Pope Francis Quote "The Word of God entered with 'patience' in the moment of the Incarnation and thus unto death on the Cross. Patience and perseverance. We do not have a 'magic wand' for everything, but we do have our trust in the Lord Who accompanies us and never abandons us. ... Let us do good, but without expected to be recompensed. Let us sow and offer witness. Our witness is the beginning of an evangelization that touches the heart and transforms is. Words without example are of no use! Our witness is that brings and gives validity to our words."

Reflection from Sr. Gail

The word love is thrown around so loosely these days. But the love spoken of in the gospel is not common. The type of love spoken of in the gospel is the love God has shared with his disobedient children for thousands of years. It is a love that endures all hardships. It is a love that is ready to begin again after mistakes have been made. It is a love that does not judge. It is a love that perseveres with patience.

God calls parish communities to this same type of love. It is sincere, and is not in the same category as “romantic” love. Romantic love can fall in one day, and out the next. The type of love God calls communities to is the love that can withstand the test of time. That means with God in the center nothing can deter a community from staying together, working to help each other rise to their highest godly potential, nor forgiving one another and beginning again.

When communities mirror God’s love they grow in faith, hope and endurance. It’s not about just coming together; it becomes celebrating the greatness that rises from learning how to become the greater love of God together. Have you committed to God’s challenge to become community, by growing in faith, hope and love together?

What the Bible Says About Perseverance:

Romans 5:3-4 More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope.

Galatians 6:9 And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

Philippians 1:6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

1 Timothy 4:16 Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Please let the office know if there are names to be deleted due to healing or transitioning to new life
