THE HOLY FAMILY

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. - Lk 2:46-47

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

A blessed Christmas to you. Christmas is not just one day, but it is a liturgical season which ends on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord on Sunday, January 9th. Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. This makes good sense since gathering with family is a big part of the Christmas season. We rejoice that Jesus came to earth through a family. He could have just appeared on earth as an adult one day, but

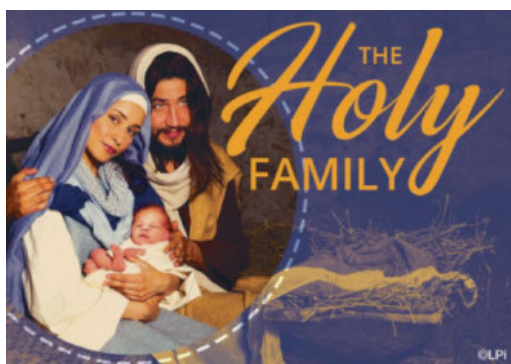

He came as an infant and grew into maturity under the guidance of Mary and Joseph. Let us ask the Holy Family to lead and guide our families.

This Saturday, January 1st, is the solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. This celebration in honor of Mary is one of the earliest feasts of Our Lady. Since it falls on a Saturday, there will be no obligation to attend Mass. Being also a national holiday, Mass on January 1st will be at 9 AM. No Confessions on January 1st, and no 4:30 PM Mass. January 2nd will be observed as the Epiphany of the Lord with the usual Masses at 7:30 AM, 9 AM, 11 AM, and 5 PM.

Enjoy today's celebration of the Holy Family, and have a blessed start to 2022.

Merry Christmas,

Very Rev. Edwin Kornath

The 4:30 PM Saturday Vigil Mass is livestreamed. (Go to www.stjohnv.org, then click Watch Virtual Mass to get to our YouTube page.) Since there is no 4:30 PM Mass on January 1, 2022, there will not a livestream that weekend.

WHAT'S THIS?

December 26 –The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

The Feast of the Holy Family is not just about THE Holy Family but also about our own families as we listen to the calling of our God and respond in obedience and acceptance. As examples, Mary received her invitation to be the mother of Jesus (Luke 1); Joseph was awakened in a dream which encouraged him to take Mary into his home (Matt 1); they both responded to God's calling to take the baby Jesus to Egypt and not return to Nazareth until the danger had passed (Matt 2); and were overwhelmed with parental concern when the child was unable to be found while returning home after making the annual visit to Jerusalem for Passover (Luke 3).

What distress, anguish? "Where is our son?" This goes on for three days! It might be suggested that as a young boy of twelve, Jesus was "listening to a different drummer" when he stayed behind in Jerusalem and taught in the temple. However, to the dismay and joy of his parents, when found the boy responds: "Why were you concerned? Did you not know that I had to be in my Father's house?" An expected response might have been something like: "We'll talk about this when we get back to Nazareth, but for now, young man, you are grounded!"

Not much else is known about the Holy Family. They returned to Nazareth where the Gospel (Luke 3) tells us Jesus became "obedient to his parents and advanced in wisdom and age, and in favor before God". Apparently, he took up the trade of a carpenter, like his father; lived his Jewish faith; experienced Joseph's death and lived with his mother until his thirtieth year at which time he set about on his ministry.

So, what about us today? This Feast presents the Holy Family as a model for all Christian families and for domestic life in general. Families today come in a wide variety—traditional, blended, single-parent, dysfunctional, but all families become sanctified when we live the life of the Church within our homes. Where can we begin? Colossians 3: 12-14 provides some direction: "Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience; bearing with one another and forgiving one another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put-on love, that is, the bond of perfection."

Love for God is the cornerstone of the Holy Family. Out of love also came the virtues of obedience and acceptance to God's call. Psalm 95 reminds us: "If today you hear His voice, harden not your heart!" Let all families, regardless of type, model the Holy Family as we pray together, honor each other, accept each other, be present to others in our communications and remain faithful to our vocation as family.

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

There are Feast Days for each member of the Holy Family, but this particular Feast which always occurs between Christmas and the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, celebrates the entire family—Jesus, our Blessed Mother Mary, and Jesus' Stepfather Joseph. Scripture does not tell us much about the Holy Family during Jesus' growth years, but we view them on this day as a religious family worthy of emulation. In this era and society when questions arise as to exactly what a family is or should be, the Holy Family stands out as a model. The Church celebrates this day in the hope that it might instill in our own Catholic and Christian families some of the faithful love and attachment which seem to characterize the Holy Family.

As might be expected, each of the readings on this Holy Day refers to and emphasizes family life. The Book of Sirach was written, according to most scholars, by Jeshua ben Eleazar ben Sira about 175 years before the birth of Christ. Each chapter of the book follows a particular theme, and Chapter Three, from which we have our First Reading follows a great theme of Proverbs: honor thy father and mother. Sirach speaks of the responsibilities of all members of a family to others in the family. At the foundation of a successful family is a trait which we also extol in lives of stewardship—humility. When dealing with others in our family, the importance of being humble and respectful and loving cannot be emphasized enough. We also need to be conscious of the fact that when we speak of "family," we are not just talking about a family unit, but that greater family to which we all belong—the family of God, our faith family.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Colossians, our Second Reading, builds on the theme of humility and goes even further in describing the attributes that are important to be a member of a family. His introduction includes all that each of us must strive to do, the way we need to act, think, and behave. He tells us that we need to show "heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience." These are not easy, but they are also the elements to being good Christians and stewards. Furthermore, according to St. Paul, we need to forgive one another, and "over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection." If that was not enough for us, he adds that we need to let "the peace of Christ control your hearts."

Paul more or less wraps up his advice and counsel by saying, "And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus." For a family, any family, whether our blood intimate family or our larger faith community to be completely like the Holy Family, we must have Christ at the center. Living a God-centered life will lead us to stewardship and to a happy and thriving family.
