MISSIONS COMMITTEE DEVOTION

As we continue on our journey in 2023 it is important to realize the importance of endurance as it relates to loving our neighbor. There are a multitude of difficult experiences which human beings will face. The challenges to human dignity and the freedom of individuals to flourish in our parish and city are numerous. These experiences can serve as distractions and induce weariness within our lives.

Our commitment to announce powerfully for human beings who exist in the womb, work in our schools, stand on street corners, or raise voices to Christ in corporate worship will be challenged by the weariness. In your weariness remember Christ himself kept his eyes fixed on the glory set before him. He has promised to walk with his brothers and sisters. He speaks in the silence of prayer, in your devotion, and the celebration of the Mass.

Be encouraged. As image bearers of God, we as persons have the capability to speak on behalf of others. We can raise our voices loudly, pen a note, or speak in prayer. In your weariness and it will come, remember Christ who shares in our humanity is present and will aid our quivering voices to speak on behalf of ourselves and our neighbors.

EARLY CHURCH FATHERS' WRITINGS ON THE REAL PRESENCE

By Kathy Kordsmeier

I was recently loaned a book called Behold, It Is I: Scripture, Tradition, and Science on the Real Presence by Stacy Trasancos, PhD, and Father George Elliott. In the Foreword Bishop Joseph E. Strickland of Tyler Texas affirms that this three pronged approach to an examination of the Real Presence encompasses the entirety of our Catholic faith. However, Bishop Strickland continues by cautioning the reader and believer that ultimately the Eucharist remains mystery as it should.

For this reason, we read in the Introduction that the theological virtue of faith is necessary for proving Catholic doctrine including the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Proof must begin with belief (faith) in the teaching and revelation of Jesus Christ on earth. Apologetics is founded on the premise that these teachings are based on reason derived from Divine Revelation and its aim is to disprove the impossibility of the doctrine in question.

For our purposes in this reflection and over the next two or three weeks we will concentrate on the writings of the early Church Fathers which provides further evidence to support the inspired Word of God. All of these men were theologians and later saints who learned directly from the apostles or their disciples. They are considered to be reliable teachers because of their proximity to Jesus in place and time. Of course, we can also trust their writings because we believe the Holy Spirit preserves the teachings of Jesus throughout history.

Next week we will start with the writings of St. Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, who lived in the latter part of the first century, followed by St. Justin Martyr who was born into a pagan family around the year 100 AD. After Justin comes St. Irenaeus of Lyons born in Smyrna (modern day Turkey) around 130 AD. Finally, we will examine the teachings of St. Cyril of Jerusalem who succeeded St. Maximus as bishop of Jerusalem in 350 AD. As we examine the work of each of these Church Fathers we will discover they are all compatible with the Church's teachings on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

St. Pope John Paul II on Adoration

“The worship of the Eucharist outside of the Mass is of inestimable value. Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us.” Ecclesia de Eucharistia, #25

Missions for Transition

Missions for Transition is St. Joe's Outreach program helping formerly homeless individuals and families transition from a homeless shelter into their own home. On their big day, we help them move in and we provide them with furniture and household items purchased from our Flea Market. It is a joyful moment for them, and a blessing for us to be a part of. Currently we are very low on furniture and are asking for donations that are in good shape. The needs include small kitchen tables with chairs, couches, loveseats, side chairs, recliners, coffee tables, end tables, nightstands, chest of draws, lamps, queen and full mattresses with box springs, and bedding for all size beds.

We are happy to meet you if you can deliver any items or if pickup is needed please call 501.358.2139.

Missions for Transition is in need of 5 people to serve as a monthly coordinator for the program.

We would love to have you join our team and experience the blessings of serving others. Please call Theresa Gerard at 501.514.0706 for more details. Thank you and God Bless!
