FROM FATHER XAVIER

Dear Friends,

I hope you heard the news from Bishop Ricken about reinstating the mass obligation starting August 15th and onwards on the Feast of our Lady of Assumption. Bishop Ricken mentioned the importance of Mass in his video and letters. He may still continue to do the television masses for those who are sick and homebound. Even though we have started early to welcome everyone, we should welcome our young families. As a parish we can try together to bring them back. Another way is to speak to them one on one. That will be witnessing. So let us pray and earnestly try to bring our young families back through our prayer and effort.

As we get closer to the festival on August 8th, I would encourage you to support the committee by offering your time, gifts, and talents. We hope to have a successful and fun festival for all our parishioners and the community.

God bless you all!

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

July 25, 2021 (John 6:1-15)

Vinal Van Benthem ofs

The twins were beautiful – two little girls, with their mom’s dark hair and eyes and their dad’s dimples. Identical in every way except for a small mole on Leslie’s thigh. Leslie and Laura were perfect – except that they weren’t.

At first their dad insisted that they just needed more discipline. He accused Macy, their mother, of not being tough enough on the girls. But he wasn’t home during the day. He didn’t have to endure the terrible temper tantrums and the violent outbursts. He wasn’t there when Laura screamed that there was a rat in her room – except that there wasn’t.

Finally, in spite of her husband’s objections, Macy decided to seek help. Her pediatrician recommended a child psychologist, and that’s where the journey began – a journey from therapist to therapist and from doctor to doctor. Insurance covered little and by the time the girls were finally diagnosed as manic-depressive the family’s resources had pretty much been depleted. In addition, their dad had been transferred twice and it was difficult to develop an ongoing relationship with a good therapist.

The girls are 17 now. They live on the East Coast. Last week I received an email from Macy with the website of the organization she has founded for parents of twins with psychological or personality disorders. Finally, after years of transferring from college to college as her family moved around the country, Macy has completed her undergraduate studies in psychology and is now working on her Master’s degree in Social Work.

The crowd was hungry. How could they feed so many? A small child brought what little he had – five loaves and two fish – and it was enough. Jesus thanked God for the gifts and then fed the five thousand until all had eaten their fill. Macy thanks God for the many people who have supported her on her journey. It seemed she had so little to give, yet today she is the founding director of a national organization. She brought what she had – and it was enough.

What loaves do we have in our baskets? What fish do we share?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God shows up in unexpected ways! Just when we think we have God’s agenda figured out, another surprise comes. Expecting to find God only in some places hinders us from finding Him everywhere. Who would have thought that a young boy’s few loaves and fishes would feed thousands of people? The disciples were probably just as amazed as everyone else when this feast appeared before them. Sometimes, we find it difficult to believe that God can do amazing things with something small and simple. Yet, grasping this truth is really at the heart of understanding the power of the Eucharist. Having the Body and Blood of Christ made present for us is one amazing wonder. Actually being fed and nourished by that gift is another. Now being able to become what we have eaten, God can do tremendous things with the simple, humble gifts of our lives. All we have to do is realize that God dwells within us. When we do, then everyone we encounter and everything we do has the power to become a sacramental moment. When done with great love even the smallest gesture can be multiplied exponentially. Now, that’s amazing!

Time to Come Back To Mass!

On the weekend of August 15, the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, Bishop Ricken will be lifting the dispensation to attend the Sunday Mass.

What is a dispensation? Who has it applied to? Does this mean that if I care for someone who is sick or cannot go to Mass because of my own illness I am now obliged to go to Mass on Sunday?

Please read Bishop's column in the July 16 edition of The Compass and watch an accompanying video in which Bishop talks about the lifting of the dispensation and how it applies to you.

You can find the column and video at this link: www.gbdioc.org/backtoMass.

We have some staffing changes here at St. Mary's!

liturgical planning, work with the worship committee, assist the pastor with marriage and funeral preparations, minister to the sick, dying and grieving and visit the homebound on a regular basis.

We are so excited for Ashley's new role and are so grateful to have Bob join our staff in a new role. Please help us congratulate and welcome them!
