MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP KURTZ

Fall, 2021

The following guidelines are in effect immediately unless there is a new, serious development. You will be notified if that occurs.

1. Catholics are obligated to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation, unless:
  - a. You are ill or caring for others who are ill
  - b. You have a serious health concern about exposure to Covid
  - c. You are unable to get vaccinated
2. Viewing the Mass online, when one is otherwise able to attend in person, does not constitute participation in the Mass and does not fulfill the obligation to attend Mass.
3. The directives stated in #1 above extend to all liturgies and events/meetings held on parish property, including, but not limited to, funerals, weddings, Eucharistic adoration, meetings of parish staff and committees, formation programs, etc.
4. Pastors and their staff will continue reaching out to parishioners who are unable to attend Mass, to visit them, and to make sacraments available to them if possible.
5. The wearing of masks is optional for fully vaccinated people.
6. Those who are not fully vaccinated are required to wear masks indoors for liturgies and other parish functions.
7. Masks also are required at programming involving children unable to be vaccinated, such as parish religious education programs.

INCARNATION'S PICNIC IS BACK!

Incarnation's Annual Fall Picnic
Saturday, September 18, 2021
4:00 – 11:00 PM

We are happy to announce that our annual picnic is returning to Incarnation! Because of the pandemic, we are scaling back a bit this year, but there will be plenty of food and fun for everyone!

We will feature our famous fried chicken dinner, capital prize and quilt raffles, live music, several booths, pull-tabs, a puppy-petting booth for the kiddos, and lots of other fun activities!

MESSAGE FROM LOU LANZA

Our Music Director, Lou Lanza, has asked us to extend the following invitation to all our parishioners. Please give some thought to serving God and our parish in a musical way!

Hello, Incarnation Parishioners! Thank you so much for your kind words of welcome to this wonderful parish community. I'm so glad to be here!

The choir did not perform all last year due to the pandemic, but we're going to try to get up and running again. This will be a new experience for all of us: new to me as Choir Director of a different choir; new to the choir members, having to work with a new director; and new to parishioners who may hear music played and sung a little differently. But whatever the case, we plan to charge ahead. The choir has shrunk in recent years, and we desperately need to add some new voices.

If you have a pretty good ear for music and like to sing, please contact me. We'd love to have you. You can reach me at (215) 872-1355 or lanzascat@aol.com

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

- Q. Why is the Pope the leader of the Catholic Church, and is he really infallible?
- A. The Pope is the successor of apostle Simon Peter, who died in Rome. After Peter confessed his faith, Jesus told him, "And I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." There is a direct line of succession from Peter to Pope Francis.

Popes make mistakes. Some have done evil things. Infallibility refers to something very specific – that is, when the Pope formally defines dogma. It is very rare for Popes to invoke infallibility. Most doctrinal controversies in Church history have been resolved through gatherings of bishops from all over the world, called Councils. Jesus promised He would lead the Church into all truth. The Pope's infallibility is part of this larger protection that Jesus gave the Church. It is important especially when there is a disagreement among Christians about what the Bible teaches.
