PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear friends,

From time to time, I find a prayer worth sharing, either from a Catholic magazine or given to me by a parishioner. Here is a prayer from St. Bernardine of Siena, a Franciscan priest who died in 1414. St. Bernardine was the great preacher of the Holy Name of Jesus. This prayer is from the January issue of Living With Christ.

Jesus, Name full of glory, grace, love, and strength! You are the refuge of those who repent, our banner of warfare in this life, the medicine of souls, the comfort of those who mourn, the delight of those who believe, the healing of the sick. To you our devotion aspires; by you our prayers are received. O Name of Jesus, you are the glory of all the saints for eternity. Amen.

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. The Name of Jesus is powerful. Let's call upon His Name in temptations, struggles, illnesses and anxieties.

In the Name of Jesus,

Very Rev. Edwin Kornath

COINS FOR BABIES BOTTLE COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND!

The bottles are out, and we will be collecting them with your donations this weekend. Please return your bottle. We will have people collecting in the Narthex before Masses. Thank you for your generous support to each of these agencies:

- The Women's Support Center
- Life's Connection
- Women's Care Center
- Milwaukee Birthright

These agencies help save lives every day by helping mothers, fathers and their innocent unborn babies survive our culture of death. Through their efforts mothers and fathers struggling with a difficult pregnancy can receive guidance and financial help, along with ongoing support after the baby is born. These efforts allow the parents the freedom to choose life for their baby. If you did not receive a bottle, we will be happy to take your donations; checks should be made payable to St. John Vianney Parish.

We thank you for your generosity.

FATHER ED "PHISHING" SCAM

SJV parishioners have been receiving emails from individual(s) using a fake email account(s) to impersonate Father Ed Kornath asking to send him gift cards personally for pastoral activities. This type of fraudulent activity—called "phishing"—is affecting other parishes across the Archdiocese of Milwaukee as well. If you receive this type of email, please check the sender's email address—Father Ed only uses "edwink@stjohnv.org"—other variations are likely fraudulent. Do not follow any of the instructions in these suspicious emails and delete the message immediately. Thank you for your attention and due diligence on this important matter. Contact the Parish Office if you have any questions.

In your charity and prayers, please remember the souls of those who have died recently and their families.

JOIN THE HANDBELL CHOIR

One of our long-time Handbell Choir members is retiring, and we are seeking a replacement. While being able to read music would be very helpful, it is not required, and we can help train any newcomer! Practices span 6:30-8:30 PM in the church on Wednesdays.

Playing in the Bell Choir is a deeply social activity, involving coordinated timing and counting of your bell-ringing with that of others around you to make incredible music together. Our Schulmerich handbells allow for many interesting techniques which are used in different pieces; on occasion, even mallets are involved!

We're also always seeking to expand our pool of substitutes and are willing to train anyone willing and able to come. All are welcome!

Making Mass more meaningful

The Mass is the greatest prayer known to mankind, but it doesn't always feel that way.

Here are a few practices that may help you “engage” with interest and devotion:

1. Start by saying a silent prayer. One example is “Lord Jesus, we are gathering here to witness a miracle.”
2. Pick someone you are praying for at this Mass. The Mass can't take on any greater meaning, but it can take on a greater personal intensity.
3. When your mind wanders...Look at the crucifix or the Holy Family statue. This could help you stop “saying the prayers” and start praying them.
4. If you are afraid to go 'deeper' at Mass, ask why. Often sins in our lives are at the root of our fear to be intimate with God. If we sincerely ask to be allowed to see and confront the weaknesses that hold us back, we can recognize them and bring them to confession.
5. Is there a way to keep from daydreaming or nodding off during the homily? Spend time studying the readings before Mass (even if the only time you have to spare is the five minutes before the opening hymn). Familiarizing yourself with the readings may help you tune in to Mass, and homily.
6. We don't celebrate the holy sacrifice of the Mass to be entertained. It's not about you or me. Christ is present when the homily is dull just as He is present when the homily is particularly moving.
7. Finally, on the way out the door...Try to remember something from the homily or Gospel that you can mention to someone. Repeating what moved your heart will help you put this new idea into practice.

SINGLE AGAIN

A Support Group for the Divorced and Separated

Single Again is a tri-parish support group for those in the process of divorce and beyond. It is open to men and women from any parish or none, does not require registration, and is free. It offers an opportunity to learn, to find support, and to make new friends, all leading to healing. The group meets every other week from 7:00-8:30 PM in Room P201. Please contact Mary Janowak, 262-366-6125, with any questions. The next session, which will be on Thursday, January 27, will be Finding the Support You Need. All are welcome.

ONLINE GIVING

Through your financial support of our parish, you pass on the faith to our children, share in the joy of weddings and baptisms, comfort the sick, console the grieving, and support others in need. Financial giving is one way for each of us to grow in holiness. With online or mobile app giving, you won't need to write checks and prepare envelopes. Recurring gifts provide more consistency in revenues, which helps St. John Vianney financials remain stable and predictable. Start online giving today at www.stjohnv.org/parish/online-giving

WE ARE CALLED

It is in the context of St. Paul's remarkable letter to the Corinthians that we find the comparison of the Church to a body. Paul lays out for us the complete concept of what it means to be a steward of the Church and of everything we have and are. The Apostle Paul was the ultimate teacher, perhaps second only to our Lord and Savior Himself. As Paul explains it, the Body of Christ, the Body of the Church, is not a goal; it is a fact, a fact that we must completely grasp, appreciate, and practice.

Through Baptism we are called to be a part of the Body, and that calling includes our willingness and preparation to play our role, our vocation, in relation to the entire Body. St. Paul, by using the comparison to a body, points out that there is great diversity in the Body of Christ, the Church. However, each part of the Body, each of us as a member, has a function within our common goal. For Paul diversity is not just acceptable; it is essential. Each of us has different gifts, but working together the Body itself is strong. Every part is necessary. Each of us is necessary for the Body, the Church, to function completely.

You may be aware that our readings are divided into three Cycles, called A, B, and C. This year we are in Cycle C. In Cycle A the primary Gospel is Matthew; Cycle B is predominantly Mark; and this year the principal Gospel is Luke. Luke's Gospel is unique in many ways. Most scholars believe that it was written after Matthew and Mark. In addition, Luke was most likely a Gentile, in fact the only New Testament Gentile writer. A companion of St. Paul, St. Luke presents himself differently as well. Twice in the first sentence of today's Gospel reading Luke uses the pronoun "us," a clear indication that he considered himself one with all of us, a part of that Body of Christ.

It is important that we appreciate the perspective of Luke as we hear his Gospel in the coming year. Luke is interested in prayer; he is interested in "preaching the Good News." Twenty-five times in his Gospel and in the Acts of the Apostles (also attributed to Luke) he mentions this; it is only mentioned once in the other three Gospels. Most of all, as we begin the accounts of Jesus through Luke's eyes, we need to know how St. Luke embraced the idea of one Body in Christ. Being willing to do our part is important to stewardship. Dana's song closes in this way, "For you are my body, you're my hands and feet. Speak my word of life to everyone you meet." We are called.
