August 18, 2019 • 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time
A Note From Fr. Patrick

For my six years of formation, I served in the most ethnically diverse parish in St. Louis. On Sunday mornings, there were poor and rich, refugees and immigrants from almost every continent, and others from all over the St. Louis area.

As a small, inner-city parish, they struggled financially. Even with such challenges, they had a full-time minister to refugees, a multi-day per week food pantry as well as a food basket ministry at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. They even had one of the best Lenten fish fries in town.

Wonderful as all of this was, there were difficult trade offs and creative responses to their realities. For instance, they worked together with a few parishes for religious education and faith formation; some communities, like their growing young adult community, were supported by the pastor but they had to organize everything themselves.

It was a poor, but thriving parish because for all of the diversity, the welcoming community, and its emphasis on serving the poor (mostly non-Catholic) in the neighborhood, they had a clear mission and vision. Everyone knew the most important priority there was serving the poorest of the poor so they willingly put everything else second.

I bring my experience with the parish in St. Louis to your attention for several reasons. First, it shows how a parish united around a central vision and mission can thrive amidst incredible challenges. Second, the poor come in myriad forms. At that St. Louis parish, they are refugees and migrants around the corner. At St. Paul’s, they are the thousands of spiritually lost souls and fallen away Catholics. Lastly, at St. Paul’s a greater emphasis on campus ministry tied to that ministry’s almost exponential growth will require some creative responses, some difficult conversations, and maybe even some changes.

St. Paul’s is as wonderful a community as the one I served in St. Louis. It is an absolute honor to serve all of you. The way ahead may be challenging, but, placing our faith firmly in Christ Jesus, we trust and believe it will work for the good.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Patrick

Mass Schedule Changes

The return of IU classes means the return of our regular weekday Mass schedule!

Effective August 26:

Monday-Saturday 12:15pm
Monday, Wednesday, Friday 5:30pm
Tuesday & Thursday 9pm

Sunday 9pm Masses resume August 25

Prayers for the Sick of Our Parish

Names of the sick will be listed for four weeks at a time. If you wish for a name to remain on the list longer, please contact the parish office at 812-339-5561 or vyoungs@hoosiercatholic.org

Pray for them, and for all who are elderly, infirm, and homebound.

New Confession Schedule Effective Aug. 26

The best time for people to go to Confession is when they are at Church. Most people come to Church for Mass. Therefore, beginning with the new academic year, we will offer Confessions before every Mass.

The schedule is as follows:

45 minutes before all
weekday Masses (except Friday evening) :
Monday-Saturday, 11:30-12:00 pm
Monday, Wednesday, 4:45-5:15 pm
Tuesday, Thursday, 8:15-8:45 pm

30 minutes before all Sunday Masses
and Saturday Vigil:
Saturday 4pm
Sunday 8am, 10am, 12pm, 5pm & 9pm.

Home Football = No Mass

Due to heavy traffic and street closures, there are no Saturday Masses or confessions when IU is hosting a home football game.

September Home Games are Sept. 7, 14, and 21.

Women’s Bible Study

Ladies of the parish are invited to attend our weekly Women’s Bible Study. We meet every Thursday downstairs in the North Meeting Room.

9:30am: Conversation and Fellowship
10am: Bible Study Lesson
11:30am: Conclude with prayer

We are studying Genesis using the Ignatius Catholic Study Bible series. The book of Genesis includes commentary notes, and study questions. All are welcome!

Bible Study

Our Adult Bible Study meets every Tuesday evening from 7:30-8:30pm downstairs in the Stephens Room. All are welcome! Bring your bible or borrow one of ours!
Women’s Spirituality

All women are welcome to join a monthly faith sharing. We begin with fellowship at 7pm and continue from 7:30-8:30pm with prayer, ritual, large group input, and small group discussion. Our session in September (Sunday, September 1 at 7pm downstairs by Bridget’s office) will be a welcome session as we start a new year after summer break!

Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLW)

CLW will return on Sunday, September 15th!
All children ages 3-7 are welcome to attend during the 10:30am Mass. No registration is required for this program.

News You Can Use

The HVAC system for the church is about 95% done—we know it’s not perfect yet! Please bear with us as the contractors continue tweaking the system so everybody stays uniformly comfortable during Mass. P.S.—if you tend to feel chilly, please bring a sweater. If you are always on the “warm” side, feel free to use the weekly bulletin for its secondary purpose—it makes a great fan!

We have recently been inundated with boxes of unsolicited used videos, clothing, kitchenware, etc. Please don’t drop items off here. Our staff needs to take time out of their schedules to deliver to the appropriate charity. Please take them directly to Goodwill, Opportunity House, My Sister’s Closet, Hoosier Hills Food Bank, etc.

Here is a partial list of the organizations who would welcome donations:
Opportunity House, 907 W. 11th St.
My Sister’s Closet (women’s clothing) 414 S. College Ave.
Goodwill, 512 S. College Mall
Salvation Army: 111 N. Rogers Street
Hoosier Hills Food Bank (book, cd, dvd donations) 2333 W. Industrial Park Dr.
St. Vincent de Paul (furniture donations—will pick up) 812-961-1510, leave message.

The Novena Prayer Group at St. Paul invites you to join us on a journey of prayer. We pray short and long Novenas all year round.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS/SURVIVORS OF ABUSE

God of endless love,
ever caring, ever strong,
always present, always just:
You gave your only Son to save us
by his Blood on the Cross.
Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit
by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.
Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed, and the cries of those who love them.
Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause, enlightened by your truth.
Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people’s wounds and transform brokenness into wholeness. Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace, to act with justice. Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors. Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.
