Let us be neither dogs that do not bark nor silent onlookers nor paid servants who run away before the wolf. Instead let us be careful shepherds watching over Christ's flock. Let us preach the whole of God's plan to the powerful and to the humble, to rich and to poor, to men of every rank and age, as far as God gives us strength, in season and out of season. (St. Boniface)

Although I know well, Margaret, that because of my past wickedness I deserve to be abandoned by God, I cannot but trust in his merciful goodness. His grace has strengthened me until now and made me content to lose goods, land, and life as well, rather than to swear against my conscience. God's grace has given the king a gracious frame of mind toward me, so that as yet he has taken from me nothing but my liberty. In doing this His Majesty has done me such great good with respect to spiritual profit that I trust that among all the great benefits he has heaped so abundantly upon me I count my imprisonment the very greatest. I cannot, therefore, mistrust the grace of God. Either he shall keep the king in that gracious frame of mind to continue to do me no harm, or else, if be his pleasure that for my other sins I suffer in this case as I shall not deserve, then his grace shall give me the strength to bear it patiently, and perhaps even gladly. By the merits of his bitter passion joined to mine and far surpassing in merit for me all that I can suffer myself, his bounteous goodness shall release me from the pains of purgatory and shall increase my reward in heaven besides.

I will not mistrust him, Meg, though I shall feel myself weakening and on the verge of being overcome with fear. I shall remember how St. Peter at a blast of wind began to sink because of his lack of faith, and I shall do as he did: call upon Christ and pray to him for help. And then I trust he shall place his holy hand on me and in the stormy seas hold me up from drowning.

And if he permits me to play St. Peter further and to fall to the ground and to swear and forswear, may God our Lord in his tender mercy keep me from this, and let me lose if it so happen, and never win thereby! Still, if this should happen, afterward I trust that in his goodness he will look on me with pity as he did upon St. Peter, and make me stand up again and confess the truth of my conscience afresh and endure here the shame and harm of my own fault.

And finally, Margaret, I know this well: that without my fault he will not let me be lost. I shall, therefore, with good hope commit myself wholly to him. And if he permits me to perish for my faults, then I shall serve as praise for his injustice. But in good faith, Meg, I trust that his tender pity shall keep my poor soul safe and make me commend his mercy.

And, therefore, my own good daughter, do not let your mind be troubled over anything that shall happen to me in this world. Nothing can come but what God wills. And I am very sure that whatever that be, however bad it may seem, it shall indeed be the best. (St. Thomas Moore)

Aunque sé muy bien, Margarita, que debido a mi maldad pasada merezco ser abandonado por Dios, no puedo sino confiar en su bondad misericordiosa. Su gracia me ha fortalecido hasta ahora y ha hecho que me contente por perder bienes, tierras y hasta la vida, en vez de jurar en contra de mi conciencia. La gracia de Dios le ha dado al rey un ánimo amable hacia mí, por lo cual hasta ahora no ha tomado de mí más que mi libertad. Por eso, Su Majestad me ha beneficiado mucho espiritualmente, y creo que entre los tantos beneficios que se me han acumulado, mi encarcelamiento es el más grande. No puedo por lo tanto, desconfiar de la gracia de Dios. O bien mantendrá al rey en ese estado de gracia para que continúe sin causarme daño, o si es su placer, hará que por mis otros pecados sufra como no lo merezco, y si es así, su gracia me dará la fuerza para soportarlo pacientemente, o tal vez incluso con gusto. Por los méritos de su amarga pasión unidos a los míos, y superando en gran medida mis méritos por lo que pueda sufrir yo mismo, su generosa bondad me liberará de los dolores del purgatorio y además aumentará mi recompensa en el cielo.

No desconfiaré de Él, Margarita; aunque me sienta debilitado y a punto de ser vencido por el miedo. Recordaré cómo San Pedro, en una ráfaga de viento, comenzó a hundirse debido a su falta de fe, y haré lo que él hizo: invocar a Cristo y rezarle pidiendo ayuda. Y luego, confío en que pondrá su mano sagrada sobre mí y en los mares tempestuosos me levantará para que no me ahogue.

Y si Él me permite jugar más a San Pedro, y caigo al suelo, juro, y me retracto, ¡Que Dios nuestro Señor, en su tierna misericordia, me aleje y me permita perder, y nunca ganar de esta manera! Aunque, si esto llegara a suceder, confío en que Él en Su bondad, me mirará con compasión como lo hizo con San Pedro, me hará levantar otra vez, confesar de nuevo la verdad de mi conciencia, y soportar aquí la vergüenza y el dolor por mi propia culpa.

Y finalmente, Margarita, lo sé muy bien: que sin mi culpa no me dejará perder. Por lo tanto, bien esperanzado, me comprometeré por completo con él. Y si Él permite que yo perezca por mis faltas, entonces serviré como elogio por su injusticia. Pero de buena fe, Margarita, confío en que su tierna compasión mantendrá a salvo a mi pobre alma y me hará elogiar su misericordia.

Y, por lo tanto, mi buena hija, no dejes que tu mente se preocupe por cualquier cosa que me pueda suceder en este mundo. Nada puede venir, sino lo que Dios quiera. Y estoy muy seguro que sea lo que sea, por muy malo que parezca, de hecho, será lo mejor. (Sto. Tomás Moro)
