RCIA NEWS

Our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) program has been re-worked! Just like God meets us where we are, we are doing the same by providing a more individualized program. If you, or someone you know, are considering becoming Catholic, please have them contact Andrea Ziminsky at the parish office: 501-327-6568 x 110 or aziminsky@sjparish.org.

Become a Mentor

The RCIA program is looking for mentors to walk with individuals coming into the faith. What does it mean to be a mentor?

The mentor is a guide and example to an individual seeking to become Catholic either thru baptism or for those from another Christian religious tradition, making a profession of faith. The mentor helps the individual understand how we live and practice our faith.

You will work one-on-one with someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic at our Parish. Be a guide to the faith, share your knowledge of the sacraments, prayer, devotions, help them find ways to become involved in our parish community and how to live like a Catholic. Kind of like providing on the job training!

Time Commitment: Varies – with some contact weekly (phone call, text, visit, coffee break to attending some meetings together)

Understanding of the Catholic Faith: Average
For more information about being a mentor, or if interested in serving as a mentor, please contact:

WASHING OUR NEIGHBOR'S FEET

By Kathy Kordsmeier

As we commemorate the Last Supper, it is good to meditate on the meaning of the washing of the feet in relation to a call to discipleship. In March of 2019, I was getting close to completing *Retreat in Daily Life (RIDL) when I wrote a meditation on John 13:1-17, "The Washing of the Feet". I imagined myself as Simon Peter, the one who protests "You will never wash my feet". Jesus answered him, "Unless I wash you, you will have no inheritance with me." At this invitation, Simon insists now that Jesus must wash not only his feet, but his hands and head as well. By this meditation Jesus was teaching me how true discipleship requires that kind of extreme humility to serve my neighbors, even the least of my brothers.

Fr. Shay Cullen SSC writes in Reflection—The Last Supper (www.columban.org.au E-News-Vol.4 No.3): "During the Eucharist we are called to be true and faithful disciples—to be another Christ." Father explains that Jesus intended to shock his disciples when he washed their feet to give them and us this model of an unselfish servant. By his example, we are expected to commit ourselves to washing our neighbor's feet by helping the poor and downtrodden, releasing captives, healing the sick, and challenging the causes of poverty and oppression. In the Eucharist, instituted during the Last Supper, we receive not only the spiritual power to embrace these commitments, but also the courage to act for and on behalf of the abused, oppressed, the sick, and the hungry.

Fr. Cullen reminds us, "When Jesus told his disciples and followers to 'Do this in memory of me,' it wasn't just a sentimental ritual he left, but a memorial of his life, death, and resurrection." Let us be ever mindful as we participate in the Eucharist, that this is the moment when Christ is fully present in our midst, inspiring and sustaining us to preach his Word and fulfill his mission by bending down and washing our neighbor's feet.

Lest we forget, Fr. Cullen leaves us with this final thought. When we break the bread and drink the cup in the Eucharist, above all, we encounter the living presence of Christ and pledge our lives to transform the world one neighbor at a time.

*RIDL—for more information call Diane Bausom at 501-472-2141.
