

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A favorite motto of St. Teresa of Calcutta was, "do small things with great love." This is how it works in the kingdom of God. God can do tremendous things with the smallest gesture, especially when it is done in love. We can clearly see that our world is suffering greatly. People are struggling to find peace, navigate through conflicts, earn a sustainable living, find security and enough food to eat, and work through political tensions and conflicts. In the light of the magnitude of the difficulties that exist around us and even within us, we can find ourselves floundering to discover practical, effective solutions. How can something so large be helped by someone as small and seemingly insignificant as me? While whole systems and structures may be out of the league of our personal influence, are we really that helpless in the midst of all of the turmoil, sadness, and suffering?

If we believe that God is with us and that God is still working to bring about the glory of God's kingdom, then the answer is no. We are never helpless or without hope. Armed with a strong life of prayer, we can always flee to God and ask for inspiration, wisdom, and especially love. We are all blessed with unique gifts and talents and it often seems that considering all that the world lacks, love and charity remain at the top of the list. Life can easily become a battleground of hostility. Because life is challenging and difficult, anger is not far away. We see it on people's faces and hear it in their voices. There is a measure of frustration that permeates all avenues of life. It is even felt in the air.

As people of faith, we know that what we see here is not the end but only a part of something far greater to come. We know that God's kingdom is where we are ultimately meant to be, and the Gospel is the way to get there. If love and charity can prevail in us, then God will be able to do what God does best. God will use us to scatter the seeds of his kingdom. Through our small gestures, those seeds can receive the nurturing attention that is necessary for them to bear great fruit. We cannot fall victim to the strife that is around us. We have to keep ourselves refreshed and focused so that even in small ways, we can become part of the solution, not the problem. Love and charity, which come from God, can help to heal the ills of the world. May we bring these simple gifts to the everyday simple tasks of our lives! Watch how big the plant grows!

Greetings from the Pastor

Julia drove to Crystal City from Atlanta to help her sister whose husband is dying of lung cancer. Julia is making many prayers not so much for his healing but for his last minutes conversion. She believes that he is a Catholic, but never practiced his faith. Her hope is that, at least at this hour, when death is looming over him, he might think of dying fortified with the Sacraments. May her prayers come true.

We see many people praying for the conversion of their children, spouses, friends ... they are not bad people; just the opposite, but not affiliated to any organized faith. People who are practicing a faith would like to see others also doing the same. That is why they pray without ceasing, as does St. Paul say. There are two things to be remembered here. Not following an organized religion or faith, in my personal opinion, is not a matter of worry. God's ways are not our ways; God's thoughts are not our thoughts. God is bigger than we can imagine. The Lord spoke through the prophet: "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts (Isaiah 59:9). Who knows the mind of the Lord; who can comprehend His thoughts? We often project our thought on to the Lord; we confine God to our limited human mindset.

Jesus said, "But a time is coming, and even now has arrived, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth" (John 4:23-24). The people who do not go with you to Church, or who do not practice a set form of faith, or do not show affinity to any religion on a regular basis, might be better people than some of us who claim to be religious. Who knows, they might be truer worshipers of the Father in Spirit and in truth. Leave that to God. Let Him take care of that.

To be followers of Jesus is another thing. Jesus said, "No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him" (John 6:44). People who do not follow an organized religion or faith, in my understanding, are people whom the Father hasn't yet drawn, or are people who haven't yet received the gift of FAITH. Faith is a gift, and not all receive a gift. Gift is simply given as and when the giver is pleased to give. All what you can do is to ask for the gift. So the Lord said, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). Julia is asking, she is seeking, and she is knocking on the door of the chapel of perpetual adoration, like St. Monica, the mother of St. Augustine, her reckless son, so that the dying man will find his way home strengthened with the gift of faith.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

With love,
Fr. Mathew

Church Collections

Question:

Where does the money go that is collected each week at Church?

Answer:

This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs.

Congratulations to our newly baptized!

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil." - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how." Mark 4:26–27

What a beautiful image of the sprouting, growing and coming to fruition of the Kingdom of God in our midst!

Lord, help my heart to be fertile soil for Your Kingdom. Help me to allow You to grow Your Kingdom in my heart and help me to be an instrument of that Kingdom in our world. Jesus, I trust in You.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – The Mustard Seed

The smallest seed becomes one of the biggest plants that many creatures can dwell in. So how does that relate to me? We all have received many gifts from God. All these gifts are critical in God's salvation plan. No gift is too small or insignificant! With God's grace, even the smallest of our gifts just may be the answer to someone's prayer. The seed also relates to our daily life because a seed must break or die before it can develop into a mature plant. The same is true for our life. We must renounce our sins before we can mature as disciples of Jesus. And, as the mustard seed plant became a home for many creatures, as we grow in our discipleship, we help others find their true home as disciples.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

St. Anthony Can Find Anything — Even You

“Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found.”

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anth— okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. “That's what you're looking for,” he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.

WE JUDGE
ALL THINGS
ACCORDING
DIVINE TRUTH.
