A musical meditation on the seven "last words" of Christ on the Cross
Good Friday, April 15
9 PM | Church

From Our Pastor

This Sunday marks the mid-point of Lent and is therefore called "Laetare Sunday," laetare being the Latin word meaning "to rejoice." I rejoice in particular at all of the Lenten initiatives for our growth in love of the Lord and each other taking place in these days, including the increased opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

If you weren't able to make it to the evening of Confessions at St. Vincent's last week, there will be another opportunity at St. Jude Parish this Monday, March 28 at 6:30PM, and the St. Vincent's Priests will be there.

This Thursday, March 31, Msgr. James Shea will speak to our Parish in the main church about the future of practicing our Catholic faith in the months and years ahead. He is the author of the book, From Christendom to Apostolic Mission: Pastoral Strategies for an Apostolic Age and one of the founders of the University of Mary in North Dakota. I consider the vision he lays out to be utterly decisive and abundantly fruitful for our following of Christ at St. Vincent's and pro-actively inviting others to discipleship in Him and for Him. I solemnly assure you that this talk is worth the sacrifice of other commitments this Thursday to attend!

Finally, in order to observe this Laetare Sunday more deeply and well, I recall to your attention the medieval Catholic practice known as "midlenting." According to the Oxford English Dictionary, midlenting refers to "the custom of visiting parents on the fourth Sunday of Lent and giving them presents." So, children of all ages, if you are looking for the perfect "penance" to grow in holiness and to shock and awe those who brought you into this world, go get yourselves midlenting today!

In St. Vincent's love of Christ,
Fr. Daniel Scheidt

SCHOOL NEWS

Fellow Parishioners, 03/27/22

Greetings in Christ! The Lord's presence in our community continues to give us many graces! One of those graces was a clear focus on Christian charity.

One of our students in the intermediate grades was really troubled about the horrible situation in the Ukraine. While we all likely feel this to some degree or another, she was motivated enough to act on this, and find a potential charity that focused on helping Ukrainian refugee children, and then wanted to present this to me. She hoped our school would do a $1 out of uniform day, which we will do in the very near future. Her poise and presence in wanting to actually first pray, then find other meaningful action, and then being willing to present this to me, was truly an act of Christian charity and generosity, something so many of our families speak to and act on in very meaningful ways every day.

Many of you will recall that Redeemer Radio held their Spring Shar-a-thon this past week. I was phenomenally blessed to be on with Debbie Blackburn, Lindsay Lushis, and Fr. Dan, and we had the opportunity to reflect on the many graces each of our respective ministries enact. You know what? We have some phenomenal people here, in both our parish and school—people who deeply love our Lord and find really creative and engaging ways of sharing that love. In sharing that, we of course also asked listeners to call in and support Redeemer Radio, and here again Christian charity was abundant. Our community was so generous – thank you St. Vincent's!

In another way of considering charity, a non-monetary one, Fr. Jay has attended a training for priests who are more recently ordained throughout this year, along with many other newer priests in our Diocese, called Good Leaders, Good Shepherds. He's had many training days throughout this calendar year, and then invited myself, Scott Nguyen, Monica Aquilla, and Lindsay Lushis to join him for a training to other parish staff this past Friday. I admire his charity in finding the fruitfulness from these trainings, as well as the charity of our staff colleagues who really worked together to reflect on principles we were covering as they impact our own lives as parish staff.

One aspect of Lent, the historical practice of almsgiving, is really a question of charity. Charity, at its root level, is a choice – one way of living out the greatest commandments. Will I love the Lord with everything that I have, will I love my neighbors in the same way? A charitable response is one that is willing to sacrifice one's own time, or treasure or talent, for the good of the other. That's a central question in Lent – can we sacrifice for the good of the other – a central question too of the entire Christian faith. This week, let's ask the Lord for the grace to answer this with an abundant yes.

In Faith,
Mr. Coyle, Principal

If you are 55 or over, please join us for the next Lunch N Learn on Monday, April 11, at 11:30 am in the Spiritual Center. Todd is a parishioner of St Vincent's and we are excited to hear about the many things happening at AIHS. We ask that each participant bring a dish to share, with the main course being provided. If you have any questions, contact the Church office (260-489-3537 ext. 3). See you then!

CHRISM MASS

The annual Chrism Mass will be held at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Monday, April 11, at 7:00 pm. Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades has invited all priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay people of the diocese to attend. An interpreter will be present for those who are hearing impaired or deaf. At the Chrism Mass, the Holy Chrism is consecrated and the oil of catechumens and oil of the sick are blessed. This beautiful Mass manifests the communion of the priests with their bishop in the same priesthood and ministry of Christ.

THEOLOGY ON TAP

Young people from across Fort Wayne are invited to come together to dive deeply into themes centered on the Eucharist and a call to action. The series, planned by a team of local young adults and entitled "Go Forth," offers a weekly talk by a local follower of faith and the opportunity to enjoy food, drink, and fellowship. Individuals of any faith are encouraged to attend sessions at USF Historic Woman's Club (402 W Wayne St). Visit diocesefwsb.org/tot-fw.

TRANSITIONS NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Want to make a difference? Whether you're a nursing student, curious about hospice or enjoy giving back to the community, call Transitions to become a Patient Companion or Administrative Volunteer. In addition, we are searching for Veteran and Active Military Volunteers to serve our Veteran patients in hospice care. Vet-to-Vet sittings, memorials, pinning ceremonies, caregiver support and more. Serve those who served us! For more information, visit transitions hospice.com/volunteers/ or contact Bronze Bostick at bbostick@transitions hospice.com or 317-416-3191.

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION

Attendance at two Baptismal Preparation Sessions is required before your child is baptized. You may attend Session II before Session I, if necessary. Each session will begin at 7:00 pm. It is recommended that both parents attend before the birth of your child so that there will be no delay in setting a date for the baptism once the baby is born. Godparents, too, are welcome. At least one parent must be Catholic and at least one Godparent must be a practicing Catholic. Parents must be registered in the Parish. Please call the Church Office (489-3537 ext. 3) or register online at saintv.org/Baptism.

(S) = Mass is open to the public AND livestreamed via the internet. By virtue of your attendance at these Masses you give St. Vincent de Paul Parish permission to have your image incidentally appear in these livestreams and recordings thereof. We will not focus or concentrate on individual worshippers out of respect for your privacy, but cannot preclude your incidental appearance in the background or in wide angle shots of the Sanctuary. Should you have a good and valid reason your image cannot appear in these livestreams, please visit the Church Office for advice on places to sit that will not appear on camera.
