CREATION OF MAN by Virginia Morrow

When God created man he was born to be free.
That's the way God wanted him to be.
First he made Adam then he made Eve.
They lived in a paradise where it was carefree.
Until Eve ate an apple from the forbidden tree.
And gave some to Adam,
Then they were no longer free.
God sent them out into the world so dark and dim
Where they could never return to him.
The days were long, but they had to stay strong.

They prayed every day
Until the day when God came
To say it's time for you to come home
And you will never have to roam.
My love for you will always be,
Just like the apple that grew on the tree.
So let this be a lesson to all of us today
To always be thankful and don't forget to pray
Because God will be watching us all from above.
So let's all be grateful and send him our love.

SAINT KILIAN'S

The next PCCW meeting will be April 21, with a pizza lunch at 11:30 am and the meeting starting at noon. The PCCW wants to assemble a photo album of DONATED photos of past parish events. We are not looking for wedding, First Communion, Anniversary, early parishioners, etc. pictures but things like parish picnic photos, photos of former pastors or nuns (not class photos), photos of church/school renovations (by parishioners) and other PARISH activities. A box will be put in the back of church into which you can deposit your photos. Please identify any people that you can, as well as the event and year (or time frame if you don't know the year). Please put them in an envelope with your name on it in case we get duplicates or ones we can't use (no others will be returned).

READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

Gospel Meditation April 10, 2022

Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, "To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues." Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God's unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn't like hearing about love, especially God's? Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God's love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God's love.

God's love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God's kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God's love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God's love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, "Crucify him!" There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough "to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues." It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

Angelus prayer

V/. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,

R/. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V/. Behold the handmaid of the Lord,

R/. Be it done unto me according to your Word.

Hail Mary...

V/. And the Word was made flesh,

R/. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary...

V/. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God,

R/. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts: that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ your Son was made known by the message of an Angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion - My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire You with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already in my heart and unite myself to You completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from You. Amen.
