

PASCHAL CANDLE 2022

Alleluia! He Is Risen!

Christ Triumphantly Alive Grasps the Human Race from the Grasp of Death and Hell

The victory of Christ's Resurrection penetrates the cosmos – from the celestial bodies of the heavens to the lilies of the field – which silently proclaim the Divine Beauty that made them and rose to make all things new.

The covenants of the Spirit-swept waters of the first creation, the purifying flood of Noah, and the liberating parting of the sea by Moses to deliver his people from slavery all flow from the same Divine Heart that opened itself on the Cross to wash away our sins in the Blood and Water of His Mercy.

This year our Paschal candle also conveys that flow – from the first line of Genesis, "In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth," to the last line of Revelation: "The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all."

In between, the cascading hearts of believing generations testify to us in the readings of the Easter vigil. The cross embedded in the candle was carved from a hickory tree that fell in a parishioner's woods, its bark suggestive of the Crucifix behind our altar.

On this, your night of grace, O holy Father, accept this candle, a solemn offering, the work of bees and of your servants' hands, an evening sacrifice of praise, this gift from your most holy Church.

The Sacramental Arts ministry

From Our Pastor

The Lord is risen, as He said! Alleluia! With greatest joy, we join with the Church throughout the world and across the ages in celebrating Christ's victory over sin and death. Having shared these past days in the depths of the Lord's Passion, we can now be introduced to the heights of His Risen Glory.

So great is the fullness of the mystery of Easter that the Church celebrates it—like Christmas—as an “Octave,” an uninterrupted feast of eight days observed as a single “Easter Day.” And even this Octave is only the beginning of the fifty days of festivity which characterize the whole Easter season, culminating in the great Feast of Pentecost (May 23, this year).

I wish to thank from the depths of my heart all of the staff members and volunteers of St. Vincent's who have prepared our Parish so well for these holy days, from decorating to music to RCIA to maintenance, and everything in between. For weeks the extra labors of the staff have been gracefully heroic!

Particular thanks for the beauty and prayerfulness of our liturgies goes to Tony Andorfer and to all of the cantors and musicians who helped us follow the Lord through Holy Week into the Sacred Triduum, that we might now join the angels and saints in singing the praises of the Risen Lord.

Congratulations to those baptized and received into the Church at the Easter Vigil. Your faith shows that Christ's promise of new Easter gifts is very much alive and that the Church, like her Lord, remains both ever ancient and ever new.

I am also deeply grateful for the work of Julia Thill and her RCIA team—and Debbie Blackburn, Sarah Falbe, and their religious education/sacramental preparation volunteers—who have accompanied throughout the year the newly baptized and received along their journey to the Easter sacraments of communion in the Catholic Church. Particular thanks to Julia as she retires from staff after over a decade of serving to welcome people into our spiritual home and deepening their life of faith in the Christ Renews His Parish retreat program!

This year we are blessed again to have one of the largest and most beautiful Paschal Candles in Christendom, designed and hand-carved for us by members of our candle carving ministry. If you have some artistic sense of adventure and would enjoy preparing the decoration of baptismal candles distributed throughout the year, just contact Mary Shoaff through the Parish Office.

Finally, to all who may be visiting St. Vincent's for the first time—or even after a long time—you are most welcome. A “new springtime” of faith and growth continues at our Parish, and we would be delighted and honored if you would consider joining us in the weeks and months and years to come.

It will take this many Sundays together to discover all of the graces—and even miracles—that the Risen Christ wishes to share with us. Speaking on behalf of all our parishioners and the whole host of Heaven, I rejoice at the prospect of your homecoming—we have prayed for you as our Easter gift!

In St. Vincent's love of Christ,
Fr. Daniel Scheidt

Welcome to St. Vincent's!

Receiving Holy Communion in the Catholic Church is a public declaration that one is committing one's life to being “in communion” with Catholic teaching, worship, and shepherding under the care of Pope Francis and his brother Bishops.

For those who may not be Catholic or actively practicing the Catholic faith in communion with the Church's teaching, worship commitments and shepherding, you are invited at this time either simply to remain seated in the pew in prayer; or you may come forward in the procession to receive a blessing.

Should you come forward in the procession to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest as an indication that you wish to receive a blessing, rather than receive Holy Communion. Let us pray for each other!

Little White Books with daily reflections for the Easter Season are available in the Gathering Space. Please take one! Have a Blessed Easter!

CRS RICE BOWL

We encounter Jesus this week in Jerusalem. We prayerfully enter our own communities too, encountering those who are hungry and thirsty, and those who need our help. Please return Rice Bowls to the Gathering Space by May 8.

Main restrooms are located near the WEST entrance of the church Gathering Space... please ask if you need help finding what you need!

Thank you for celebrating with us today!
We hope the JOY of this Easter day remains with you throughout ALL the Sundays of the year!

SCHOOL NEWS

Fellow Parishioners, 04/17/22
Greetings in Christ and Happy Easter - He is Risen, Alleluia!
Two weeks ago, I wrote about cultivating hope, something that is central to Lent and Easter more directly. Easter - the central moment of the Christian faith, hope, reality - the defining event of our faith - lends itself to living with this hope. One way we do so is by living liturgically.

Worth repeating - hope is a theological virtue and therefore any increase in this virtue comes directly from God. I continue to believe, however, that if we place ourselves in situations when we can be more open to God's grace, we can indeed hope for a great outpouring of His blessings. That said, it occurred to me recently that our school is a part of the liturgical living in our community that lends itself to an increase in hope. I saw this when one of our staff members was removing some of the altar cloths in the Oratory before it would be worked on in the week of 4/4. This was an ordinary action, a necessary one before our Lord would be in repose that week, but in its ordinariness was also a reverence and a hope.

Christ promised us after His Resurrection "behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). He would later at Pentecost send the Holy Spirit to formally create His Church, and He would make that Church, our Church, a primary way of showing His presence in the world today. Without this promise, without Easter, without Pentecost, while obviously there would be no Christian faith, it hits home to note there would be no St. Vincent de Paul Parish or School - we wouldn't be reading this bulletin right now or have our Community in Christ that we call home.

And so something of cultivating hope comes from enmeshing our staff and students in the life of liturgy - the collective liturgies of our parish. We attend Mass twice a week. Our students serve as altar servers and in our beautiful jr. high or 5th/6th grade choirs. We go to the Oratory every third week in most grades for adoration. We have Confirmation retreats and we learn how to share personal prayers in our classes, for morning announcements, and in Mercy Club. We gather in the physical church for rosaries, stations of the cross, or confession. Each day, we reflect on the greatest commandments and how we see God at work in our lived experience - we specifically speak to/about this at the end of every day with closing announcements - we share God moments of when we find His grace in a specific act that day. Perhaps a friend was particularly kind to us, a teacher extra-patient (our staff already is deeply patient and joyful), our cafeteria lunch was extra good (our lunches are already amazing), etc. We serve - part of the call at the end of Mass ("Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord) - with various drives and efforts for our annual charity, to make meals for the Ukraine, or in other needs that arise.

What is ordinary in daily life at St. Vincent's is actually something extraordinary - we live liturgically. This extraordinary choice we make as individuals and community is a decision to recognize that this is actually the only way to have hope in life - perhaps the core meaning of Easter. The Easter season will continue for 50 more days, leading to Christ's Ascension and the celebration of Pentecost. This Easter season, let's look for deliberate ways to increase our awareness of and desire to live liturgically, knowing that our hope can only become more abundant as a result.

In Faith,
Mr. Coyle, Principal

Top Ten Reasons Every Catholic Should Worship at Mass Every Sunday

1. Jesus Christ wants us to (it really is that simple)!
2. Loving God demands more than just vague (or even merely spontaneous) personal feelings and abstract promises toward the One we are to love: Love requires specific actions at specific times and specific places with specific people—specific responses to the specific needs of the Beloved.
3. We have the opportunity to pray with others, not just by ourselves. Jesus promises that “Wherever two or more are gathered in my name, I am there in the midst of them.”
(Matthew 18:20)
4. We have the opportunity to be with and pray for others whom we have not chosen, whom God has chosen for us to be with and to love as “neighbor”; in other words, God wants to expand our circle of friends.
5. We go not just to get something out of it but to give something to it: In terms of giving a portion of our time, participation at Mass is precisely 1/168 of one’s week—that’s the minimum asked!
6. But we should also go to Mass to get something out of it: We receive the real Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus considered this an absolutely essential preparation for following Him in this life and for living in happiness with Him in the life promised at the end of this one:

Jesus said to them, “I am telling you the truth: If you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life within yourselves. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him to life on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood the real drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I live in him.”

John 6:53-56

7. We need to dedicate a lifetime to growing into the words and supernatural realities of Catholic life. It is impossible to understand the words of Sacred Scripture or of the Mass in any time less than the whole of our life: They are inexhaustible and require lifelong commitment.
8. We need to witness publicly that we belong to the Catholic Church, not only for our own integrity but also for the growth and consolation of others. (Do we have any idea what a joy it is, for example, for an older person to see young people in church?)
9. We are participating in words and actions that have given deepest meaning and joy to generation upon generation of people, over thousands of years of history; our short, small life is put into proper perspective and is given eternal importance.
10. We in these words and actions are placed in holy communion with the countless believers of every time and place—those now in heaven and throughout the earth—who are praying with us and for us, hearing the same saving words of Scripture we are and receiving the same Eucharistic Lord Who made heaven and earth, the whole show! Celebration of the Eucharist is the Communion of Saints on earth, as it is in heaven.

EASTER GREETINGS

Dear St. Vincent's Parishioners,
Happy Easter! As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, we rejoice in receiving anew the gift of our faith, the gift of our very lives. Although I can not be with you to celebrate liturgically, please know I have been united with you all in prayer throughout Holy Week, and rejoice now in communion at all the joys of Easter. I give thanks for your continued support of vocations, and in a special way, express my gratitude to our priests for their witness and inspiring example.

This Easter I was able to enjoy a break from studies in Rome, and returned to a former parish assignment outside of Madrid, Spain - Parroquia de Jesús y María - a small but vibrant community where I spent last summer immersed in Spanish ministry. Although the music and language were different, we celebrated the same Paschal mystery, the same glorious exchange of Christ's passion for our redemption from sin. The universality of this gift knows no language or cultural barriers.

I look forward to returning home to a parish assignment in our diocese this summer before continuing my fourth year of formation in Rome next fall. I ask for your continued prayers of support as I approach diaconate ordination.

With joy in the risen Lord,
Sam Anderson,
Seminarian of FWSB and son of St. Vincent de Paul Parish

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 24, we invite you for The Divine Mercy Chaplet and Benediction beginning at 3:00 pm in the Oratory of St. Mary Magdalene. Please join us for this special devotion to our Lord's Divine Mercy.

Also, on Divine Mercy Sunday, a Plenary Indulgence is available, which removes all temporal punishment due to forgiven sin and can be applied to one's self or to anyone who is deceased. Learn more about the Divine Mercy Sunday Plenary Indulgence at diocesefwsb.org/divine-mercy-sunday.

IN PREPARATION

In preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy (which falls on Sunday, April 24, this year) the Lord asked Saint Faustina to make a novena of prayer from Good Friday to the following Saturday. For each of the nine days our Lord gave Saint Faustina a different intention:

- ◆ all mankind, especially sinners; (April 15)
- ◆ the souls of priests and religious; (April 16)
- ◆ all devout and faithful souls; (April 17)
- ◆ those who do not believe in Him and those who do not yet know Him; (April 18)
- ◆ the souls of the separated brethren; (April 19)
- ◆ the meek and humble souls and the souls of little children; (April 20)
- ◆ the souls who especially venerate and glorify His Mercy; (April 21)
- ◆ the souls detained in purgatory; (April 22)
- ◆ souls who have become lukewarm (April 23)

Jesus said "I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fount of My Mercy that they may draw there from strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life and especially at the hour of death. (Diary 1209) On each day you would beg My Father on the strength of My bitter passion, for graces for these souls. Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything if what you ask is compatible with my will." Visit <https://www.praymorenovenas.com/divine-mercy-novena> for prayers for each day of the novena.

There are many promises associated with the feast, the greatest of which is associated with the reception of Holy Communion on that day: our Lord made the promise of complete forgiveness of sins and Punishment if one approaches the Fountain of Life that day with an attitude of trust. The soul that will go to confession (8 days before or after) and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary 699)

Gloria

Responsorial Psalm This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Easter Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim Offer your thankful praises!
 A Lamb the sheep redeems; Christ, who only is sinless,
 Reconciles sinners to the Father.
 Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
 The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.
 Speak, Mary, declaring What you saw, wayfaring.
 "The tomb of Christ, who is living,
 The glory of Jesus' resurrection;
 Bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting.
 Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;
 To Galilee he goes before you."
 Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
 Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

Alleluia!

Can you hear her voice proclaiming
from the tow'r with angels singing,
Bringing news of our salvation
Behold her words of invitation:
I have seen the Lord risen I have seen the Lord alive.
I have seen death has been conquered ancient dreams realized.
I have seen the Lord risen. Come and adore. Come and adore.
In this fortress where all can pray.
We bring burdens, we bring praise.
You have called us beloved friend.
Her echo never ends:
I have seen the Lord risen I have seen the Lord alive.
I've seen death has been conquered ancient dreams realized.
I've seen miracles before me.
I've seen sinners become saints.
I've seen the tomb an empty cavern.
Christ is present in this place.
I've seen foes become family.
I've seen love rule over hate.
I've seen the risen Lord.
Come and adore. Come and adore. Come and adore.
I have seen the Lord risen.
O come let us adore Him, O come let us adore Him,
O come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord. Come and adore.

Hymn of Joy

Christopher Wordsworth, 1807-1885 |
Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827 |
Adapt. by Edward Hodges, 1796-1867

- Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts and voices heav'nward raise:
Sing to God a hymn of gladness, Sing to God a hymn of praise.
Christ, who on the cross a victim, For the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory, Now is risen from the dead.
- Now the iron bars are broken, Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life and life immortal, On that holy Easter morn.
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer By this mighty enterprise,
We with Christ to life eternal By his resurrection rise.
- Christ is risen, we are risen! Shed upon us heav'nly grace,
Rain and dew and gleams of glory From your holy radiant face;
That, with hearts in heaven dwelling, We on earth, your servants true,
Will by angel hands be gathered, And be ever, Lord, with you.
- Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia to the Savior Who has won the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit, Fount of love and sanctity;
Alleluia! Alleluia! To the Triune Majesty.
