October 2021

Dear People of First Lutheran Church,

It is with deep sadness and grief that I write this letter to you.

On September 21st, I submitted my resignation to your Church Council. My spouse has accepted a call to serve as a Senior Pastor in the Northeast Pennsylvania Synod, and we are in the process of relocating as a family. With all the grief involved with leaving First Lutheran and Eastern Wisconsin, our silver lining is that we will be much nearer to family as our precious daughters grow up.

It is my joy and privilege to have been your pastor for these few years, and I continue to be very proud of how faithfully and carefully we journeyed together through an extraordinary time in the church's history. Covid has been no small foe, and it has been my solace and delight to watch you serve amongst one another with faithfulness and resilience as we traveled together along the way. I have grown to love this deeply-rooted and vibrant community of faith, and I shall miss you very, very much.

My last Sunday with you will be October 17th, and my last day in the office will be October 21st. I will then take some vacation until the end of October. Your Church Council and the synod office are already working on transition plans and Sunday service coverage, and they will communicate those details with you as they fall into place.

In order to continue to serve you faithfully, I also need to depart from you faithfully. Be aware that this means I will no longer be able to officiate at weddings, baptisms, funerals or the like once I leave. Part of my job is to help you grow to trust and have confidence in your new pastor, just as you have placed that same trust in me.

May you continue to abound in hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Pastor Rachel Ziese Hacker

Grace to you and peace,

I'm writing to let you know that one part of our journey of faith together will be changing. I am resigning from my position as Faith Formation Coordinator at First Lutheran Church. Many of you have been praying for me and my family and have given us so much tangible help during my on-going cancer journey. As I begin new treatments, I believe it is the right time to take a step back and focus on my health and my family. I am not able to attend in-person events at church because of my immunocompromised status. Many of you in the congregation have already stepped forward and given your time and talents to see that the vital ministries to young people continue here at

First Lutheran. We will likely need more help along the way! During the transition to new leadership, and as I am able, I will continue to provide assistance to Faith Formation Ministries from behind the scenes at home. Information about my official last day on the job will be communicated as that date is known.

I have been blessed beyond measure while on staff at First Lutheran. God's Spirit at work in and among us is a pleasure to witness. I've enjoyed working with young people, their parents and other adults of all ages. I'm especially proud to have been involved here long enough to watch many children grow from little ones into teenagers and beyond. We have already shared so many blessings, joys and struggles together on the journey.

Together with my family, we will continue with you on this journey of faith, as members of this beloved family of faith at First Lutheran.

Keep shining for Jesus,

Kristine Jacobson

“Hands and Feet of Jesus Award”

The Salvation Army recently presented First Lutheran Church with the first “Hands and Feet of Jesus Award”. We were recognized for our above and beyond on-going monthly support of the food pantry, especially during this transition time with COVID. Monthly donations during this time ranged from 40 to 60 bags a gathered during Drive-Thru Communion. They expressed that our support of all the Salvation Army programs including the longevity of our involvement with their Christmas “Adopt-A-Family” program, emulates Jesus’ model.

Lieutenant Jenny Moffat presented the award at a recent Church Council meeting to Council President Karin Jaeger. Also shown are Board Representatives Landie VanHaren, Tyler Fellows, Brad Oxtan, and Ned Jerabek.

Taylor White and Alex Partida presented their daughter Ayyah Mae White for Holy Baptism on Sunday July 25, 2021. She was born on January 5, 2021, in Manitowoc WI. Ayyah’s sponsors are Michaela White, Brandon White.

Daniel & Christy Miller presented their daughter Natalie Mae Miller for Holy Baptism on Sunday September 5, 2021. She was born September 14, 2016 at Holy Family Memorial, Manitowoc. Natalie’s sponsors are: Dayna Shavlik, Kristen Van Eyck, and Jordon Rank.

David Ellison & Nissa Enos presented their three children for Holy Baptism on Sunday Sep. 19, 2021.

Eve Berit Ellison, born Aug. 24, 2017–
Mark Leonard Ellison, born Aug. 23, 2019
Samuel Riley Ellison, born Aug. 11, 2021
The children’s sponsors are:

Thea Enos, Margret Mills, & Thomas Ellison

Also Nissa Enos, was baptized on Sunday Sept. 19, 202, along side her children. Her parents are Marion & Sharon Enos.

September 1, 2021

Dear Partners in Christ:

For this newsletter, we would like to share about the Paralympics taking place in Tokyo right now. They have been a total blessing to not only the competitors but to the spectators as well. Some of you may not even be aware that they are being held. From our family and friends in the States, we are told that there is hardly any coverage or no coverage at all. Since they are being held in Japan, there is daily coverage of the 539 events being held in 23 different sports. For me, there is a different feel to the Paralympics compared to the Olympics. In the Olympics there was a real sense of competition to be able to get a medal. There was fierce competition as well as clearly differentiated winners and losers. There is also real competition in the Paralympics too, but at the same time, there is also a great deal of respect for all competitors regardless of receiving a medal or not. The Paralympics provide an opportunity for athletes with disabilities to compete on an international level. The six main disability categories are: amputee, cerebral palsy, intellectual disability, visually impaired, spinal injuries and "Les Autres," for conditions that do not fall into the other categories.

We have found the Paralympic competitions to be very inspirational and rewarding to watch. More than with the Olympics, the competitors seem to have a genuine interest in their opponents. There is mutual support among the athletes and awe at what each athlete is able to do with their individual disabilities. It makes us see the beauty in each person that God intrinsically gave each of us. When God made creation we read, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness." No matter what disability an athlete has, that image of God can be seen in their striving to do their very best in whatever sport they happen to be competing in. The attitudes of courage, hope, trust and love are profoundly visible with each contest. At the end of a competition you can see the mutual respect the athletes have for one another, knowing how much effort and energy was needed to just be in the Paralympics. From Psalm 139, verse 13-14 we read, "For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made." Through the Paralympics we see these verses become reality. Some athletes were born with a disability, while others were disabled through sickness or accident. However, each competitor "does their best" and that is awesome and inspiring. Disabilities are not barriers, but challenges to be overcome. They give glory to God by striving. "Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead." Philippians 3:13 Often as we have watched the events, we visually see Philippians 2:3 in action. "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves." Therefore, watching the Paralympics is like seeing a video of the Bible.

In some ways the Paralympics is a concrete example of how God would have us live in this world. Accepting ourselves just as we are, and furthermore accepting others just as they are. The following verses come to mind, as we watch these athletes: 1 Peter 3:8 "Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble." Romans 15:1, 5, 7 "We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves.... May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had...Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God." Even our 7 and 9-year old granddaughters who are participating in swimming lessons were awed by the competition. They called us and said, "Even though they don't have arms or legs they can swim really fast!! You have to watch!"

We would like to ask for prayers for each and every competitor at this year's Paralympics. May they be encouraged, whether they "win" or "lose." We also ask for prayers for each one of us that we too are able to accept ourselves, just as God has created us.

In Christ,

Jim (and Carol) Sack, Tokyo

Roydan Donation & Celebration

We were honored to have been one of two organizations chosen by employees to receive a donation at their employee ownership celebration. Congratulations to ROYDAN Enterprises, Ltd. employee owners, and thank you for supporting our mission and those we serve in our community!

OUR WISH LIST for our Guests

- Dishwasher pods
- Multi-purpose cleaning spray
- Size 6 diapers
- Fabric shower curtains
- Windex * Dish soap
- Paper towels * Toilet paper

The amazing support from our generous community has enabled us to serve people in need. We thank you for your support!

Understanding & Compassion For Our Guests

Our current capacity is 26 people with 17 children. As you can imagine, living in the same household can present challenges. Not to mention, kids are back in school. We are hoping that a bit more structure during the day will wear these kids out more at night, but we thank you for your patience as our families work on their goals.

They are dealing with a search to find suitable housing for their families, saving money, and each family has their own unique set of challenges and goals to meet while staying at Hope House. Everyone has bad and good days. Sometimes a friendly face and a kind smile is just what they need.

We sincerely thank our volunteers for their patience and understanding in assisting our guests. We could not serve our guests without our volunteers - we appreciate you! You are making a difference in our community.

Welcome New Volunteers

We are currently training and giving tours to our new volunteers! Thank you for spreading the word in our community about our mission and encouraging others to help serve those in need. We could not do this without you.

If you know of someone who is interested in joining our volunteer team, have them visit our website to get started. If you have questions, email Kristin.

Volunteer Training Now Available Online

This last year has been challenging for everyone and one of those challenges was not being able to hold our volunteer group trainings together in person.

We have created an online training module that volunteers can now complete the full training online. After someone completes the training, we schedule an in person tour and schedule them with an experienced volunteer to get to know our house and guests. Interested volunteers can learn more on our website to get started. Or email me and I will follow up with them.
