St. Peter the Apostle parishioners for supporting the St. Vincent de Paul Angel Tree in December. Thanks to your generosity 41 families received Kroger gift cards and 100 children received Walmart gift cards. You have also helped assist many people over the year with utilities, rent, etc. To help us continue our mission of serving God's people, your continued support is greatly needed and appreciated.

PARISH NEWS

Please remember in your prayers Theresa Maynard & Delores Hauck who recently passed away. May God grant peace and consolation to their families and friends. May they and all who sleep in Christ find light, happiness and peace.

Congratulations to David and Jeanette Collins Celebrating 50 years of marriage!

"Dear St. Peter the Apostle parishioners,

Leslie and I want to thank you for your expressions of sympathy and generosity during the recent loss of my mother. The "Amazing Grace" throw rug that St. Peter and staff sent was truly awe inspiring! The visitation, cards and letters of many of St. Peter's parishioners to the funeral home during visitation was very touching and comforting to Leslie and I during this difficult time. It was great to see Fr. Chris and several members of the St. Peter staff at the funeral home during visitation. Thank you all for your generosity and concern!

May God bless you all,
Deacon Chris and Leslie Herbert"

St. Rita Catholic Church Casper Center
Presenter: Eva Gonzalez

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Martin Luther King talked a lot about racial equality. What about equality in Marriage? Are both of you equally good at cooking, mechanical things, sewing, small talk? Probably not. Even though your spouse may have a natural talent for a particular task, try trading chores for a day, just for fun.

PARENTING POINTERS

If you are blessed to have children, no matter how aggravating they may be at times, remember those who have lost a child through miscarriage or abortion. Pray for couples trying to conceive. Fertility is a daunting responsibility. If you know someone who has had an abortion, do they know about Project Rachel?

MATRIMONIO MOMENTOS

Martin Luther King habló mucho sobre la igualdad racial. ¿Y la igualdad en el matrimonio? ¿Comparten ustedes dos las mismas capacidades—la cocina, lo mecánico, la costura, la charla fácil? No es probable. Puede que tu cónyuge tenga una habilidad especial para realizar alguna tarea en particular, pero para variar intercambien los quehaceres por un día no más.

CONSEJOS PARA PADRES

Tener hijos es una bendición de Dios. Cuando fastidian los niños, recuerda a los que han perdido un hijo por el aborto espontáneo o la terminación médica del embarazo. Reza por las parejas que buscan la manera de concebir. La fertilidad es una responsabilidad intimidante. Si conoces a alguna mujer que haya terminado su embarazo, pregúntale si ha sabido del Proyecto Raquel

IT TAKES ALL KINDS

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR THE DEAD THROUGHOUT THE YEAR?

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!
