3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

It was a normal day by all accounts, but John just wasn't feeling himself. He was a little lightheaded and out of sorts. Later in the afternoon, he experienced a sharp pain in his chest and arm. Quick thinking and action brought John to the emergency department with a diagnosis of a significant heart attack. Surviving this ordeal, he found himself face to face with his cardiologist, having an honest conversation about things that needed to change. "I came close to death," John found himself thinking. Then came the remorse. He was a young man with a loving wife and children who were very close to facing life without him. John found himself with intense sorrow for living an unchecked and self-indulgent life that almost brought him to his demise. He wanted to change.

We all have our wake-up calls. We have experiences and encounters that force us to really think twice about choices we have made and directions we have taken. Often, we find ourselves looking at those we have hurt square in the eye and wallowing in our foolishness. We regretfully realize that we have allowed our needs to lure us into making some cruel mistakes. We impulsively say things and flippantly do things that reveal our unredeemed and unhealed self. It is a self we stumble over and try to tame but can't quite seem to master and control. Help!

We spin our wheels, naively thinking that we will somehow, perhaps through persistence, get ourselves unstuck. But, we don't. We just get out of the car, feeling very helpless, and ignorantly look at the mess we got ourselves into. Did we ever think to ask someone for help? Or, taken the advice of One who is wiser and avoid this route altogether? "Come after me," are words that Jesus says to all of us. In order to heed his invitation, we must leave our ego-self behind and follow.

When we really see and understand the freedom, peace, justice, and love he offers, we find ourselves with such sorrow in our hearts for how foolish and silly we have been. All the misguided choices and sinful actions come full view and we see how risky our random impassioned behaviors really have been. Repentance is beautiful. When done with a sincere and contrite heart, it directs us to the glory that can be ours, ignites us with the challenge of living a life in service of others and reminds us that all is well.

Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:20

Greetings from the Pastor

This I came across on one of the pages of The sign of Jonas by Tomas Merton. The book, as a whole, is nothing but chronicles of a monk's daily life and its activities in a monastery, which did not enthrall me, to be frank, but I read it anyway because I happened to buy it, but also because, I like to read anything that comes to my hand. But, this was an exception on one of the pages. I thought you might like it as well.

Lord, I have not lived like a monk, like a contemplative. The first essential is missing. I only say I trust you. My actions say that the one I trust is myself-and that I am still afraid of you.

Take my life into your hands, at last, and do whatever you want with it. I give myself to your love and mean to keep on giving myself to your love-rejecting neither the hard things nor the pleasant things you have arranged for me. It is enough for me that you have glory. Everything you have planned is good. It is all love.

The way you have laid open before me is an easy way, compared with the hard way of my own will which leads back to Egypt, and to bricks without straw.

If you allow people to praise me, I shall not worry. If you let them blame me, I shall worry even less, but be glad. If you send me work I shall embrace it with joy and it will be rest to me, because it is your will. And if you send me rest, I will rest in you. Only save me from myself. Save me from my own private, poisonous urge to change everything, to act without reason, to move for movements sake, to unsettle everything you have ordained.

Let me rest in your will and be silent. Then the light of your joy will warm my life. Its fire will burn in my heart and shine for your glory. This is what I live for. Amen, amen (Pages 78-79).

This prayer shows Merton's ascetical journey with Christ, and getting more like Christ. We who lead a 'worldly' life, a life far from that Merton chose, can still be ascetical and even monastic in our own occupations. Resigning to God's will and walking our daily life in the path of Christ is climbing the ladder, or, ascending to a higher degree of holiness.

With love,
Fr. Mathew

Bible Study – Mary, A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother

The next Bible Study will begin the first week of February. Mary, A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother is a powerful Bible study that reveals Mary's unique role in God's Kingdom and in our lives. You will experience the gospel through the eyes of Mary and get a vivid glimpse into her daily life. Seeing her in this way will lead you to a deeper relationship with the Blessed Mother and her Son, Jesus. The Bible Study is an 8 week course and will end just before Easter. We will observe social distancing and wear masks. There will be two groups, one on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 pm (begins February 2) and the other on Wednesdays at 1:00 pm (begins February 3) and held in the Rectory Meeting Room. Sign-up sheets are at the exits of church. Call Deacon Jerry at 636-208-5617 if you have any questions.

Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary is looking for additional members. The works of the Legion can be divided into three categories:

- ◆ 1) Conversion (Non-Catholic, Non-Christian)
- ◆ 2) Consolidation (Lapsed Catholics)
- ◆ 3) Consolation (the old, the sick & lonely)

We meet on Tuesday after 8:00 am Mass & Perpetual Help Devotions. Duties involve 2 hours of active work, active work includes visiting the shut-ins and taking Holy Communion to the home-bound. Soon, we hope to be able to go back to our nursing homes, and when that opens up we will need additional help.

We hope to start more Rosary groups in the nursing homes.

Come join us and see if this is something you should like to do for the Blessed Mother Mary and her son Jesus Christ. We are calling you and we need you and Mary needs you.

Come Tuesday or call President Denise Roussin at 636-937-0165 or contact a member.

Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed — to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God.

I know, I know. Easier said than done.

Just ask Zebedee. It's quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. "So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him."

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers — they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man.

I don't know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn't be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn't belong to him — not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine.

Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: "Give until it hurts."

"You're wasting my time." "I've done so much for her; she owes me this." How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Rosary Services

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Repentance

The message we hear from the Gospel reading today is one that we must hear again and again: repent and believe the good news. This is the constant task of the faithful Christian, to seek to grow in virtue and root out sinfulness. The authentic witness of a disciple who has truly repented of his sins can work wonders in the cause of evangelization. We love conversion stories of the saints and people we know in our own lives today. One who has repented and has chosen to live for Christ alone provides an extraordinary example for us who want to be better evangelists.
