3rd SUNDAY OF LENT

"If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

- Jn 4:10

*Are you thirsting and hungry?
Nothing of this world fills us up -
Jesus is the 'living water' of Life!*

Pope Francis' Reflections for Lent – Part 1

Lent is meant to be a path of purification of body and soul. But too often, in the frenzy of modern life, distracted by problems and headaches, we can forget the true spirit of this period - which reminds us of an important moment in the life of Jesus, or the forty days spent in the desert before beginning his preaching.

A few years ago, Pope Francis, in one of his speeches, listed a number of valuable tips for undergoing Lent, which remain valid and relevant today, and forever. 10 pearls of wisdom and love to keep in mind, at this time more than ever. We want to remember them along with you:

Get rid of bad lazy habits

“Lent is a “powerful” season, a turning point that can strengthen change and conversion in all of us. It can change us for the better. It helps us to leave behind the bad habits that create dependency on evil.”

Do something that causes suffering

“Lent is an excellent time for self-denial: we have to understand what is better to give up, to enrich ourselves and enrich others with our poverty. Do not forget that real poverty hurts. No self-denial is true if devoid of pain. I do not believe in charity that costs nothing and it does not hurt.”

Do not remain indifferent

“Indifference towards others and towards God is a strong temptation for us Christians. Every year, during Lent, we once again hear the words of the prophets, who cry out to our conscience and challenge us. God is not indifferent to this world. He loves us and sent us his son for our salvation.”

Pray and say, “Make our hearts like Yours!”

“During Lent, we must ask the Lord: “Make our hearts like yours”. In this way we get a firm and a compassionate heart, caring and generous, open, not indifferent, and not the prey of the globalisation of indifference “.

Take part in sacraments

“Lent serves to receive the sacraments of Christ. Each time, we have to hear the word of the Lord and receive His blessings. We must dedicate ourselves, especially, to the Eucharist. Then we will become what we receive: the body of Christ.”

PRAYER & WORSHIP

The Samaritan woman said to him, “How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?” Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.”

FAITH

Aren't the readings this week about the journey of faith? The Israelites in the desert, with some stubbornness, come to trust in the God who really is with them and saves them. How is your faith? Contact Deacon Gill deaconGill@sbcglobal.net
