

2nd Sunday of Lent

A pregnant woman was walking in the store and met an old friend. Her friend exclaimed, "You are absolutely beaming!" The new life God placed in her womb radiated throughout her body. It was brightly visible on her face and in her eyes. Transformation and change usually happen from the inside out. It is very rare that simply imposing structure from the outside does any good. Yes, it is true that routines and habits can change when things are done differently. But, for this change to last there has to be an interior renewal and metamorphosis as well. Simply regulating behavior and bringing someone into conformity with accepted protocols doesn't mean their heart and soul come with them.

Peter was a homeless man who lived in a very remote and rudimentary tent community. He was happy to make his daily trip to McDonald's and always welcomed a gift card or two so that he could buy some coffee and something to eat. A generous advocate worked to secure him an apartment in hopes of moving Peter out of his makeshift housing and into something safer. Peter finally got the grand tour of his new "digs," received his own key, remarked how wonderful the place was, closed the door behind him when they left and never returned. He preferred his tent. No matter how much things changed on the outside, Peter was happy where he was. A poignant lesson was learned that day.

How is your Lent going? By now you ought to have a sense of whether you're really "into it" this year and something transformational is happening. For many, it's only the stuff on the outside that changes for a few weeks and then they return to business as usual. For others, there are some real inner changes happening that are deepening their relationships with God, others, self, and creation. If we are serious about moving to a new place and radiating with the presence of new life and joy, then we have to clear the way to listen for God's call. Then, there is God's request to change things up a bit and order our lives differently. After realizing we have been called and given a mission, we have to trust that this is where we need to be. And then, after all of this hard work we are asked to act. The fruit that is revealed will indicate whether our journey is authentic. The brilliance of conversion will begin to shine on our faces as we contemplate the One to whom we are asked to listen.

Greetings from the Pastor

“Father forgive them; they know not what they do” (Mt.23:34)

Forgiveness, I think, is the weapon of the strong. The brutality men of His time inflicted on him from the moment of His arrest in the Garden of Gethsemane to the last breath on the cross, does not, in human terms, deserve to be forgiven. But the horrifying, but redemptive Passion and Death of the Lord on the cross tell us that humanity has hope because there is forgiveness. This season invites us to become ‘god’ by forgiving someone. Your face becomes the Lord’s.

An Australian missionary – Graham Stein – who was working among the lepers of North India, was burnt to death along with his two sons in his wagon as they were sleeping in it by a politically instigated radical Hindu mob accusing him of converting locals to Christianity. Actually, he was only serving the needs of a group of people the political parties ignored. Gladys Staines, his widow, pardoned the criminals who murdered her loving husband and beloved sons cold-bloodedly, in a foreign land. She continued his work after his murder and was awarded a Padma Sri, a major national honor, by the government. She has the face of God. The voice of the Lord from the cross echoed through Mrs. Staines.

Sister Rani Maria, a missionary nun from Kerala –my home state – was serving among the exploited masses, again, in North India, teaching and enabling them to stand up for their rights. She was stabbed repeatedly 54 times as she was riding on a bus by Samundhar Singh, a youth of 28, paid by the local landlords who took revenge on the nun for educating the locals, in 1995. On the eighth death anniversary, 25 February 2003, her mother Eliswa visited the prison and kissed the hands of her daughter’s assassin. No gesture of forgiveness could have been more eloquent. Samundhar Singh, after serving his term, journeyed to Kerala, the homeland of the nun he brutally murdered. Falling at the feet of the aged parents of the nun, he begged pardon. The parents welcomed him as their own son. Don’t their faces resemble that of the Lord? Sr. Rani Maria was beatified on 4 November 2017.

Harken to the pleading of the Lord on the cross. Forgive someone who betrayed you, son/daughter who is against you, spouse who cheated on you, a priest who hurt you ... not seven times but seventy-seven times, countless times; do not count how many times you forgave. Lent is a season to resemble Jesus, to become ‘god’. Make forgiveness your culture. After all, we are taught by the Son of Man never to hate and never to fear.

With love,

Fr. Mathew

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR LENT 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus revealed to his disciples the deepest meaning of his mission when he told them of his passion, death and resurrection, in fulfilment of the Father’s will. He then called the disciples to share in this mission for the salvation of the world.

In our Lenten journey towards Easter, let us remember the One who “humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross” (Phil 2:8). During this season of conversion, let us renew our faith, draw from the “living water” of hope, and receive with open hearts the love of God, who makes us brothers and sisters in Christ. At the Easter vigil, we will renew our baptismal promises and experience rebirth as new men and women by the working of the Holy Spirit. This Lenten journey, like the entire pilgrimage of the Christian life, is even now illumined by the light of the resurrection, which inspires the thoughts, attitudes and decisions of the followers of Christ.

Fasting, prayer and almsgiving, as preached by Jesus (cf. Mt 6:1-18), enable and express our conversion. The path of poverty and self-denial (fasting), concern and loving care for the poor (almsgiving), and childlike dialogue with the Father (prayer) make it possible for us to live lives of sincere faith, living hope and effective charity.

2nd Sunday of Lent

"Here I am!" he answered. - Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, "Here I am, Lord," when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say "Here I am, Lord," when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it's not convenient for us. Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

Join us for Stations of the Cross
 During Lent

On Wednesday evenings during Lent at 6:45pm we will pray the Stations of the Cross in church. PSR will be joining us each night for this prayer. Please note that they will be on Wednesday instead of Friday and at 6:45pm instead of 7:00pm. The first one will be on Wednesday, February 24th. Please take a little time on these days to pray with the parish community this Lenten devotion.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! - Amazing Love

The readings today are so powerful and show the amazing love that God has for His Son Jesus as well as His people. God often tests our love to see if it is true and genuine. He tested Abraham in an extraordinarily startling manner, and He tests us in our lives to help us assess if we are truly loving Him with all that we are. God chastises those whom he loves and purifies us so that we are able to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. In our work of evangelization, we should constantly pray for the grace to love God and others radically as the saints have.

My husband and I have attended 9:00am Mass at Sacred Heart several times in the past few weeks.

Due to COVID concerns we have also been watching Mass on TV because our parish does not practice social distancing or mask requirements.

I want to compliment Sacred Heart Parish for the measures they take to safeguard against COVID. The spacing, the mask requirements and the hand sanitizing.

Sincerely

Why Use Incense?

Question:

Why do we use incense at Mass?

Answer:

The use of incense in religious ceremonies and worship is a practice that predates Christianity, and which is also found in many other religious traditions today.

Incense, which is made from resin infused with aromatic spices and oils, is one of those fundamentally human symbols that incorporates more than one of our senses, helping us to reflect on realities that transcend the everyday details of our lives.

The use of incense in the Church's liturgy — in the Mass, as well as in devotions to the Eucharist and the Liturgy of the Hours — is inspired by the use of incense in the Jewish tradition. In the writings of the Old Testament, we hear about incense being used in the worship of the temple, and Psalm 141 asks, "Let my prayer be incense before you; my uplifted hands an evening offering" (vs. 2). The image here is that, as the incense gently rises to heaven, our prayers also rise to God as something sweet and pleasant.

Another ancient use of incense that has also become part of our Catholic tradition is the idea that when we incense something, it's because it is something special or sacred. This is why the Book of the Gospel is incensed during the Liturgy of the Word and the bread, wine, priest celebrant, and congregation are incensed at the presentation of the gifts. To this, we can also add the incensing of the Blessed Sacrament during Eucharistic adoration and benediction, and the body of the deceased at the end of the Mass of the Resurrection (the Funeral Mass).

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When Sacrifice Becomes Mundane

It seems to happen every year, like clockwork: we drag a bit, as we enter into the second week of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, we feel a bit like soldiers banging our shields, rushing into battle. "We're ready, God!" our hearts cry out. "Transform us through sacrifice! Your will be done!"

But by now, these Lenten resolutions are no longer novelties — they've joined the ranks of everyday inconveniences, which somehow are the hardest to bear. Because transformation, in real life, happens in inches, just as a battle is won slowly in the crash of one sword against another. It's not always a dramatic thing, to the naked eye. It's the perseverance in prayer despite weariness, or the continual denial of some pleasure even though there's that nagging voice in our minds saying: go ahead, God doesn't really mind.

It's a week when we all need a shock to the system — and wouldn't you know it, this Sunday God gives us a double-whammy of dramatic sacrificial scenes. We picture Abraham, who also cried "Ready!" when God called, never imagining what He would ask: the surrender of his long-awaited son. We see Christ himself transfigured, as God shows us what He is ready to give up for love of us.

We must remain committed, persevering daily in acknowledging that everything belongs to God. What we sacrifice, we simply give back to Him.

If God is for us, who can be against us? Can we still reply, "Ready!" when we hear the call of God?
