FROM FATHER XAVIER

Dear Friends,

I appreciate all your cooperation in our slow and steady way of moving back to normal in the church. We may need more hands to support and continue the good things that we do for the parish in our committees. Let us welcome one another with love and smiles.

This coming Saturday, July 3rd, Deacon Patrick will be ordained as a Priest for the Diocese of Green Bay. Deacon Patrick is the only one being ordained this year, let us pray for his ministry. Let us continue to pray for the vocation to the priesthood in our diocese.

Thank you for all your prayers for India as the cases are coming down. Kindly continue to pray for India and other countries where Covid has hit badly.

God bless you all!

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

June 27, 2021 (Wis. 1:13-15; 2:23-24; Mk.5:21-43)

Vinal Van Benthem ofs

Death. Most of us prefer not to talk about it. Many of us are afraid of it. But our desire to avoid the subject does not change the fact that we are all going to die.

In the Book of Wisdom the entrance of death into the world is attributed to the devil. In the Gospel of Mark we hear about Jairus and his little girl. "My daughter is at the point of death." Jesus goes to the man's home and tells the mourners, "The child is not dead but asleep." Then He takes her by the hand and says, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The devil may be responsible for death but God is responsible for life.

When someone asks Brad what he does for a living he usually says, rather apologetically, that he's 'just' an undertaker. Actually he's the Director of his family's funeral home business. Brad faces death almost every day. He's the one people turn to for help in planning the funeral of someone they love. Some are experiencing the loss of a relationship ended by the death of a spouse; some are experiencing the loss of a dream dashed with the death of a child; some are experiencing the loss of connection to family when a parent or sibling passes away. They turn to Brad because, whether it's the first time they've ever had to do this or one more of far too many visits like this one, something inside of them has died as well.

True, Brad is probably more likely to say, "Can I offer you a cup of coffee?" than "I say to you, arise!" But when people are crying ("weeping and wailing loudly") a cup of coffee and a tissue can be very life giving. Brad listens to stories and offers comfort. He looks death in the eye and then prayerfully calls upon God to overcome it. Brad understands what it means to be "...at the point of death." 'Just' an undertaker? Not according to the people who've been brought back to life because Brad was there to take them by the hand.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Do not be afraid, just have faith." God does not rejoice in our demise or our destruction. Rather, He made us in his image and desires that we have life. He also desires that we be healed and know His loving touch. There is great power in an embrace offered in love. The touch of another can heal wounds and restore life. There is also power in faith. Faith can turn us toward the truth and turn us toward God. Both love and faith can lead us to hope that no matter what we encounter, God will continue to sustain us in being. He will not allow us to perish. God can profoundly change how we see Him, ourselves, and one another. God desires that we turn toward Him and be healed of all that wounds and binds us so that we can be free and enjoy the fullness of life. We are asked to arise and walk proudly with this life-giving faith. Reach out and share this faith with someone this week so that they too can receive God's life changing embrace and heed His call to wholeness. There are many in our world wandering around aimlessly without hope. Bring it to them.
