

ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH

IGLESIA CATÓLICA SAN JOSÉ

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive." - Lk 20:37-38

"Y que los muertos resucitan, el mismo Moisés lo indica en el episodio de la zarza, cuando llama al Señor, Dios de Abraham, Dios de Isaac, Dios de Jacob. Porque Dios no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, pues para él todos viven". - Lc 20, 37-38

Grieving Through the Holidays

A group support session sponsored by St. Joseph Beacon of Hope Ministry

If your Christmas tree is looking a little bare this year, don't despair. While it's true that most people we know are probably looking forward to being with their families and friends for the holidays, it's okay if you would rather skip them this year. Grieving the loss of a loved one is never easy, but it can be especially difficult around the holidays. It may seem like you are the only one not feeling merry and gay. If this describes you or someone you know, it is okay to not celebrate, or to do less, or to do it differently than you may have done it before. Do whatever is best for you without apology or guilt. It may also be helpful to connect with others who are grieving and learn some healthy ways to plan ahead to help you get through this holiday season. That is why the Beacon of Hope Ministry is offering its Grieving Through the Holidays afternoon session on Sunday November 6th from 1:30 to 4:30. Come and stay for as little or as long as you like. There will be a guest speaker to share her personal story of grief, a short video by a renowned grief therapist, the option to share your story of loss and listen to others in a small group, and the opportunity, if you choose, to personalize an ornament in memory of the person or persons you are missing this year.

For more information and to register, contact Kathy Kordsmeier at call/text 501-269-1998, email kkordsmeier@outlook.com Those who do not pre-register are still welcome to attend.

A Prayer Before Mass by St. Thomas Aquinas

By Kathy Kordsmeier

For those who may not have access to a computer or smart phone, here is the prayer I recommended last week to prepare ourselves to properly receive Jesus in Most Holy Communion. Next week I will publish A Prayer for after Mass.

Almighty and everlasting God, behold I come to the Sacrament of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ: I come as one infirm to the physician of life, as one unclean to the fountain of mercy, as one blind to the light of everlasting brightness, as one poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Therefore, I implore the abundance of Thy measureless bounty that Thou wouldst vouchsafe to heal my infirmity, wash my uncleanness, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty and clothe my nakedness, that I may receive the Bread of angels, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, with such reverence and humility, with such sorrow and devotion, with such purity and faith, with such purpose and intention as may be profitable to my soul's salvation. Grant unto me, I pray, the grace of receiving not only the Sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood, but also the grace and power of the Sacrament. O most gracious God, grant me so to receive the Body of Thine only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, which took from the Virgin Mary, as to merit to be incorporated into His mystical Body, and to be numbered amongst His members. O most loving Father, give me grace to behold forever Thy beloved Son with His face at last unveiled, whom I now purpose to receive under the sacramental veil here below. AMEN.

Sign up for the Best Hour of your Week

The more time you spend in Adoration discovering that God is a God who loves you and wants to spend time with you, the more you want to go. Adoration is addictive, not just because of the things we can gain for ourselves, but because we were created to adore. Adoration is imprinted on our hearts and “our hearts are restless until they find rest in Him”!
