

4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb." - Lk 1:41-42

Dear Parishioners of Saint Petronille,

Fr. Thomas Milota

Meeting about our Parish Church

You've seen the videos on Catholic Church architecture. Now, come to our meeting to discuss our parish church and the ideas your fellow parishioners on our church restoration committee have been putting together at 7 pm on Thursday, December 16th in the church. We have already made presentations to our worship commission, parish council, buildings and grounds, capital campaign committee and parish staff, so please come to see what the buzz is all about.

Missionary from Catholic Young Adult Sports at Saint Petronille for a year!

When we had our virtual town hall meeting last year regarding Youth and Young Adult Ministry, one of our participants asked whether we could get something like FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) in our parish. Although FOCUS does not work in parishes, an organization called Catholic Young Adult Sports does. The founder of Catholic Young Adult Sports, Paul Spotts, was a FOCUS missionary and he saw the need for something on the parish level and knew that sports would be a big draw. Saint Petronille is the first parish in the Diocese of Joliet to sponsor a missionary who will be living and working in our parish and in the area with our young adults. We are still looking for a park to hold ultimate frisbee and a gymnasium in the area on weekends where we can hold volleyball and basketball games so if anyone has any ideas, let us know. Here she is and watch for more information about events here at Saint Petronille:

Hello parishioners of St. Petronille!

My name is Teresa Dulac, I am a Catholic Sports missionary placed here in Chicago at St. Petronille's! I am originally from Omaha, Nebraska, and graduated from Franciscan University of Steubenville in May with a bachelor's degree in Journalism.

Some fun facts about me: I am the oldest of 11 children, love my Jeep, and have played volleyball, basketball, and lacrosse!

I joined Catholic Sports ministries because of my desire to bring community to young Catholics and my love for sports. I am a program coordinator, and will be responsible for running our leagues alongside our volunteers, starting bible studies, and hosting socials! I am excited to begin this work at St. Petronille!

If you or someone you know is interested in becoming involved in any of our sport leagues, don't hesitate to reach out to me for information! We'd love to see you!

Fourth Sunday of Advent – The Visitation

We have been hearing the prophets prophesying the coming of the Savior and the account of the Baptist crying out in the wilderness, "Prepare the way of the Lord." This Sunday we will hear the account of Mary visiting Elizabeth, her cousin, in a town of Judah, in the hill country. We refer to this event as the Visitation.

We presume that Mary goes to visit her cousin who is considerably older than she is in order to help her in the last 3 months of her pregnancy. We don't hear whether Mary has morning sickness or what her struggles may have been, having just found out she is with child, but we can presume that it carried with it the ordinary struggles of the early months of any pregnancy. She also just found out that she is to give birth to the Messiah, the privilege for which any Jewish mother would rejoice. Mary received the honor for which Jewish moms had waited for Millennia. Normally, someone of exalted position would expect others to come to them. She doesn't. She goes to visit her cousin.

Now, as a guy...and a celibate guy at that, I started to wonder: "What is it that a woman does when she visits her friend who is well-along in her pregnancy?" Does she help with the chores? Is she there for moral support? A combination? Something else? Please forgive my ignorance, but my speculation here can serve three purposes:

1) you will be able to tell how clueless I am and, hence, I will suffer public humiliation and perhaps grow in humility; 2) I actually got something right; 3) (most likely) I am somewhere in between right and wrong. I do not know anything about being pregnant (I hope this is obvious), but I do know something about walking with a convert or a young person answering the call to religious life. I look forward to your emails. Thank you in advance for helping me grow in humility.

Mary walks in the door and Elizabeth rightly predicts that Mary is the Mother of the Messiah...the one long awaited by millions of Jewish people for generations. Does Elizabeth then ask her to do the laundry? Well...I am guessing Mary did help out with the chores (cooking, cleaning, keeping Zechariah out of her hair, etc.), because she is Mary and was there for 3 months, but I speculate that there are two other things going on here for which the chores are only a pretense and perhaps the real reason for the visit: 1) Elizabeth is excited about having her first child and we, human beings, share our joys; and, 2) Elizabeth has some fear about the unknowns of having her first child and Mary will walk with her through those fears, uncertainties, anxieties, etc. Joy, excitement, fear and uncertainty all wrapped into one. Let's face it: babies are pretty fragile and needy little humans and it is great to have someone there with you to talk things through, process experiences and questions, etc. My guess is that Mary and Elizabeth took great comfort in going through all this together and, as I have already confessed, it is an experience that, no matter how sensitive and thoughtful we might be, a guy does not fully understand. This becomes even more the case when your child is the "voice crying out in the wilderness" or the Son of God.

So, our lesson? Advent is a time for us to walk together toward the celebration of the Birth of the Messiah. We live in a time of great excitement as well as fear and uncertainty. Let's pray for each other and be open to the visit of the Lord, whatever He may bring.

May Almighty God bless you and keep you.

Prayers.

In Christ,

Fr. Thomas Milota

CHRISTIAN SERVICE

The season of Advent lends itself to finding ways to reach out to others in our world and boy do the parishioners of St. Petronille take that seriously! I am so humbled, daily when I come into the office and find some email or voicemail from parishioner asking how they can help. Let me tell you a few of the ways St. Petronille has been reaching out to the community this Advent.

Adopt a Family with CCW has gone above and beyond to help more than 700 people in need. The St. Petronille parishioners have adopted all the families and organizations and then continued to support with additional grocery/gas cards, toys for the Outreach Center toy drive, and financial donations that allow CCW to fill any last minute or unmet needs. Watching Nell Bochenek, Jen Gihuly, and their team is incredible. This year they added on an additional project by filling 150 stockings for some of the local children being helped by Adopt a Family. Thank you also to everyone who has provided stocking stuffers, candy, and help with filling those stockings. Thank you also to Mrs. Atkinson and Miss Morrissy's 4th graders who made Christmas cards for all the Adopt a Family families! Their cards were festive and full of Christmas cheer!! This is a massive undertaking and it always gets done on time!! Kudos to Nell, Jen, and the CCW team!! And many thanks to all those in the parish who have supported this project this and every year, you are truly helping families provide a happy holiday for their children.

Thank you to everyone who is helping with providing PADS with Christmas trees!! We did this last year for the families staying with PADS and they again asked if we would provide trees again for their families. It is an honor to help bring a little Christmas cheer to these families. There is still a need though, we need about 40 trees and could still use your support. Please see the SUG here for more information. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040944a9ae2ba7f94-christmas>

Mary's Closet – Thank you to Linda Sullivan, Rich Cullotta, Pat and Cheryl Hinchey, and

Steve and Joyce Miller for everything they have been doing to take the Community Room from a tired worn space to a vibrant beautiful and warm room that will soon be used to house items needed by families in need. More to come soon!! But if you see any of the folks I mentioned above, please thank them for all the time and labor they have spent on this project, they are incredible!

Grace of Motherhood recently started meeting again after a Covid hiatus and it was so much fun to see old friends and new!! If you'd like more information on our gatherings, please don't hesitate to reach out. We are always welcoming new friends!!

As we continue the journey with Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem please continue to keep all those that we encounter on the road in your prayers. We are touched by the stories of all those that we get to accompany in their times of need. I pray that your Advent is full of joyful anticipation of the celebration of our newborn King. God bless, Tanya and Mila
