Wonderfully Decked Were the Halls

Our church environment was beautifully adorned for the Christmas season. I am grateful for parishioners Kelly Smith and Christine Mahoney for attending to all the details of the décor. This past fall they took on the organization of the seasonal decorations for our church. Flowers, arrangements and other attractive accoutrements enhance our worship experience, and I am grateful for the joyful service they give each season!

Fr. Matt O'Toole

COVID Protocols

As of this writing, the St. Louis area is seeing record-climbing numbers in coronavirus cases and hospital admissions. At St. Peter we want to continue our worship and service as best we can and as responsible we can. Livestream of the Sunday and daily Masses allows those choosing to stay home to connect with us in prayer. And our fulltime and PSR schools use the professional guidance of our COVID Task Force to establish policies that help keep in-person learning going for our children. For those who do gather at church or assemble for meetings at the parish, I kindly ask that you wear a mask to help mitigate the spread of the virus. And I echo the message Pope Francis made very clear not too long ago: to get vaccinated against COVID-19 is an “act of love.” Please protect yourself and others.

2021: A “Red Year”

Last year St. Peter parishioners stepped up in great numbers to donate blood. Beyond regular whole blood donations, many parishioners went out of their way to give plasma. We had a grand total of 186 successful donations which made a difference in the lives of 686 St. Louis area hospital patients dealing with cancer and sickle cell disease, as well as newborn babies, accident victims and more. I am grateful to Charles Lucier for organizing the blood drives at St. Peter. And to all those who supported this life-saving ministry, thank you! The next blood drive at our parish will be on Sunday, February 6.

Lost Lambs Coming Home

106 St. Peter children in second grade will make their First Reconciliation at the end of next week. This is a sacred moment in a child’s relationship with Jesus. Awareness of sin in their lives is developing, and the grace of the Sacrament guides them to greater holiness. Please keep our young people in your prayers as they approach Confession for the first time. Having taught them in the classroom, I can tell you: they’re both anxious and excited! Don’t forget that we big people need recourse to this Sacrament as well. Here at St. Peter Confessions are heard every Saturday from 3:45 to 4:45 p.m.

Wanted: Workers for the Vineyard

Every Wednesday morning at a school liturgy a different class takes on the charge of praying for a week that God’s call to the priesthood and religious life will receive an answer. Do you know of any young adult men in St. Peter parish that would make good priests? Invite them on a discernment retreat at the seminary, February 11-13. Learn more at stlvocations.org/retreat.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

A Testimony from an Adorer

What adoration means to me.....I started my hour of adoration during Lent last year mainly because they were looking for people and I thought it'd be a good thing to do during Lent. Since then, not only have I continued that but added a middle of the night shift since there was a need there.

Although I can't ever say I enjoy waking up in the middle of the night, the opportunity to be in God's presence and clear my head and my heart for an hour is the best! It is my incentive to go and I actually look forward to that time.

A lot of people ask what I do while I am there. For me, it is time just to be calm and pray both in gratitude and thanksgiving as well as for my special intentions. I always pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and learn a lot from the reading materials that are in the chapel. It's amazing how fitting some of those prayers and readings can be at certain times in my life. I feel it is Jesus guiding me through both the good and the difficult times I am experiencing.

I am so appreciative that St Peter Parish offers this adoration chapel to our parishioners. It is truly a blessing!

- Theresa Finlay

Join us for a Holy Hour by visiting stpeterkirkwood.weadorehim.com/signup/stpadore or stop in our Adoration Chapel anytime. (0822). The chapel entrance is in the Prayer Garden which can be accessed from the sidewalk between the Church and Ursuline Hall.

GENEROSITY OF PSR COMMUNITY HELPS FAMILIES IN NEED

Our Parish School of Religion program participates in an amazing service project each December – 100 Neediest Cases. Susan Lueker
PSR Principal

We adopt several families who are in desperate situations and our students and their families help to provide not just presents, but true assistance in their need.

We can thank one of our catechists, Gina Jensen, for starting this long-standing tradition. It started small, just her class, adopting one family. Then each year, little by little, more catechists joined with her until now our entire program takes a special night to give of the gifts God has given them. Parents and children shop for gifts, household supplies, bedding, toiletries and give monetary donations to assist with utility bills and housing expenses.

The generosity doesn't stop! This year our families donated almost $7500 in cash and gift cards. This is in addition to the 25 moving boxes full of gifts, 2 mattresses and bed frames and many, many gifts too big to fit into those boxes, such as bedding sets and other needed items. (Even our moving boxes are donated each year by Angie Davenport from A Mrakek Moving.)

And the gift wrapping brings out the best in our students. They are delighted to share in the joy of giving. We see bigger kids helping the younger ones to wrap a gift – showing patience and kindness. Our 7th and 8th graders helped to box up gifts and provided “heavy lifting” to load cars for delivery. They also assisted in cleaning up the gym and putting all of the tables away so that our maintenance staff would not need to follow behind us.

We know that we are making a difference not only in the families we are giving to, but especially in the hearts of our students. One of our 6th graders, Ben B., won a $150 gift card from STL County for being vaccinated – and he donated it to our families in need along with a very nice note. I am so proud of all of our students!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CORNER

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Everyday, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are in need, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

Many of the services of the St Vincent de Paul Society are recognizable from the Catholic Corporal Works of Mercy. We feed and clothe, shelter and transport, and heal and help.

Some ways you can support neighbors in need include the following.

- Cash contributions to the envelopes you receive in mail
- Volunteering at the SVdP thrift stores or arranging a pick-up for your unwanted items
- Dropping off canned food items for the KirkCare pantry to the rectory vestibule

The number to call for information about our St Peter Conference or to direct brothers and sisters in need of help with utility, rent or food assistance is 314.289.6101 ext. 2220.

VOLUNTEER IN THE NEW YEAR

- Home visitation of the needy through 140 area chapters, to provide food, rent, and utility assistance

- Ten area thrift stores
- Clerical and office work
