Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord

Many of the incidents which accompanied Christ's baptism are symbolical of what happened at our Baptism. At Christ's baptism the Holy Spirit descended upon Him; at our Baptism the Trinity took its abode in our soul. At His baptism Christ was proclaimed the "Beloved Son" of the Father; at our Baptism we become the adopted sons of God. At Christ's baptism the heavens were opened; at our Baptism heaven was opened to us. At His baptism Jesus prayed; after our Baptism we must pray to avoid actual sin. The Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord ends the season of Christmas.

— Excerpted from
Msgr. Rudolph G. Bandas

For Reflection:

- This week take some time to reflect on your own baptism and what it means to you?
- Invite your child's godparents to stop by for a visit; take out your child's baptismal gown, candle and pictures and share the stories of their baptism.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Elizabeth Ann Bayley was born in 1774, and grew up in the upper class of New York society. She was an avid reader, and developed a love of the Bible and Scripture—there she found support and comfort.

In 1794, Elizabeth married William Seton; she was deeply in love with this wealthy young man. Their early years of marriage were prosperous and happy.

Then William's father died, leaving the couple in charge of not only the family's import business, but also William's 7 half brothers and sisters! William's health and business failed—he filed for bankruptcy. They then set out for Italy to try and save William's health. In Italy, William died of tuberculosis. Elizabeth's consolation was that before he passed, he had awakened to God.

The losses in her life drew Elizabeth closer to God, and she accepted and embraced His will. She captivated others with her patience, good sense, kindness, courtesy, and wit.

The Catholic faith became of interest to her. Catholic instruction was provided by her Italian friends. In 1805, she joined the Catholic Church officially. Since her own mother died when she was young, she was comforted in the idea that the Blessed Virgin was truly a mother to the Church.

Elizabeth and a few friends planned for a Sisterhood. She took her vows in 1809, and was called Mother Seton.

The sisters established the first free Catholic school in America in Baltimore. By 1818, the sisters also established 2 orphanages and a second school. She died in 1821 at age 46.

She was the first native born American to be canonized by the Catholic Church. She is the patron saint of in-law problems, widows, death of parents and children, and opposition of Church authorities. Elizabeth's Feast Day is January 4.

Greenleaf Church Cleaners Needed

Some of our church cleaners at Greenleaf have had to discontinue their valuable ministry. We are in need of a couple of people to take their place. Can you spare an hour or two of time every other month?

Several families spend time together in this important ministry. Maybe a group of friends or your Disciple Formation House could work together to help out. Please consider it. To learn more, contact the Parish Office.
