27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?"
 They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

FAMILY MOMENTS

Marriage Moments: At the beginning of this summer, many of us thought that the Covid pandemic was winding down. Now we're not so sure. How have Covid restrictions been hard on your marriage? Are there any ways that new practices have enlivened your love?

Parenting Pointers: October is Respect Life Month. Are there people that you find difficult to respect? (criminals, people who are lazy or mean, people of a different political persuasion ...) Yes, even these are worthy of human respect. Talk to your children about giving respect, even to people they don't like.

27th Sunday on Ordinary

STEWARDSHIP

"The Lord God said, 'It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suited to him.'" Genesis 2:18

The U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter on stewardship calls us to life of community in order to fight the destructive individualism in our culture. It is not good to be alone.

RESPECT LIFE

President Theodore Roosevelt once said, "The mother is the one supreme asset of national life. She is more important by far than the successful statesman, or business man, or artist, or scientist." Mothers play a vital part of our national character. They deserve honor for their steadfast love and wisdom that has made America a great nation.

Motherhood is a rewarding and often difficult job. A mother is a child's first teacher and affects a child's life like few others can. Loving and selfless mothers can inspire their children to love themselves and others, work hard, make healthy choices, serve causes greater than self, and achieve their dreams. Mothers who protect, teach, and nurture their children with all their hearts strengthen their families and help build a better future for our country.

OUR KIDDOS NEED YOUR HELP

Our Religious Education program is in dire need of catechist teachers for Grades 3, 5, and 7. Please consider volunteering to work with our precious children once a week on Wednesday evenings. Call Pat Garlitz at 445-2130 if you would like more information or if you can help. Thank you!

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Q. Is the Devil really alive and well?

A. Pope Francis takes a literal view of the devil. He has alluded to him ever since his first homily as Pope, when he boldly quoted the French author Leon Bloy: "Anyone who does not pray to the Lord prays to the devil." He has warned that the devil wants to destroy the family. The devil appears to be alive and kicking also in Pope Francis' modernizing church.

Often depicted as a monster through the Middle Ages, the devil was increasingly viewed as an invisible spirit of temptation during the 16th Century Protestant Reformation. More recently, some liberal Christians have understood Satan in metaphorical terms. But he remains a real presence among evangelical Protestants and Catholic traditionalists. "The devil is still alive and at work." The Vatican has faced the demonic threat by hosting its largest convention on exorcism, which was a six-day course in 2014 to train about 200 Roman Catholic priests from more than 30 countries in the ancient rite of exorcism.

The Church has cautioned not to mistake mental illness for demonic possessions. It said that signs for a person being under the devil's control include speaking in a language the possessed person doesn't know and abnormal displays of strength.

When you hear someone say, "Satan is trying to take over this country, that person probably could give you names and addresses of the people in mind."

MEET PAT GARLITZ

Pat is our new Faith Formation Director, who serves both Incarnation and St. Paul parishes. She is originally from Louisville but relocated to Maryland at age 18, where she worked for the Navy as a Civil Servant. Pat married in Maryland and had a daughter, who now lives in Florida. After her civil service gig, she went on to become a grade school teacher for the next 30 years, in both Maryland and Georgia.

About five years after her retirement, and following the death of her husband in Georgia and her mother in Louisville, she returned to Louisville to be caretaker of her father, William Shawler, who has been an Incarnation parishioner for about 50 years.

Pat has always volunteered at parishes where she belonged and has served as a catechist teacher of religious education, including our DiCaff program for the last several years. She has taken a number of training courses with the Archdiocese. Pat said she never dreamed of taking on a new job at this point in her life; but when she saw the need for a Faith Formation Director, she felt called to respond. She will continue with her education and plans to achieve her Masters certificate from the Archdiocese.

Pat says that although she is new to this type job, she has a lot of help. She will have the assistance of several "old hands" with the RCIA program, including Bruce Adams, Rita & Hank Schnieders, and Doris Kleitz; and former Formation Director, Amy Gaekle, has made herself available for the questions that will inevitably come up.

Red Cross Blood Drive

Monday, October 4, 12:30-6:30pm in the gym. All types of blood are needed. Thank you for the gift of life.
