Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time + 30 January 2022

I HAVE KNOWN PRIESTS who present themselves as experts on marriage and others who regard themselves as completely incompetent to address any matters involving husbands and wives. Who am I, they argue, an unmarried, childless man to presume insight regarding marriages and families.

I'd put myself somewhere in a gray middle between those two spots. It would be ridiculous to suggest any expertise or divine knowledge, but I think most pastors know something about human relationships. We don't have direct experience of the intricacies of all potential relationships, their joys and pitfalls, but we have a lived experience of our own relationships, interactions with friends and family, with parishioners. Some insight comes from observation.

This dilemma was apparent in the recent kerfuffle over a statement by Pope Francis in which he derided prospective parents who, he suggested, had chosen pets over children because, to put it most simply, pets are easier. His remarks were a bit more complicated than that, but that's what people heard. None of this sat well with pet owners or parents, or prospective parents, or couples trying desperately to have children and become parents. And others wondered why he'd make such a comparison.

This context is a prelude to my of-

On the first two Sundays of February we will gather items for the Salvation Army. Their greatest need at this time is for non-perishable food items. Bring donations along to Mass or drop them in the Gathering Space during the week. Learn more about this month's beneficiary at centralusa.salvationarmy.org/wausau.

FRESH-BAKED CINNAMON ROLLS WILL BE SOLD NEXT SUNDAY MORNING TO BENEFIT THE SUMMER YOUTH MISSION TRIP. PLAN TO ENJOY SOME GOOD SWEET TREATS.

Glory to God

Mass of the Angels and Saints, Steven Janco

1. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

3. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Psalm 71, "I Will Sing of Your Salvation"

Tony Alonso

Gospel Acclamation

Mass of the Angels and Saints, Steven Janco

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

FEAST DAY EVENING MASS: Wednesday is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord and Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 p.m. as part of Forming Young Disciples. However, everyone is invited to participate in this feast of the young and not so young.

RE-IMAGINING: As the church renovation continues, check stanneswausau.org/re-imagining for new construction photos, as well as the weekly Quick Things email which will include a video update. You can also peek through doors in the Gathering Space to see the progress being made. A complete overview of the project also is provided at the web site.

 Stewardship

IN TODAY'S SECOND READING we find one of the most beautiful and familiar passages in the Bible; a recitation of fifteen characteristics of Christian love often read at weddings. Of course, this was not what Saint Paul had in mind when he was chastising the Christian community at Corinth for its lack of love. He admonished the members of the community to exercise better stewardship of Christian love. The practice of patience, humility, joy, truth, peace, affirmation, and hope are ways good stewards put love into action. Might there be one or two of these attributes we can work on in order to grow in our love for God and others?

Welcoming Our New Neighbors

As the Wausau area continues to welcome Afghan refugee families and individuals the need continues for furniture and household items. New Beginnings is the local clearing house for those donations. A link to what is needed and how to make donations can be found at stanneswausau.org/welcome.

A web site, similar to a wedding gift registry, has been established to identify ways parishioners can assist the Senakai family, which is being sponsored by our parish. This list includes gift cards for various stores, as well as preparing a weekly meal being provided to the family. You can find the registry at the parish web site.

The arrival of more families also increases the need for organizations to sponsor and welcome those refugees, as we have done with the Senakai family. Our core team is discerning how St. Anne might assist in welcoming another family. If you could join that discernment, send an email to frtom@stanneswausau.org.

You can also get more information and hear from parishioners involved in this effort in last week's Quick Things email, which is also available at stanneswausau.org.

fering an encouragement to married couples enduring stress, even trauma, in their relationship; potentially, it might seem, at a breaking point. There is, as you realize all too painfully, no magic formula, no sure-fire resolution of months or years of simmering tension and strife. But there is something called Retrouvaille, which bills itself as “a lifeline for married couples.”

“When the old ways aren’t working,” a promotional brochure states, “the Retrouvaille Program helps couples restore their marriages and rebuild loving relationships.”

Of course that sounds like a promotional brochure. And, again, how credible can I be in making a recommendation. Well, here’s the thing: I am recommending Retrouvaille based upon the positive input of five couples I know. These are couples in which either the husband or wife, or both, approached me out of concern, frustration, anger, fear. They realized that their marriage – the most essential relationship of their life – was on rocky ground at best, and that they needed help.

These couples had the courage to take a leap of faith, to sacrifice the time and personal investment, and to participate in a Retrouvaille weekend program of presentations, guided personal conversations, honest discernment and prayer. They returned to the necessary follow-up sessions because, as indicated at the beginning, there is no quick solution. Most matters of consequence take time.

Each of these couples has shared with me a common judgment: If not for Retrouvaille they would probably no longer be married, or at least it would not be a very happy marriage.

As a spouse in one of those couples observed, “One thing I learned the weekend of Retrouvaille and every day after is that we were one couple of so many who suffered silently in marriage, hoping for a better way to do this, wondering if God had abandoned us. Before the weekend, we were flinging the word ‘divorce’ at each other and it was looking as if that was a real option. On the outside we looked fine, on the inside we were crumbling and numb. ... The Retrouvaille program saved our marriage. The tools we learned during that weekend continue to strengthen our marriage today. The amazing (leaders) had all once been in our shoes and chose to serve as volunteers because they wanted to share the power of Retrouvaille with others. One marriage at a time. Restoring hope.”

AND HERE’S THE REALLY GOOD NEWS: A RETROUVAILLE SESSION WILL BE OFFERED IN CENTRAL WISCONSIN FEB. 18-20.

If anything shared here rings true to you and your marriage, talk with your spouse, go to HelpOurMarriage.org, call 800.877.HOPE for a confidential conversation, talk to me if you think that would be helpful, and, most importantly, I hope, register for this great, blessed opportunity. The registration deadline is Feb. 11.

As the husband in one of the couples I mentioned earlier observed at the prospect of participating in Retrouvaille: “We have so much to lose, I guess we at least have to give it a try.” They rejoice every day that they did. TL
