Reflection from Sr. Gail

The wise men followed the star to find the new born King. The long awaited savior was anticipated for generations. They looked for him to transform the world in their image of success. They looked for him to dethrone the current kings, and rulers. Yet, their plans and ideas did not fit God's idea of a savior.

God's plan is still not fitting our idea of a savior. Where are you looking for God and not finding Him? There are ways our human minds try to box God into our image. Look at the places where you are annoyed or angry with God because they are not happening as you imagine/want; and you will find the box where you placed God. His spirit cannot be contained in tight traditions, and set rules. God writes outside the lines/boxes. The traditions are to remind us of His essence, but not to replace Him so much that we think He is not present if the tradition is not there.

When we bump up against our created mental box, open the lid so that God can throw away the box and expand His vision for your life. The new expansion will always include a little bit of old and a little bit of new. Become curious enough to look at your feelings from the thoughts that started them. Then be open to allowing Jesus to change those thoughts, so that new reactions are possible.

Christmas Pageant

Christmas Pageant

Those who attended the Christmas Pageant shared how many indicated they wanted to come, but once they went home it would be hard to return. To include everyone in our tribute to our brother Jesus, we decided to postpone the pageant to Jan. 2nd. It will take place in the church immediately following the 9:00 AM Mass. A meal will follow in Waldon Hall. Since we will still be in the Christmas season this will allow us to host our first meal together in the new year. Hope to see you on Jan. 2nd. Plan to be involved in the Christmas story.
