25th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday’s Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. “How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty.” This parable isn’t advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers overcharged and skimmed off the top. Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

“The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones.” This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we’re responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? “No servant can serve two masters.” These week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?
LIVING LIVES OF MERCY

St. Michael’s 36th Annual Fall Bazaar
Planning for St. Michael’s annual fall bazaar is underway! The bazaar will be held Saturday, November 2nd from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. We will be serving hot turkey and beef sandwiches, pea soup, and chicken booyah. And don’t forget to finish off your meal with a slice of homemade pie! We will also have baked goods, Charlie’s Corner, Christmas items and the quilt/craft area.

Please start collecting items for Charlie’s Corner and Christmas items as well. (These items should be gently used and in good condition! No clothing or shoes, please!) We are also looking for handmade quilts, blankets and crafts. Crafts can be anything from homemade hats, mittens, and scarves, to soap, candles or whatever you may have a talent for and would like to donate.

Please watch the bulletin in upcoming weeks for more suggestions on how to support this event. Each year, the bazaar provides funds to help pay for liturgical supplies and to contribute to a number of charities.

The second collection this weekend at St. Michael is for our building & repair fund. We appreciate your continued support to help update and maintain our buildings. This past week we installed a new sound system at church as well as upgrades to the sound system at the chapel. Thank you!

St. John Annual Meeting and Trustee Election
St. John’s annual meeting will be held on Sunday, Oct. 6th and will include the election of trustees. Please plan on attending to make your vote count.

Hurricane Dorian Relief
Bishop Ricken has requested that a second collection be taken to support our brothers and sisters in the Bahamas. The funds collected will be used to assist Archbishop Patrick Pinder and the Archdiocese of Nassau to provide hurricane relief. Some of their churches are being used to house the homeless. With your generous donations, Archbishop Pinder will be better able to respond to the needs of the victims. This collection will take place the weekend of September 28/29. We thank you for your generosity and ask that you keep those devastated by the hurricane in your prayers.
