson vaccine, unlike the previous two, was not only tested with the use of cell lines derived from abortions decades ago, it was also developed and produced using those cell lines.

To address this question, the Chairmen of the USCCB Committees on Doctrine and Pro-Life activities have issued the following guidance:

"The approval of Johnson & Johnson's COVID-19 vaccine for use in the United States again raises questions about the moral permissibility of using vaccines developed, tested, and/or produced with the help of abortion-derived cell lines.

"Pfizer and Moderna's vaccines raised concerns because an abortion-derived cell line was used for testing them, but not in their production. The Johnson & Johnson vaccine, however, was developed, tested and is produced with abortion-derived cell lines raising additional moral concerns. The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has judged that 'when ethically irreproachable COVID-19 vaccines are not available ... it is morally acceptable to receive COVID-19 vaccines that have used cell lines from aborted fetuses in their research and production process.' [1] However, if one can choose among equally safe and effective COVID-19 vaccines, the vaccine with the least connection to abortion-derived cell lines should be chosen. Therefore, if one has the ability to choose a vaccine, Pfizer or Moderna's vaccines should be chosen over Johnson & Johnson's.

"While we should continue to insist that pharmaceutical companies stop using abortion-derived cell lines, given the world-wide suffering that this pandemic is causing, we affirm again that being vaccinated can be an act of charity that serves the common good."

As the Bishop of Rockford, I affirm both this statement from the Bishops' Conference as well as the statement by the Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith on the morality of the COVID-19 vaccines. I would like to reiterate the following important points these statements make. Namely, that choosing the Pfizer or Moderna vaccine is preferable. If there is any choice possible we should specifically ask to receive one of those two. However, if one has no choice of vaccines then receiving even the Johnson & Johnson vaccine is morally permissible, given the current pandemic. And finally, choosing to be vaccinated can be both an act of love toward our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, as well as a contribution to the common good of our society.

Prayerfully yours in Christ,

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We, the diocesan bishops of Illinois, write today out of great concern. Bills have been introduced before the Illinois General Assembly to repeal Illinois’ Parental Notice of Abortion Act. They are House Bill 1797 and Senate Bill 2190. The enactment of this legislation would lead to tragic and irreversible outcomes.

The Parental Notice of Abortion Act simply requires that when a minor girl seeks to have an abortion, a parent or guardian is notified 48 hours before the procedure. The obvious hope of the law is that parents, by their deep love and moral obligation, will act to protect, support and guide their children. In every other facet of life, we are taught – and we teach – that parental involvement is key to the child’s best interest. Repealing the Act is nothing less than an invasion into the sacred space of family life by the state, with no provision to support the minor emotionally, humanely or materially at a critical moment in her life.

It is unfortunately true that not all young people come from loving homes. In these cases, when the threat of abuse or neglect outweighs the rights of parents, the current law allows a young girl the opportunity to declare in writing that there is abuse, or she can seek an emergency hearing before a judge to explain her situation. We acknowledge that this can be emotionally difficult; however, such difficulty must be weighed against the harm done when our laws effectively undermine family life by separating children from the care of parents who love them the most. The state should do everything to support families, not destabilize them.

The existing Parental Notice of Abortion Act provides important safeguards against the evils of sexual abuse and human trafficking. If a minor girl can be taken by any adult man to an abortion clinic, in the hopes of erasing the evidence of his abuse, what protection exists outside of the girl’s parent or guardian being informed? Why would we want to create such a dangerous environment?

Simply put, the Parental Notice of Abortion Act works. According to statistics gathered by the Illinois Department of Public Health, since the law’s final enactment by the Illinois Supreme Court in 2013, abortions performed on minors in Illinois have decreased over 30 percent. The lives saved by this law are real and present among us.

These are the reasons every state in the Midwest and 37 states overall have laws requiring some form of parental involvement in the decision of a minor to have an abortion. Illinois has been among those states for 8 years and no obvious problems or detriments have been publicly exposed. The repeal of Parental Notice of Abortion is a tragic solution in search of a problem.

So what can you do? As Catholics of good will, we call on you to engage your elected officials – state representatives, state senators and the Governor – and urge them to oppose House Bill 1797 and Senate Bill 2190.

Possible methods of contact include phone calls, letters, emails, and Zoom meetings between legislators and you, their concerned constituents. For all of these efforts, you will need to be able to identify your legislators and secure the appropriate contact information. Here is how:

Visit the Catholic Conference of Illinois’ website – www.ilcatholic.org – scroll nearly to the bottom of the homepage, click on “Find Your Legislator” and input the asked-for information. Doing this will identify one’s state elected officials, and simply clicking on their names will provide the contact information.

In our concern for all human life, and particularly for the struggles of young girls in these difficult circumstances and their unborn children, we ask you to participate in this effort. Together we are strong, and we can make a difference.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
