From Fr. Aaron's Desk

As we light the fourth and final candle of our Advent Wreaths this week we are called to reflect on peace. We already can hear the message of the angels, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will". Our world longs for peace perhaps now more than ever. There's so much unrest not only between nations but in people homes and families. I've heard stories of families that are now divided due to politics and aspects of the pandemic. Those are always difficult situations. To reflect on peace on these final days before Christmas is providential because the question I keep coming back to is, "How do I want to receive Jesus?" The birth of the Messiah is a gift of immeasurable grace. We welcome Christ into our hearts and home once more, but how? How do we welcome Him? For me, my answer is peacefully. I hope to be peaceful come Christmas morning. We all have many stressors right now between family plans, dinners, gifts, and events. We might stress about tensions between certain members of our family. It could be anything. My prayer is that I can hand over the things that cause me unrest to God so that I can peacefully receive His Son. One way to do this might be to write an intention in the red binder near the baptistry in the back of church. Perhaps you have your own prayer journal where you can write down what weighs heavy. Maybe coming to confession will be that act of surrender. Often times doing something concrete like that can help us give our burdens to God. While I pray for my own peace, be assured that I pray for yours.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:
Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

"The Chosen"

Wednesdays, January 5 through February 23
from 6:30 to 8:00 pm
Gathering Space

Join us in viewing The Chosen, a multi-season show about the life and ministry of Jesus Christ from the perspective of his early followers and founded on Sacred Scripture. Come to know Jesus in a deeper way as He shares His love, mercy, and compassion with those He met on the way - the sinners, the wounded, the outcasts.

Encounter the humanity of Christ, His mother Mary, Mary Magdalen, John the Baptist and the disciples. Bible stories will come alive to you. Each night you'll view an episode beginning with "Called by Name", followed by small group discussion.

Bring a friend, you won't be disappointed. Register NOW; visit the parish website, www.stmaryhc.org, or call Jeff Kacala in Catholic Formation at 414-425-2174.

Be the Compassion of Christ, Hands & Heart Together

A D V E N T W E E K 4

A Season of Hope and Imagination

(adapted from Jack Jezreel of JustFaith Ministries)

Hope is best done in community. “The religious imagination is best exercised by ‘we’. Because Christian hope is only about ‘we’. ‘Me and God’ doesn’t get it. If being a church community means anything, it must mean that we imagine together a new possibility. The minute we stop dreaming, stop imagining together is the day we stop growing and start becoming ever so predictable and stagnant. In addition, we hope together because hope is sometimes difficult and on our own and not always possible for some. And so we hope on each other’s behalf, to keep hope active, to enable hope in each other. We need the dreamers, the visionaries, the holy ones, the elders, the peacemakers among us to sustain us when we lose heart.

“In conclusion, could it be that the best we can do in the coming days of Advent is to set aside time to dream, to imagine what God is up to, and to imagine what our lives together might become? Then, the practice of hope becomes our prayer. Imagination becomes an act of holiness. And our dreams shared allow for a new creation. Imagine.”

Pause to remain in Advent possibilities just a bit in this hectic week of preparations.

Praying for your Advent hope and imagination. With deep gratitude and dreams for this faith community, ✞ Pam

Thank You!

Our outreach “Circle of Love” is overwhelmed by your generosity. We have been able to support our families, the people served by our food pantry, and our wonderful ministry partner organizations who in turn serve so many individuals. Here are just a few notes of thanks:

“Thank you so much for your most generous donation of baby supplies and monetary donations for baby supplies through your Circle of Love! We are most grateful to you for your immense generosity! Through your generous support we are able to help save the lives of babies in danger of abortion and continue to help them and their mothers with baby supplies, bringing much comfort and encouragement to these mothers who are facing a difficult time. ~ From Maryclare Stephens, Executive Director, The Women’s Support Center

“We want to send a loud Thank You and a big hug. The generosity of the people at St. Mary’s made us feel that we had the best Christmas ever (in spite of the pandemic)! The Circle of Love group and the food pantry group gave us more than food and gift cards - they helped us spread some good feelings to some mighty needy people. The number of people we feed has greatly increased and we were worried that we wouldn’t be able to give out any extra food or any small gifts to the families, and then we heard from our friends at St. Mary’s. We are so thankful for all that you have done and we wish we could tell you how happy you made our clients at the food pantry. God bless you!

~ From Father Ed Cook, Sally La Fountain, and Dee Loomis, Congregation of the Great Spirit, Milwaukee

We will share more thank you notes from Haiti, other ministry partners, and parish members over the next few weeks. Christmas will truly be bright because of this faith community. Our donations might just make it possible for others to have hope and imagine a more joyous Christmas. May God bless you and yours with the most blessed Christmas ever!

2021 Contributions

The Internal Revenue Service requires that any donation you wish to have included on your 2021 Contribution Statement must reach us before the end of this calendar year. If you decide to bring your donation to the Parish Office, please keep in mind we close Friday, December 31 at noon. Any checks mailed to us must be dated "2021" and postmarked in 2021 for them to be applied to the 2021 tax year.

You may also donate online. Please check out Ways to Give on our website, www.stmaryhc.org/Give. Online giving is easy, safe, accurate, and most important during the holiday season, it's 24/7/365. Your donation made in 2021 will be reflected on your annual giving statement for tax purposes. Thank you for your generosity and support!

November 2021 Giving Update

(Our fiscal year ends June 30, 2022.)

	Contributions		Offertory
	November, 2021	Year-to-Date	November, 2021	Year-to-Date
Actual Giving	$135,123	$709,441	$8,927	$37,751
Target for Balanced Budget	$158,333	$791,665	$4,167	$20,835
Over (Under)	($23,210)	($82,224)	$4,760	$16,916

A Note from the D.A.S....

For the first five months of the fiscal year July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022, the overall giving is roughly $82,000 behind budget and a like amount behind the same five-month period of last fiscal year. Our income is seasonal and "lumpy" and dependent upon the generosity of our parishioners. We will provide a detailed update on revenue and expense in January once we get past the first six months or halfway point of our current fiscal year.
