SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

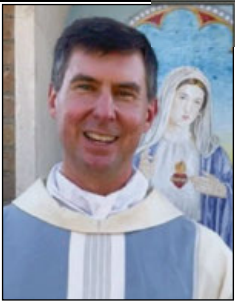

MAY 22, 2022

Blessed are you among women...

From Our Pastor

As we enter the sixth week of our celebration of the Easter season, the Risen Lord promises the gift of the Holy Spirit of His love of the Father, the indwelling gift that will be our deepest, lasting peace.

This weekend Bishop Rhoades calls down the gift of the Holy Spirit on five men ordained transitional Deacons on Saturday at St. Matthew Cathedral in South Bend—Brian Florin, Bobby Krisch, David Langford, Jacob Schneider, and Ryan Timossi. Later in September, Sam Anderson and Zane Langenbrunner also hope to be ordained Deacons in Rome, bringing to seven the total in this class—exactly the number of Deacons in the first Ordination class, in the Acts of the Apostles!

The apostolic tasks of Deacons include proclaiming the Gospel and preaching at Mass and other liturgies, baptizing, presiding at weddings and funerals outside of Mass, and taking initiative in organizing the Church's works of charity. A Deacon is by Ordination configured to Christ the Servant.

Please keep in your prayers our St. Vincent School eighth graders, who will be graduating this coming Thursday, May 26. We ask the Holy Spirit's blessing on all of those graduating from their schooling in these weeks, as well as those entering life-long consecrations. Christ's words to the Apostles are our words of blessing to them: "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give you."

In St. Vincent's love of Christ,
Fr. Daniel Scheidt

After you've entered your information, the schedule will open for you. Click the hour you'd like to adore, select the frequency and then "sign up." You may also request substitutes for times you can't make it to adoration.

RESPECT LIFE

Prayer & Action

May Catholics work tirelessly to support mothers in need, helping them obtain all the necessities of life.

The month of May is truly a celebration of motherhood. Traditionally, May has been dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is also the time in which we honor and thank our earthly mothers for their sacrificial love. And the Feast of the Visitation on May 31 celebrates the meeting of two mothers—Mary and Elizabeth—both with a child hidden within their wombs.

Pray:

Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

Act (choose one):

- In preparation for the Feast of the Visitation, join Catholics nationwide in praying A Novena for Life from May 22 - 30. (Sign up to receive the daily prayers at respectlife.org/visitation.)
- Read and meditate on the Gospel account of the Visitation (Lk 1:39-56). Ask the Blessed Mother's intercession for God to reveal how your gifts can help serve vulnerable mothers in your community.
- Offer some other sacrifice or prayer that you feel called to do for this month's intention.

Did You Know?

The Church has a nationwide initiative called Walking with Moms in Need that helps Catholics form parish teams to identify resources in their local area and connect pregnant and parenting mothers with support and services. Learn more at WalkingWithMoms.com.

SCHOOL NEWS

Fellow Parishioners,

05/22/22

What motivates us? Perhaps the most efficacious answer is love, and that love appears in a variety of ways!

A teacher in our younger grades was sharing how excited she was about our recent NWEA scores with a colleague, and her colleague relayed this to me. NWEA is a formative assessment we give 3 times each year, and it's normed nationally against millions of grade level scores / data sets. It gives us a reliable measure of how a student grows over time in reading and math. From this normed data, NWEA shows projected growth for a student, and it is common in the way NWEA is set up to see roughly 50% of students (in a particular sample size) achieve or exceed their projected growth. (NWEA also measures achievement, and an achievement score of 50% means a student is on grade level - higher scores indicate achievement above grade levels, and for lower scores, vice versa.) So, if a school or class reaches even 60% of students meeting/exceeding growth, or 70%, that is an exceptional achievement. In this instance however, our teacher went way above and beyond - her class showed 81% of students meeting or exceeding growth! This comes from a depth of love in working very intentionally and frankly very hard to meet the individual needs of a great variety of students, and that love generated an amazing motivation for her and for her students.

In a very different lens, and you may think I'm kidding but I'm not, a coach went way above and beyond to motivate his team to desire greatness. We actually had 3 soccer teams win CYO championships this spring, which is itself a very rare achievement, but this coach, in wanting his 7th/8th grade boys to have a further, tangible reminder of what they were playing for, promised to shave his head if his team won the championship. That game opened with our team actually being down two points, but they went back to win it 4-2. I heard later he had the razor out as an incentive to help the boys focus. And of course you know what he did after honoring his team by name and a brief victory speech? He shaved his head, but he also let each team member make a pass with the razor. That is a real courage, a real love, that generated a very real motivation, and a very real victory.

Sometimes it's the every day kind of love that motivates us. We have walkies at school, and teachers can use those in a variety of situations, but in particular if a child needs a break or help getting through a difficult emotion or behavior. A teacher radioed for another teacher recently, and there was love in the message - she asked "do you have a minute to stop by our room?" It's a sign of their exceptional professionalism that our teachers understand that wording and respond so quickly. In this case, I didn't hear a response, and I knew exactly why: she got to that room so quickly she didn't need to radio back. There is love in allowing oneself to be interrupted and to recognize an immediate need - talk about the entire foundation of excellent catechesis, parenting, or any form of education!

Many things might motivate us towards any variety of ends. Our society offers dozens, if not hundreds, of false motivations that lead us only to emptiness and desolation. Our Church, our Lord, offers probably the only motivation that actually does lead somewhere, which is why Christ left us this as the greatest commandments. Let's ask ourselves this week: what will motivate me today? What will motivate me tomorrow? And is it a motivation that will leave me more empty or deeply more alive?

In Faith,

Mr. Coyle, Principal

THANK YOU!

Dear Members of the St. Vincent de Paul Family,
I am deeply touched and moved by your extremely generous gift in support of priestly and religious vocations. My family and I have been members of St. Vincent de Paul parish for the last six years. Currently, I am a seminarian studying for the Archdiocese of Miami in Florida. This past Sunday, after being directed by my father after Mass, I went to claim an envelope from the Church Office. To my surprise, I was given a large manila envelope full of many different types of gift cards. I could not believe the sheer number of cards and the overflowing generosity from all of the members of St. Vincent's. Even though I am not a seminarian studying for the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend, I felt the universality of our Church and of God's Love. Such a generous gift is a sign of the deep love and faith present here in the St. Vincent de Paul community and of the love of religious vocations. This love and faith is like a deep well that never goes dry. I am deeply grateful to be part of the St. Vincent family and will be keeping everyone here in my prayers as I continue on to Third Theology and preparation for diaconate ordination. As I reflect on this gift and the gift of the community here at St. Vincent's, I am reminded that God is never outdone in generosity. Thank You!
In Christ,
John Buonocore
Pastoral Year Seminarian, Archdiocese of Miami

40 HOURS OF ADORATION FOR DEACON BRIAN ISENBARGER

St. John the Baptist Fort Wayne is hosting 40 hours of Adoration to pray for son of the parish, Brian Isenbarger, in the 40 hours leading up to him being ordained a priest. Sign up for an hour using the button on SaintJohnFortWayne.com. There will be an opening Mass in Guerin Chapel at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church (4501 Arlington Ave) at 6:00 pm on Thursday, June 2. Adoration will begin immediately after Mass and continue until 11:00 am on Saturday, June 4. Park on the street or in the cement parking area to the right of the chapel. Guerin Chapel is well labeled with a canopy above the glass door. Wheelchair accessible.

WINGS' Mom's MEET UP GROUP

Women in God's Service (WINGS) is starting a Mom's Meet Up group for moms interested in Christian fellowship and community. The group will be open to women and children of any age and will provide a safe environment for children to play with new friends while allowing moms to socialize and foster a sense of Christian sisterhood. The group will meet every Wednesday at 2:00 pm. Location and activities will vary weekly based on weather and space. Visit SaintV.org/MomsMeetUp for more information or to sign up.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The parish is committed to give, as first fruits of the gifts we receive from you, 5% of the parish offertory collection to assist other ministries, parishes and community organizations, including parish twinning, both locally and internationally, over the course of 25 years. Three years ago, the parish Stewardship Committee requested proposals from several community agencies that have connections to St. Vincent's or parish families. From these proposals, five ministries were selected for partnership with the parish. This partnership included opportunities for volunteer involvement and a three-year funding commitment. The ministries selected at that time were: A Mother's Hope, Vincent Village, The St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store, The Women's Care Center and The Euell Wilson Center.

It's now time to entertain some new thoughts on community ministries/nonprofits that should be included in our next round of grantees. Do you have a ministry in mind that you would like to nominate for a partnership with the parish? In order to be included in the process, the nominees must be a 501c(3) charitable organization, and be doing work in the Fort Wayne area that could promote and spark volunteer opportunities with our parishioners. Nominees will be requested to complete an application process, with the final candidate organizations also being interviewed by the Stewardship Committee. Please submit your thoughts or ideas by June 5 to the Church office in an envelope marked "Stewardship ideas" or email your idea to church@SaintV.org.

DIOCESAN EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION & FESTIVAL

Save the date for a family-friendly Eucharistic Procession and Festival on the afternoon of Sunday, June 19, in Warsaw, IN as our diocese enters into the three-year Eucharistic Revival for the Catholic Church in the United States, renewing devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The procession will begin at Sacred Heart Parish at 2:30 pm with music and prayer before departing at 3:00 pm on a 2.8-mile route, concluding with Benediction and a festival at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish. Volunteers are needed to assist with this diocesan event. To learn more, RSVP, or volunteer, visit diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

Help launch the three-year Eucharistic Revival for the Catholic Church in the United States by volunteering at our diocesan Eucharistic Procession and Festival on Sunday, June 19, in Warsaw! Volunteers are needed between the hours of noon and 9:00 pm for a variety of roles, including parking, ushering, photography, technical support, setup, cleanup, and more! Those younger than 18 are welcome to volunteer if chaperoned by a guardian, and families are encouraged to volunteer together. To volunteer or to learn more about the Eucharistic Procession and Revival, visit diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.

Sign up for your parish t-shirt for the procession at SaintV.org/Revival.

THANK YOU!

On behalf of all the religious sisters and seminarians from the parish, thank you so much for your generosity with the many gift cards for all those in formation. It is a humbling experience to receive such kindness, and we are extremely grateful. We have been able to share these with many others in formation for the diocese, helping cover the necessities for studying, living, and the joy of traveling home to the diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend when possible. These have allowed us to provide various ministry opportunities that would not have been possible without your support, such as campus ministry to college athletes and fraternal seminary events.

Again, we are extremely grateful for your generosity, along with your constant care, prayers, and kindness. Thank you for supporting us as we prepare to consecrate ourselves to Jesus and His Bride - His people - His Church. All of you deserve all that we have and are. As Christ gave Himself on the cross, we want to give ourselves completely to you all. In view of this and how lowly we are, thank you for the encouragement that you want this too.

In Christ,
Caleb Kruse

Statement from Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades The Upcoming Supreme Court Decision in Dobbs Case

The draft opinion of the Supreme Court case of Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, leaked last week, has generated angry protests from those who oppose the reversal of Roe v. Wade. For us who are pro-life, the overturning of Roe v. Wade would be an answer to prayer, the correction of a Supreme Court decision 49 years ago that failed to protect the most basic human right, the right to life. In 1973, the U.S. bishops called the Roe v. Wade decision "erroneous, unjust, and immoral." It was a tragic and sweeping decision which denied the child in the womb the right to life and led to the deaths of millions of unborn children in our nation. The Roe v. Wade decision has also led to the further erosion of the value of human life, even the allowance for partial-birth abortion, near infanticide, as well as a diminishment of respect for the lives of other vulnerable people, including the disabled and the terminally ill, as seen in euthanasia and assisted suicide.

With cautious optimism, we await the final ruling of the Supreme Court. Together with my brother bishops throughout the United States, I call upon the people of our diocese to be fervent in prayer during these weeks. For 49 years, we have prayed for a reversal of the tragic Roe v. Wade decision. We bishops also recommend fasting during this pivotal time in our nation. We stand ready to assist and accompany any woman or couple facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies. We are part of the USCCB's "Walking with Moms in Need" initiative and continue to be committed to offering loving and compassionate care through our parishes and diocese, Catholic Charities, and our support of the Women's Care Centers and other collaborators devoted to helping "Moms in Need."

Though we are hopeful for the reversal of Roe v. Wade, such a reversal will not end abortion in our nation. Permissive abortion laws will continue or increase in many states. Here in Indiana, we will need to continue to advocate for legislation to protect the unborn and to help their mothers. And we will need to continue to work for the evangelization of our culture since in many ways since Roe v. Wade, what St. John Paul II called "a culture of death" has grown and spread. We evangelize by proclaiming, living, and serving the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Gospel of life, the Gospel of love and mercy. We serve the good of society when we teach and educate and form consciences about the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition. We serve the Gospel of life when, motivated by love, we care for the poor, the marginalized, migrants and refugees, the elderly, the suffering, and all who need assistance.

I hope and pray that a Supreme Court decision overturning Roe v. Wade will mark a new beginning in our nation. In the short term, it will undoubtedly elicit angry protests, as the leak of the draft opinion has. I pray that, in the long term, it will help to awaken the conscience of our nation to the sacredness of all human life. May the Lord strengthen us in our commitment to the Gospel of life! May He bless our nation with a new culture of love and solidarity, a culture that respects the dignity of every human person from the moment of conception until natural death!

*Peace I leave with you;
my peace I give to you.*

"Quality Care Gently Performed"

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For it is by grace you have been saved through faith-and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God-not by works, so that no one can boast."
