Dr. Mow aka Paul Thessing has decided to retire after more than 20 years as our groundskeeper for St. Joseph parish. His hard work and dedication to the beautification of the parish grounds have been a blessing for us all. Thank you, Doc! We hope you enjoy your retirement!

We have already found a volunteer to mow and weedeat the grounds going forward. We are looking for additional volunteers to take over managing the flower beds around campus. We would love to have a team to handle this task and continue to maintain our beautiful property. If you are interested in helping with this, please contact Matt Mallett at 501-327-5528 or mamallett@sjparish.org.

Holy Thursday Collection for Seminarians

The Msgr. James O'Connell Seminarian Fund was established more than 50 years ago to pay for the education of Diocese of Little Rock seminarians. This fund was invested through the years and covered the costs until recently. Today the cost of educating one seminarian is $36,000 per year, which includes tuition, room and board, health insurance, and other needs. With 38 seminarians, the fund can no longer cover the cost of educating all of them. Therefore, the Holy Thursday Collection for Diocese of Little Rock Seminarians was established to help pay for the increased cost of seminarian education, which is provided free of charge to all qualified students, regardless of income.

Holy Land Collection—Good Friday

Christians living where Christ walked, taught, lived and died, live in a land of war, death and destruction. The Holy Land Collection is a pontifical collection that supports the Holy Land for the welfare of their Christian brethren and of the local communities. Funds for this collection not only support the holy places, but also pastoral, charitable, educational and social works throughout the Holy Land.

HOLY THURSDAY TO HOLY SACRIFICE

By Kathy Kordsmeier

Last September while recovering from eye surgery, I was surprised to receive a "Sunshine basket" at the parish office from an anonymous giver. The individually wrapped gifts gave me something to look forward to each day of my seven day period of convalescence. One of the gifts I treasure the most is a little book called "My Meditation on the Gospel" by Rev. James E. Sullivan, published in 1962 by the Confraternity of the Precious Blood. Today, I want to share some of his reflections on the Sacrifice of the Eucharist as we prepare for the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday.

Perhaps you have imagined yourself among the crowd present at Calvary as I have done during Holy Week. Fr. Sullivan says we don't have to imagine ourselves present. We truly are present because the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the way Jesus chose to bring Calvary to the millions of Christians, then and now, who could not be physically present. When Jesus said, "Do this in commemoration of me", He was speaking not just to the Apostles who were with Him, but to all men in all times and places to whom He left the Eucharist. That is His never-ending gift to you and me!

Fr. Sullivan reminds us that by willingly offering Himself at the Last Supper, Christ turned Calvary from a murder into a sacrifice, "the most beautiful act of love ever known." How do we respond to that ultimate sacrifice for our sake when we receive Jesus in Holy Communion? In every Mass we witness Christ's continuous sacrifice where His death is offered to the Father, the same act of redeeming love which took place at Calvary. In each Mass we are invited to join the priest in offering Jesus to the Father as we offer ourselves.

Fr. Sullivan invites us to make this offering of self as we pray: "Take me, take me for whatever Calvary you wish for me this day. I accept the sorrows, the crosses, the disappointments, the failures, the joys, and successes. I accept them cheerfully and willingly, my King. I offer them in this Holy Mass!"

Increase Your Devotion to the Eucharist

"The devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness Itself." –St. Pius X

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión de Cristo

En el Domingo de Ramos, también llamado de la Pasión del Señor, la Iglesia recuerda la entrada triunfante de Cristo nuestro Señor a Jerusalén para consumir el Misterio Pascual. Hoy, se bendicen las palmas que llevamos a casa después de la Misa. Ya en casa las colocamos en un lugar especial para recordar y celebrar la Semana Santa que se avecina. También, se escuchan dos lecturas del Evangelio. La primera para la procesión de entrada y la segunda de la Pasión del Señor. La Cuaresma fue un tiempo de meditación y conversión que no guio hasta este Domingo de Ramos.

Ahora, debemos acompañar al Señor en su Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección con la celebración del Triduo Pascual. El Papa Francisco aun en este tiempo de recuperación del sufrimiento causado por la pandemia nos da un impulso a seguir confiando en la esperanza y alegría de la Resurrección. “Jesús es nuestro amigo, nuestro hermano. Él nos ilumina en nuestro camino. Y así lo hemos acogido hoy. Esta es la primera palabra que quisiera decirles: Alegría. No sean hombres y mujeres tristes: un cristiano jamás puede serlo. Sigamos a Jesús. Nosotros acompañamos, seguimos a Jesús”. Palabras, que nos consuelan y animan en cada circunstancia de nuestra vida. ¿Qué haremos durante esta Semana Santa para acompañar a Jesús en su Pasión? ¿Cómo celebraremos la alegría de la Pascua? De cualquier forma que lo hagamos reflexionemos en la frase del Evangelio de hoy. “¡Bendito el que viene como Rey en el nombre del Señor!” (Lucas 19:38).

Aumenta tu devoción a la Eucaristía

“La devoción a la Eucaristía es la más noble, porque tiene a Dios por objeto; es la más provechosa para la salvación, porque nos da el Autor de la Gracia; es el más dulce, porque el Señor es la dulzura misma.” –St. Pío X.

La adoración ahora estará disponible durante el fin de semana y las misas escolares. Si a ti te gustaría únete a la adoración, por favor considera los horarios recién abiertos a continuación. No tengas miedo de comprometerse con los fines de semana debido a posibles viajes. Muchos sustitutos están disponibles. Vea el horario e inscríbese en conway.weadorehim.com.
