Heavenly Father, we ask you to protect our little ones both day and night, especially when we cannot be with them. Be our eyes and our ears, and please keep them safe. Amen.

FAMILY MOMENTS

Marriage Moments: "I prayed, and prudence was given me." (Wisdom 7:7) How one talks with God (prayer) varies from person to person. Some like memorized prayers, some read scripture, some quietly meditate. Share what style is most meaningful to each of you.

Parenting Pointers: "Go, sell what you own, and give to the poor." (Mark 10:21) Invite everyone in your family to choose one possession this weekend to give to someone who needs it. Let it go.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

STEWARDSHIP

"Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, 'You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.'" Mark 10:21

Following Christ in a consumer society like ours is not an easy task. As a result, we are trained not to give anything, but to always pay for what we get; and to expect everyone else to do the same.

WHAT IS CHILD ABUSE?

Any intentional harm or mistreatment to a child under 18 years old is considered child abuse. Child abuse takes many forms, which often occur at the same time.

- ⇒ Physical abuse. Physical child abuse occurs when a child is purposely physically injured or put at risk of harm by another person.
- ⇒ Sexual abuse. Sexual child abuse is any sexual activity with a child, such as fondling, oral-genital contact, intercourse, exploitation, or exposure to child pornography.
- ⇒ Emotional abuse. Emotional child abuse means injuring a child's self-esteem or emotional well-being. It includes verbal and emotional assault, such as continually belittling or berating a child, as well as isolating, ignoring, or rejecting a child.
- ⇒ Medical abuse. Medical child abuse occurs when someone gives false information about illness in a child that requires medical attention, putting the child at risk of injury and unnecessary medical care.
- ⇒ Neglect. Child neglect is failure to provide adequate food, shelter, affection, supervision, education, or dental or medical care.

In many cases, child abuse is done by someone the child knows and trusts — often a parent or other relative. If you suspect child abuse, report the abuse to the proper authorities.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

- Q. What do we know about Mother Mary's parents, Anne and Joachim?
- A. We don't know many details about their lives because they are never mentioned in the New Testament. Everything we know about them comes down through tradition — the stories people told about them.

We believe they were respected members of the Jewish community and that they wanted to become parents so much that Joachim went into the desert to fast and pray that God would hear their prayer. It is said that an angel told them they would soon have a daughter who would become famous throughout the world.

Months later, Mary was born. Tradition tells us that when Mary was three years old, Anne and Joachim took her to the temple in Jerusalem to consecrate her for special service to the Lord. We call this celebration the "Presentation of the Virgin Mary." It means that Mary was to play an important part in God's loving plan for the world.

We honor Joachim and Anne as saints and celebrate their joint feast day on July 26. Their love for one another and for Mary is an example to us how God calls us to live. They also remind us to honor our own grandparents and to thank them for the blessings they have passed down to us in love.

There is a church of St. Anne in Jerusalem that is believed to be built on the site of the home of Sts. Joachim and Anne when they lived in Jerusalem.

Thank You "The family of Martin Drury wishes to express our great appreciation for the beautiful celebration of Martin's life. To Fr. Christian, Deacon Mark, Jeannie Levy, Jean Gawarecki, Peggy Fey, Jesse Schuler, the Resurrection Choir, and the ones who brought food and served the delicious meal, and all the thoughts and prayers from our Incarnation family, we thank everyone!" Charlotte Drury and Family
