A MESSAGE FROM FR. MOLINI

A New Look...

This weekend we have given the bulletin a new look that we hope will make more information more accessible. The bulletin is organized by Parish Commissions, the administrative structure we began using about three years ago, implementing new commissions over the course of these years. By placing activities in categories, we hope to make the information more cohesive as well as offering more links to get in-depth information. With the number of events, activities, offerings, and programs offered at Ascension, we often found that we were not able to share all the information we wanted. We hope this will address that. Give it some time and then let us know how it is working...contact Melanie in the office at mfeldt@asc.church.

Firmly Pro-Life

Please remember to pray for the protection of human life, and especially the end of abortion in our land. While the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision creating a supposed "right" to kill an unborn child is reason enough to appeal to God, the fight to protect life is not limited to this month. Pray daily to defend the right to life in all stages of growth.

Winterfest – January 29-30

Winterfest weekend is our parish's celebration of who we are as an engaging and active Catholic community. Stop by the MPR and Gym after Mass next weekend to visit with our seven Commissions and consider becoming a part of a parish group or activity. Join in our celebration of parish life!

WOUNDED BY ABORTION?
