ST. JUSTIN MARTYR:

AN APOLOGY DEFENDING THE REAL PRESENCE

By Kathy Kordsmeier

Today, we learn about another early Church Father, St. Justin Martyr, a former pagan and convert to Christianity. From our source, Behold, It is I: Scripture, Tradition, and Science on the Real Presence, we come to understand that Justin used what is known as an apology (whence comes apologetics) to defend the early Christians against wrongful allegations concerning the Eucharist. There are four key conclusions contained in two chapters of Justin's First Apology which we will examine.

The first conclusion found in Chapter 65 begins with an account of the Lord's Supper, the early form of the Mass, which describes a liturgy corresponding to what we celebrate today. These parallels confirm the continuity of Catholic teaching and practice from the second century up to the 24th century. In Justin's time as in our time, there was the Sign of Peace, followed by the Presentation and Preparation of the Gifts, the Eucharistic Prayer, the Great Amen, the Communion Rite, and Communion to the Sick.

In Chapter 66 of the First Apology Justin illustrates the second significant point defending the Real Presence in the very first sentence. Here, he confirms that the second century Church taught what we still teach today concerning the guidelines for receiving Communion. He says: "...of which no one is allowed to partake but the man who believes that the things which we teach are true, and who has been washed with the washing that is for the remission of sins..." Thirdly, Justin declares that the Eucharist is the flesh and blood of Christ when he writes: "..., so likewise have we been taught that the food which is blessed by the prayer of His word....is the flesh and blood of that Jesus who was made flesh."

Finally, we read the fourth key conclusion when Justin alludes to the Gospels as memoirs: "... the apostles... have thus delivered unto us what was enjoined upon them; that Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, said, This do in remembrance of Me, this is My body....This is My blood..."

Next week St. Irenaeus of Lyons makes his appearance as a Father of the Church who firmly maintained the truth of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Notice:

The adult choir that sings at the Saturday evening masses two or three times a month is looking for more members. No major musical requirements necessary, just a desire to lift up your voice to worship and sing praise to the Lord! We will have a practice on Thursday, March 9th, 3 pm in the church if you would like to come check us out. "He who sings, prays twice" according to St. Augustine. For further information call Janie at 329-1640.

Watch One Hour with Me?

As Jesus suffered his agony in the garden, he asked his apostles if they could not watch an hour with Him. He asks us the same question: "Do you not have one hour each week to spend exclusively with Me?" Jesus thirsts for us to love Him, adore Him, and just be with Him. Bring the Lord all your joys, worries, and praise.

Receive his loving embrace and comfort in the quiet of the chapel.

View the schedule and sign up at conway.weadorehim.com
You can sign up for any hour that Adoration is open, or sign up to be a substitute. All are welcome!

ATTENTION! PROPER COMMUNION RECEPTION FOR CHILDREN

Some parishioners have witnessed hosts left on the ground after the 10:30am and 12:30 Spanish masses. They appear to have been left on the ground in front of the first row of pews, as if the receiver had held Jesus and then dropped him. Due to this description, staff have been led to believe that children are receiving on the hand and disregarding Jesus in the sacrament shortly after.

We would like to remind children and parents of the real presence of Jesus Christ in the most holy sacrament of Communion. Please refresh children of their First Communion experience, and what it means to receive Jesus during communion. This may be a good time to advise your child to receive on the tongue until they can understand the sacrament in a deeper manner. Please also be watchful as your children receive during mass. Thank you.

Lleva al Señor todas tus alegrías, preocupaciones y alabanzas.

Recibe su amoroso abrazo y consuelo en la quietud de la capilla.

Lent Regulations 2023

FASTING is to be observed on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 22, 2023) and Good Friday (April 7, 2023) by all Catholics over 18 years of age to the beginning of their 60th year. On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together should not equal another full meal, unless dispensed or excused.

ABSTINENCE from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age or older. Ash Wednesday, all of the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. During Lent, we seek the Lord in prayer by reading Sacred Scripture; we serve by giving alms; and we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. We recall the waters of baptism in which we were also baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

Regulaciones para la Cuaresma 2023

El AYUNO debe ser observado el Miércoles de Ceniza (22 de febrero de 2023) y el Viernes Santo (7 de abril de 2023) por todos los católicos mayores de 18 años hasta el comienzo de los 60 años. En los días de ayuno, se permite una comida completa. Se pueden tomar dos comidas más pequeñas, suficientes para mantener la fuerza, de acuerdo con las necesidades de cada uno, pero juntas no deben equivaler a otra comida completa, a menos que se prescinda o se justifique. La ABSTINENCIA de carne debe ser observada por todos los católicos mayores de 14 años. El Miércoles de Ceniza, todos los Viernes de Cuaresma y el Viernes Santo son días de abstinencia.

Durante la Cuaresma, buscamos al Señor en la oración leyendo la Sagrada Escritura; servimos dando limosna; y practicamos el dominio propio a través del ayuno. Estamos llamados no solo a abstenernos de los lujos durante la Cuaresma, sino a una verdadera conversión interior del corazón mientras buscamos seguir la voluntad de Cristo más fielmente. Recordamos las aguas del bautismo en las que también fuimos bautizados en la muerte de Cristo, morimos al pecado y al mal, y comenzamos una nueva vida en Cristo.

Missions for Transition

Missions for Transition is St. Joe's Outreach program helping formerly homeless individuals and families transition from a homeless shelter into their own home. On their big day, we help them move in and we provide them with furniture and household items that are donated and or purchased from our Flea Market. It is a joyful moment for them, and a blessing for us to be a part of. Currently we are very low on furniture and are asking for donations that are in good shape. The needs include small kitchen tables with chairs, couches, loveseats, side chairs, recliners, coffee tables, end tables, nightstands, chest of draws, lamps, queen and full mattresses with box springs, and bedding for all size beds.

We are happy to meet you if you can deliver any items or if pickup is needed please call 501.358.2139.

Missions for Transition is in need of 5 people to serve as a monthly coordinator for the program.

We would love to have you join our team and experience the blessings of serving others. Please call Theresa Gerard at 501.514.0706 for more details. Thank you and God Bless!
