FROM FATHER XAVIER

Dear friends,

God has been great this last weekend in our parish festival, he heard all our prayers. It was a great turn out. There were a lot of parishioners and non-parishioners who came to join to have faith, family and fun. I am grateful to all the volunteers, especially to the festival committee who coordinated this event for months and rendered their talents and hard work to make this event successful. God bless all of them. I appreciate all those who supported through their time and talents, all the other committees and staff. I appreciate Bob and Mary Lewinski, the chair of the festival committee and their team for their effort and hard work.

Today we celebrate the feast of our Lady of Assumption. As Bishop Ricken invited us back to church, let us join together as one family to celebrate the Eucharist and make this parish more vibrant in the community.

God bless you all!

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

August 15, 2021 (Lk. 1:39-56)

Vinal Van Benthem ofs

They tell me that there are countries in South and Central America where praying the words of Mary's Magnificat (the words Mary speaks to Elizabeth in today's Gospel) is prohibited by law. When I first heard this I was surprised. Who would make such a law, especially in a "Christian" country? The answer, it seems, is anyone who would be threatened by words like "He...has scattered the proud in their conceit...cast down the mighty from their thrones..." and "...lifted up the lowly...filled the hungry...and the rich he has sent away empty." Good news for the poor but not so good if you happen to be rich.

Suppose someone came into your office or shop and said that those who were being paid the lowest salaries would be receiving a bonus so large that they would be able to buy steaks for dinner and new winter coats for everyone in their family? And then, what if they said that those who were making the highest salaries would suddenly find that their money was no good? If you happened to be among the poor living in a third world country this would probably come as pretty good news. But what if you were among the rich?

Bring it closer to home. What if you were a day laborer hired to pick cucumbers or wash dishes in a fancy restaurant and someone told you that from now on you would be paid enough money to not only support your family but even send your children to college? What if you were the president of the company that processed the vegetables? Or the owner of the fancy restaurant?

Mary was an unmarried, pregnant teenager. Later she would know what it meant to leave her homeland, afraid for her life and that of her child. She would see her Son convicted of crimes He did not commit and unjustly sentenced to death. Mary was not unlike many people living today in third world countries – or even in our own. What would happen if the Magnificat was proclaimed on the Evening News? How would we react to Mary's words?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Good mothers have a way of bringing their children hope. When we fall and hurt ourselves, our mothers can help us walk the path of healing. There is hope that we will get better and the trust that we have in mom's comforting assurance allows us to move forward. Mothers know instinctively what we need and what we are capable of doing. They can be one of our biggest cheerleaders in life, and even when facing despair, can point the way to a brighter tomorrow. Our Blessed Mother does precisely that for us today. As one closest to our Lord, she cheers us on with the hope of what life will be for all of us. Although given the unique distinction of being raised in both body and soul, she nonetheless points to our true eternal destiny. Achieving this inheritance overrides any disappointment and her intercession and example inspires us to pick ourselves up when we fall. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given as we persevere even in the midst of life's challenges and failures.

The Assumption

Question:

What lessons should I learn from the Assumption of Mary?

Answer:

Growing in holiness is similar to training in a sport. We need someone to show us how we can live our faith well. Mary is a model of sanctity. She shows us how to be faithful to God's will, living each day with confidence in God's mercy and love. At the Nativity, in Jesus' public ministry, and at the Crucifixion, we see her steadfast trust. She allows the Lord to use her life to accomplish his plan for her and for all of us. In the Preface of the Mass for the Assumption of Mary, we pray: "For today the Virgin Mother of God was assumed into heaven as the beginning and image of your Church's coming to perfection and a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people."

It is this image of holiness that we strive to imitate. In the office, at home, or in our community, we look for signs of God's grace that call us to an ever greater love of him and each other. A greater awareness of God is a sign of our conversion of heart that lives the lessons Mary teaches.

ThedaCare At Home is seeking hospice volunteers in all of our service areas to assist in caring for terminally ill patients and their families. Our volunteers are an integral part of our hospice team. They visit patients in their homes and at nursing facilities. Volunteers help to meet the emotional, spiritual and family needs of those on hospice. They do this by providing companionship and respite for both patients and their families. They really are the heart of hospice!

Our next volunteer training session will begin in early fall. These sessions build on a volunteer's knowledge and skills to learn about hospice philosophy, comfort care, communication and safety when assisting patients and their families. If you are interested in finding out dates of the training or have any other questions, please contact Sarah Lederer at 920-716-2783 or email sarah.lederer@thedacare.org as soon as possible.

Thank you for considering this worthwhile volunteer experience!
