GOSPEL MEDITATION

We often come to life expecting all of the pieces of the puzzle to nicely fit together. We want and expect harmony, order, and fairness, the achievement of rewards for good behavior, good health, and happiness. We can more easily accept death when it comes naturally after a good long life, but have a real difficulty comprehending the meaning of it all when it is cut short. Willing to put in a good measure of effort, we desire positive results. When things go wrong and life gets hurtful, unjust, and downright ugly, we become unsettled and can quickly fall into despair. This is especially true if we are people of faith who believe in a God who sees things on our terms and works in favor of our life agenda. What happens to our faith when we find ourselves sitting in a mess?

Does it help to know that God understands and that hardship, failure, disappointment, injustice, confusion, and all of life's ugliness do not make faith irrelevant or irrational? God is wonderfully and surprising creative! He turns the tables on not only our understanding of life, but of what it means to be a king. God sends us a king who is not exempt from life's ills but embraces them. The king that God gives to us knows what it means to be poor, suffer insults, be ridiculed, face rejection, endure suffering, be betrayed, and face a most unjust and horrific death. This is our king. Jesus is not a king of prestige or grandeur but a king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death.
Christ dances before us pleading with us to hold on, cling to love, avoid being negative, stop feeling cheated, and be strong in faith! There may be hardship and disappointment now but there are more surprises to come.

Once we understand this truth, we will also understand that we are on a most incredible and awesome universal journey to Christ and becoming one in Christ. We all carry within us the image of God, the image of our suffering king. The One who lives in us also lives in all of our brothers and sisters. Failing to see this universal Divine Presence in all is one of the greatest mistakes we can make, for we also fail to see God, our king, as well. There are many things that can bring hardship to life.
If we keep our head about us and do not lose hope, we can persevere and strive for the greatest degree of justice possible. Even though there are ample things that can challenge our faith, we also know that our deepest joy comes from union with God and our brothers and sisters. One day, the fullness of that joy will be ours to have when we are all eternally one with Christ our King forever.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

ADVENT BY CANDLELIGHT

This is an evening for women to prepare their minds and hearts for Advent. Join us November 23, 2021 from 6–9pm in the narthex. If you would like to host a table or join others at a table contact Jeannette Schupp by November 21 at 262-827-0847 or jschupp@att.net.
Table hostesses coordinate table settings, decorations, candles, dessert, and beverages (wine and soda only).
We will supply coffee and water.

GIVING ANGELS

THE CALL AND CHALLENGE

by Pat Boyer

Today IS the LAST Sunday of the Liturgical Year. As I wrote last week, us "older" folk know today as the Feast of Christ the King. Declared in late 1925 by Pope Pius XI it originally was on the last Sunday of October. This was so that just before All Saints Day we recognized Jesus who, as God, was the reason there are saints.

In 1969, Pope Paul VI changed this feast to the last Sunday of the year. This is the Sunday just before the First Sunday of Advent. Pope Paul wanted to connect this feast close to the season of Advent when we pray about the King's Second Coming. Pope Paul also changed the title to The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

Who gave Jesus the title of King? Last year (Year A) Jesus calls himself king:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, ... Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. [Matthew 25:31 & 34a]

Today (Year B) Jesus says to Pilate:

"My kingdom does not belong to this world. [John 18:36]

When the disciples called Jesus the Messiah, He doesn't deny it. He tells them to be quiet and not tell others He is Messiah which means the anointed one. The Kings of Israel and many other countries were anointed with oil when they became King. The Messiah was to be a better King than the others in the line of kings after David.

Why is the title of King important for Jesus? One reason is he wants us to know we are to follow his teachings. We are to obey his instructions to be saved.

The norms of kingdoms require the subjects to at least appear to adore the Kings and Queens. Even today in England one is to bow or curtsey. A recent Gospel Reflection by Bishop Robert Barron points out:

"What is so important about worship? To worship is to order the whole of one's life toward the living God, and, in doing so, to become interiorly and exteriorly rightly ordered. To worship is to signal to oneself what one's life is finally about. Worship is not something that God needs, but it is very much something that we need."

While we Americans don't like royalty, we do need heroes. Some of our hero worship is for sports figures. Not many politicians earn our respect. We do worship the Presidents who were assassinated. Do we think they are like Jesus?

SUY NIỆM LỜI CHÚA: GA 18: 33B-37

Hôm nay lễ Chúa Ky-tô Vua, chúng ta được nghe lại lời xác quyết của Chúa Giê-su đến trần gian là để làm chứng cho sự thật. Chính Ngài đã nói: "Tôi đã sinh ra và đã đến thế gian nhằm mục đích này : làm chứng cho sự thật. Ai đứng về phía sự thật thì nghe tiếng tôi". Sự thật mà Chúa Giê-su làm chứng chính là giới thiệu cho nhân loại một vương quốc đầy ánh sáng tình thương và chân thành. Một vương quốc không có bệnh thành tích mà chỉ có tinh thần phục vụ một cách vô vị lợi. Một vương quốc mà con người tìm được tiếng nói chung khi biết tôn trọng sự thật và đề cao chân lý.

Chính Chúa Giê-su đã sống điều đó. Ngài đã sống cuộc đời không tìm hư danh mà chỉ biết sống yêu thương phục vụ mọi phận người lầm than. Ngài cũng không làm để được báo cáo thành tích mà chỉ biết cho đi mà không hề so đo tính toán. Ngài đã sống và bảo vệ chân lý cho dù vì thế mà Ngài bị nhiều thế lực gian tà thù ghét và tìm cách loại trừ. Tuy nhiên, cuối cùng Ngài vẫn toàn thắng. Sự dữ đã bị đẩy lùi. Sự gian dối của ma quỷ đã bị phơi bày. Thiên Chúa đã làm chủ vạn vật và trái đất này.

Hôm nay, lễ suy tôn Chúa làm Vua, Giáo hội nhắc nhở chúng ta, là Kytô hữu tức là công dân của Nước Thiên Chúa chúng ta được mời gọi xây dựng nước Chúa ở trần gian bằng sự hiệp nhất yêu thương nơi những người con của Chúa có chung một Cha trên trời. Sự hiệp nhất đó phải được xây dựng từ nơi gia đình, nơi xứ đạo chúng ta. Phải xóa bỏ những tị hiềm, ghen ghét, những bất công, hận thù trong cuộc sống giữa người với người. Mỗi người kytô hữu khi lãnh nhận bí tích rửa tội còn được mời gọi làm chứng cho sự thật giữa thế gian. Điều đó mời gọi chúng ta phải cùng nhau loại trừ điều gian dối, chua ngoa và xây dựng một nền công lý và sự thật giữa thế gian còn quá nhiều bất công và gian dối.

Vâng, cuộc đời hôm nay có lẽ sẽ vui hơn nếu người ta biết sống chân thành với nhau.Vợchồng chân thành với nhau trong nghĩa tình thuỷ chung. Người trong một đoàn thể, một xứ đạo sống chân thành với nhau hầu loại trừ bệnh thành tích khoe trương. Nhất là trong cuộc sống hằng ngày cần lấy chữ tín làm đầu, luôn sống chân thành trong lời nói , việc làm luôn theo chân lý và sự thật.

Ước gì mỗi người tín hữu chúng ta biết xây dựng Nước Chúa ở trần gian bằng cuộc sống chứng nhân cho tình yêu, cho chân lý và công bình giữa thế giới hôm nay.
