ADVENT IN THE HOME

The prayer below goes with the lighting of three candles on your home Advent wreath: two purple candles and the pink one. The prayer takes just a minute, but it helps us stay focused on this season of preparation and hopeful waiting.

The first two purple candles and the pink one are lit and we pray: O God, as we light these candles, we pray that the joy which filled the Virgin Mary at the coming birth of Jesus, would fill our hearts and minds as well. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

In next week's bulletin, there will be a different prayer for lighting the Advent candles.

Baptism

Please welcome in faith and prayer the newest member of our Catholic family:

Christmas Flower Memorials

Are you looking for a special way to remember departed loved ones this Christmas season? Consider donating in their name toward the beautiful poinsettias that grace our churches every year. Their names will be printed in the Christmas Eve/Day bulletin insert.

The donation deadline is December 18. There are four ways to make a donation in memory of a loved one:

- ◆ Place your donation in an envelope labeled "Christmas Flowers and Decorations" along with your name and the name of the person(s) you're remembering. Place the envelope in the collection basket.
- ◆ Your envelope packet includes a green envelope for this donation: place it in the collection basket, as usual.
- ◆ Donate online to the "Flowers" fund. This can be done either through stclareagw.org or our school website: stclarek8.org.
- ◆ Visit the Parish Office and make your donation in person.

If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office:

Which saint should people invoke for your vocation?

St. Thérèse of Lisieux. I recently read "Story of a Soul" and found her words and experiences nourishing for my spiritual life.

Coffee or tea?

Coffee. I prefer its taste and enjoy the many different kinds of drinks that can be made with it.

If Jesus drove a vehicle during his public ministry, what would it be?

In his ministry, Jesus was poor and humble yet traveled with his disciples to society's margins. I think his car would reflect that: used, reliable, able to carry passengers, and handle rough terrain. While I am hesitant to name a specific car, this might describe a black 2012 Toyota Rav4.

What is your ideal way to spend the Lord's Day?

I would start my day by sleeping in a little later than usual followed by praying a Holy Hour and attending Mass. Then, I would take my time drinking coffee and preparing a large brunch for my friends or family. The rest of the day would be spent in solitude outside, such as fly fishing for trout or hiking.

If you could celebrate Mass anywhere in the world, where would you and why?

I would celebrate Mass in the Sistine Chapel. During my first year of theology studies, I was privileged to be able to travel to Rome with other theologians at St. Francis de Sales Seminary and visit the Sistine Chapel after hours. The beauty of the chapel's paintings and architectural design were amplified by the silence and our ability to slow down to pray with its artwork. If I could celebrate Mass anywhere, I would do so in that beautiful, historic chapel.

What spiritual book or author has most influenced your journey of discipleship?

I have read "Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska: Divine Mercy in My Soul," on and off many times throughout my journey of discipleship from high school to this present moment. As I reflect back on my spiritual life, I can see how St. Faustina's description of her relationship with Jesus has shaped my understanding of prayer as being a conversation. In her diary, St. Faustina records many conversations she has with Jesus.

Many of these include regular visions of Jesus and audible words of his. Other times, she describes hearing Christ as a voice in her soul. For her, prayer was a conversation in which she shared all of her thoughts, feelings, and desires with her spouse, Jesus, and he spoke back. While I am in no way comparing my spiritual life to that of a saint, her writings did inform my own way of praying in a way that is more conversational and honest with Jesus.

How is the Eucharist meant to foster unity in the Church?

Have you ever heard the phrase, "You become what you eat?" Usually someone says this in reference to one's diet: if I eat food that is good for me, filled with vitamins, minerals, and proteins, my body will become strong and healthy; if I eat food filled with sugar, fats, and salt, my body will become unhealthy and weak. We are formed by what we eat. Just as our bodies are formed by the physical food we eat, so too, our souls are conformed to the spiritual food we eat. The Eucharist is the spiritual food by which each of us is united to Jesus Christ and conformed to his heart. Jesus offers himself as food so that we can become like him.

In each and every Mass, Catholics consume the same body and blood of Jesus Christ. We are not just unified by the fact that we partake in the same external ritual. Rather, we are united because each of us are becoming more closely conformed to Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, through our reception of the Eucharist. The Eucharist unifies the Church because by partaking in the Lord's Supper, we become what we eat.
